The new Shoes are wonderfully handsome and well-made.

We are delighted with them, so will you be.

Shoes in every style, fashionable and common sense.

Children's Shoes? Yes, indeed.

Prices? They are the lowest in Washington.

Our motto? "Pay a little more and sell a little lower than anybody else."

That's Stoll's motto! Yes, STOLL'S "810" Seventh St. N. W.

BAD PIECE OF BAGGAGE

Negro Murderer Singleton Found Concealed in a Trunk.

There is Talk of Lynching, But the Mayor Has Given His Pledge for a Fair Trial.

Jacksville, Fla., Oct. 1.—A special to the Times-Union from Tampa says: Harry Singleton, the negro who murdered Pullman McCormick a few days ago, was captured this evening. The capture came about in a remarkable way.

Yesterday morning a negro, whose name has not been divulged, went to Mayor Solomonson and proposed to reveal Singleton's hiding place, provided the mayor gave a fair trial, and there would be no lynching. The mayor accepted the proposition, and was informed that Singleton was at a house in the suburbs occupied by Ella Murray, a white woman.

DID NOT DENOUNCE JENKINS.

Pacific Consul McNaught Replies to His Reported Utterances.

Spokane, Wash., Oct. 1.—James McNaught, general agent of the Northern Pacific Railroad, who passed through here late last night with President Brantley, declined the request that he denounce Judge Jenkins, of Milwaukee, for his appointment of new receivers for the Northern Pacific.

Mr. McNaught had not seen the dispatch until it was shown him last night. He was very indignant to think that any one would accuse him of using such expressions.

George H. Valliant Dead.
New York, Oct. 1.—George H. Valliant, of New York city, an extensively known railroad man, and vice president of the New York Lake Erie & Western Railroad, died yesterday at a private sanitarium at Bristol, R. I., from complications of disease following locomotor ataxia.

BY CARDINAL'S HANDS

McMahon Hall Dedicated With Rites of the Church.

GREAT RELIGIOUS MEETING

Cardinal Gibbons, Assisted by Mgr. Sattoli and Bishop Krane, Performed the Solemn and Impressive Service—Digitaries of the Roman Church Present in Hundreds.

The series of grand religious solemnities which will occur for the next three days was inaugurated this morning by the meeting of the directors of the Catholic University.

RESOLUTIONS IN MEMORIAM.

The distinguished directors, immediately after assembling, passed resolutions of profound regret at the death of their colleague, Mr. Eugene Kelly, of New York. Mr. Kelly had been since the inception of the university its treasurer, and was at all times a generous benefactor.

THEY ATE DOGS.

"We left Peary's Lodge on April 1," said "Lieut. Peary, Mr. Lee, myself and six Eskimoes. The natives only had 124 miles with us. We had an awful time. Our food supplies gave out and finally we had to eat the dogs and cat. We got about ten miles further north than Lieut. Peary went on his last trip and then had to turn home.

BLESSING BY THE CARDINAL.

In the center of the hall a small altar has been erected. Here the cardinal presided, and the ceremony of dedication began. Receiving from Bishop Krane the vessel and incense, the cardinal blessed the scene and placed it in the center, and soon the aromatic odor floated through the vast building, and the solemn service of the hour of flowers. The cardinal then received the holy water, and moving slowly through the hall and adjacent rooms, read the Roman ritual for the dedication of a school.
