Welcome to the G. A. R.

TOMORROW
Will Appear the Initial Number of the Special G. A. R. Editions
......OF THE......
WASHINGTON TIMES!

---

These Special Editions will appear daily throughout the remainder of the week. They will contain all the News of the Armistice from day to day, and will be of the greatest historical value. In addition they will contain many new and unique features.

They will be Elaborately and Handsomely Printed and Bound. They will be the beaten path of G. A. R. Editions.

They will contain much that will be not only of interest to the Veterans, but to all those who love their country and glory in the deeds of valor of the Heroes dead and the Heroes living.

The Sunday Times
TOMORROW
Will contain, in addition to the Special G. A. R. Features, its usual amount of Literary, Dramatic and Society News and Gossip. Miss Manhattan treatise of the latest mode. The Children's Page will prove to be unusually attractive. "Louisa," Mrs. O'Herlihy's romantic story, continues to grow in interest. The Schools of the city, public and private, are being handled in a new and larger manner.

AS USUAL, THERE WILL BE FOUND
ALL THE NEWS AND ALL THE SPORTS.

5C THE WASHINGTON SUNDAY TIMES, 5C

---

We Will Trust You When You Want
Clothing!

Men's Suits.

$10

Men's Suits.

The finest lot of suits for this season
$15

Men's Suits.

The regulation G. A. R. Suits made in the best styles, exclusively low prices.

Men's Pants.

All sizes.

MAYER & CO.
1430-1470 Seventh Street.

DON'T WORRY!
COTS TO BURN.
Price, 75c Each.

AT NOTES,
417 Louisiana Ave.
Open Late Tonight and Tomorrow.

Attention, Visitors!
G. A. R. Members and Others,
Unusual Points of Interest.

PRESIDENT LINCOLN'S ASSAINT.
The Lincoln Tomb in Springfield, Ill., where the great "Father of the Country" is lying in state for the last time. It is a novel attraction.

OWNED BY GEN. WASHINGTON.
Washington's Headquarters, Valley Forge, Pa., where the warlike "Father of his Country" lived and died.

A NOVEL ATTRACTION.

Will Give Away 50,000 Boxes of Medicine.