TOPICS OF THE DAY

FOOT AND MOUTH DISEASE.

FROM EVERYWHERE.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

The discipline competition of the University of Oregon has been for the past four years under charge of Major John E. Yost, a veteran of the Spanish-American War. The competition is open to all members of the university, and the winners are awarded medals and prizes. The competition is held every year in connection with the annual reunion of the alumni.

The discipline competition is considered one of the most important events of the year in the university, and the winner is honored by the faculty and the students.

The disciplines involved in the competition include military training, athletics, and academic skills. The winners are selected based on their performance in these areas.

The discipline competition is held in different locations across the university, and the winners are announced at the annual reunion.

The discipline competition is an important event for the students, as it promotes a sense of community and pride in their university. It also provides an opportunity for students to develop their skills and competencies.

The discipline competition is

an important event for the faculty, as it allows them to evaluate and improve the educational programs offered by the university.

The discipline competition is

an important event for the alumni, as it provides an opportunity for them to reconnect with their alma mater and support their fellow alumni.

The discipline competition is

an important event for the community, as it promotes a positive image of the university and enhances its reputation.

The discipline competition is

an important event for the students, faculty, alumni, and community, as it promotes a sense of involvement and pride in the university.