> The following communication, sent to he sporting editor of The Morning Times a tried and true "rooter" for the Washington baseball club, uncontretly inleaves the anoughts of a great many regufar attendants at the National Park. It choices, at least, a careful study of the individual players, an accurate memory of the scaver's history and a clear under standing of the greatest of all games It is reproduced without further introduction for what it is worth;

Editor Tunes: To say that the present beam has been a disappointment to owners and managers is but an echo of their own expressions. There are players upon the team who are recognized the country over he competent and skilled, who have not won playing the game of their life to any alarming extent.

It is not charged against these that they wallfully shirked or neglected their luties. Many unfortunate circumstatures taces combined to impair their aschibess. The first serious misfortune that afflicted the feam was the lajury to Maul's pitching arm, which has kept him out of the game for about two mouths. The loss Roston, of his services was seriously felt, as he was in perfect form, and the club's most Poyd, the left-banded patcher, who was victim, and was forced to retire from the game, in consequence of a lame arm, Stocksdale was chronically out of contition, and was family released. This left the club with but two pitchers, Mercer and Auderson, upon whom they could rely, as Malareky had not established himself as a first class artist, though he is a promising youngster and will yet be favorably heard from. He, too, is at presout a victim to the "hoodoo," and has been sick with malaria.

PITCHERS WERE WANTED. With the pitching department thus demoralized, it is not a matter of astonobment that the team failed to play winning ball. Two games a day for several New and untried men were often substituted, but no satisfactory results fol-come of the club. The next unfortunate visitation was the collision between Scheibeck, the shortstop, and Schlach, the left fielder, two of the most variable men on the team. This seemed the crowning sheaf of our fatalities, two of the most important positions vacant and no one in eight competent to full the positions, which finally had to be played by two

About this time a promising young player named Lush, whose release Mr. Wagner had purchased at a big price from one of the Eastern leagues, reported for duty, but in a crapled condition, baving injured one of his fingers in a recent game. Seeing the crippled condition of the club he insisted on taking Selbach's place in left field, where t was evident to every body that he was playing under great difficulty in consequence of the pain he was suffering from his injured finger, but he pluckily speed up to his work and played three games, when a surgeon told the young man that he would

Umpire O'Day Finally Lost His Temper in a Scrappy Game.

New York, Sept. 6.—New York and Paisburg figured in a scrappy gameto-day which the Gothannies won after a hard fight in the namb inning, making three hits after Tieroan went out. The visitors ried to provoke Unapire O'Day, who took it all good staturedly until Manager Mark, who was satting on the players' bench in uniform, began to use vile language. O'Day promptly thesi Mack $100 and ordered him from the field. Mack refused to go, and remained on the bench until he was escotted from the grounds by two policemen. O'Day was londly cheered for his action. Attendance, 900. Sorre.

fortch Lady was very much on the lobster order. She was backed to I to Z and content was backed to 1 to 2 and then went back to 7 to 5.

Jockey Nostrand has been quite sick for received days. He has been stopping at Mr. Paugle's house at St. Asaph.

After Tammany Hall passed under the wire, he took it into his head to keep on running, and made the circuit of the track three times before he stopped.

Johnny Dwyer accused Honlahan of giving him a yank with May D., and had some words with him in front of the pauges stand. Houlahan compia med to the hidges and Dwyer, when called upon, made his apologies. Lattle Honlahan is all right und Dwyer should have been severely dealt with for his unsalled-for charge.

The horses belonging to Johnny Castle were put up at auction at the St. Asaphitack yesterday and rearized the following prices: Red Star, $500; Westchester, $500; Granpian, $500; Psyche, $250; Tioga, $200, and Mckeever, $150. J. Pitrown bought the above-named; Mr. Hill also bought Ronald for $40, and lke Garson brought Ronald for $40, and lke Garson brought Ronald for $40, and lke Garson brought the horse Taconia for $40.

Jockey Zeler, backed up by Judge McMahon, made an effort to get back in the saddle before hissixiy daysarenp. Starter Flynn would not take a day off, although one of the officials of the track seemed willing to be lenient. It would seem that Zeller had been down long enough. As McMahon is satisfied with the ride that he rot, and the biy has been on tan ground for three weeks, he has been punished chough.

Reduction of Purses at St. Asaph's to Go Into Effect on Monday-As Soon as Big Tracks Close, Prices Will Be Restored-Johnny Diestei and Jockey Moore Ruled Up.

When the St. Asaph track gets bad it is and for keeps. The heavy rain vesterday morning made the course a veritable sea found by the time the first race was called. As a consequence, the very first thing hat happened was the falling of awo norses on the turn into the stretch. St. Laurent and Senator were the ones to go down, but beyond a shaking up beither | Engineer Corps had won by seven points, they nor their boys, McClay and Neary, a total of 1,564 to Georgia's 1,557. that Diestel sent him out to win as he bet quite a little bunch of money on him. Benefactor was way the best horse in the opening race and could have won if St. Laurent had stood up. As it was he gailoped in three lengths in front of Pocaboutas. There was a bot tip on Dutch Lady to win the second event and she closed at 7 to 5. She was never in the hunt, Chink leading from start to finish and winning pulled to a walk by four lengths.

BELISARIUS WON EASILY. Belisarius looked to cutclass his field in the third, and was made a 7 to 10 shot. He went to the front on the first turn and won galloping from Lilipute, with Ponce de Leon third.

Mack and Lovell opened equal favor-ites in the next race, but the bulk of the money went in on the latter, and she closed a prohibitive favorite at 7 to 10. Dervish and Lovell made the running to the stretch, where Lovell easily took command and won easily. Sonora closed a slight favorite over Con Lucy in the fifth race, but had to be
