SNEED SAVES THE GAME

BY FIRST-CLASS WORK WITH THE BAT AND BALL.

Memphis Wins a Beautifully Played Game by a Score of 5 to 4—The Game To-Day.

The second game of the series of exhibition games to be played here between Nashville and Memphis came off yesterday at the new ball grounds, and was a marked improvement on Tuesday's game. It was close and exciting from start to finish, and resulted in a well-earned victory for the home nine. The new pitcher, O'Leary, made a favorable impression, striking out six men, and proving himself a pitcher of some skill, and more than a match for the twirler who occupied the box for the opposing nine. The fielding of both sides was somewhat loose, notably in the throwing, and the errors scored showed that neither club is thoroughly in form. But this is hardly to be wondered at in view of the fact that many of the men are working in a new climate, and some of them under unfavorable conditions. Krehmeyer has a sore hand, which accounts for two costly bad throws, and Pitcher O'Leary made a number of wild pitches that threatened to prove fatal errors. The features of the game were the fine fielding of Fusselbach, Sneed, Whitehead and Phelan for Memphis, and O'Brien, Bittman and Sowders for Nashville and the skillful base running of Black, Fusselback Krehmeyer and Lavin.

The following is a detailed account of the game: Nashville was first at the bat; Marr sent a safe one to center field for first base, Hillery knocked a fly to right field which Sneed gracefully took in, Marr going to second. Marr started for third and Krehmeyer in the endeavor to cut him off threw wildly over third base, letting Marr in. Goldsby gave Sneed another chance with a fly to right field, which the latter accepted. Beard sent one to Phelan, who delivered it to Andrews, retiring the side with one run. For Memphis Black hit to center field for first base, stole second, and made third on a passed ball. Lavin was retired at first, Andrews sent a fly to third, which cost him a zero; Black scored on a passed ball, Sneed struck out. This left the score 1 to 1, and the crowd began to become interested. Neither side scored again until the fifth inning. The third inning was marked by a fine play on the part of Sneed and Krehmeyer. Two men were out when Hillery sent a high one to Back who muffed it, allowing Hillery to make second. Goldsby hit to pitcher, who made a wild throw to Andrews, and the ball slipped through the latter's hands Hillery started for home, but Sneed had picked the ball up, and by a beautiful throw from right field, sent it to home plate in time to nip in the bud what looked like a sure run. It was a fine play, and roused the crowd to enthusiasm. In the fifth inning the home men had a run of bad luck. McVey was at first and O'Leary sent a hot ball at him that struck him in the back below the neck. He was temporarily disabled and O'Brien went to first base to run for him. Bittman went out on a foul tip. Smith made first base on a short hit. Marr was also struck by pitcher and took first, Smith advancing to second, McVey to third. McVey scored on pitcher's bad throw to second. Hillery came to the bat and Marr and Smith scored on a passed ball. Hillery hits safe to center field and makes first, but is caught out by Phelan while trying to steal second. Goldsby hit too short and retired at first. Memphis failed to score and the figures 4 to 1 in favor of Nashville began to look ominous, but the home team did not become disheartened and played a plucky, up-hill game. In the sixth inning Beard went out on a foul to Krehmeyer. Sowders struck out. O'Brien sent a cracker to center field for three bases. McVey hit to pitcher and got to first. O'Brien started for but was caught in a chase between Whitehead and Krehmeyer, and run down by the former. Black sent a fly to Bittman's open hands. Lavin was allowed first, being hit by ball. Andrews went out at first on a short one to pitcher, Lavin advancing to second. Sneed at bat, Lavin maked third on a wild pitch and scored on a passed ball. Sneed took first on balls, but died at second on Fusselbach's hit to Bittman, reducing the lead of Nashville by one more and leaving the score 4 to 2. In the seventh inning neither side scored, but Fusselbach made a play that deserves mention. Two men were out. Marr hit to pitcher, who fumbled. Quick as lightning Fusselbach got the ball and straight as a shot sent it to first in time to intercept Marr. In the eighth inning Hillery, Goldsby and Beard were retired in one, two, three order. O'Leary went out on a liner to first, and Black perished by means of a right one to short. Lavin hit to third, and made third base on a bad throw of Hillery to first base. Andrews took first on balls. Sneed took the bat, and a desperate hope went up that he might hit the ball. No one expected him to do it. It was 10 to 1 that he wouldn't, and yet he did. To everybody's surprise and amid a storm of cheers he sent a safe one over second base, bringing in Lavin and coming within an ace of landing Andrews, who missed the home plate by a hair's breadth. This left the score 4 to 3 in favor of Nashville, and Memphis took began to go up. The ninth inning was intensely exciting. Three strikes were called on Sowders, the catcher dropped the ball, but recovered it in time to intercept the old reliable at first base. O'Brien sent a hot one to third, but Whitehead sent it straight as an arrow into Andrews's hands. McVey sent an easy one to pitcher, who connected with first base in good time. This still left the score 4 to 3 in Nashville's favor, with another half inning chance for Memphis, and they pluckily availed themselves of it. Fusselbach hit to third, making first on Hillery's muff. Phelan takes bat, and Fusselbach makes a beautiful spurt to second. Phelan was retired at first, Fusselbach making third. Whitehead hit to short and Fusselbach glided home by the skin of his teeth. Judgment was called, Nashville claiming that the catcher had caught him out, but Umpire Brennan decided him not out, and Nashville made a show of retiring from the field, but better counsels prevailed and they elected to finish the game. Krehmeyer took the bat, Whitehead at first steals second; Krehmeyer hit to second and was caught out at first, Whitehead making third. O'Leary at bat. Catcher threw ball to pitcher, who missed it. Beard went for it, reached it, but fumbled and Whitehead slipped in, winning the game amid the wildest enthusiasm.

Baseball Notes.

Yesterday was presented the unusual spectacle of two left handed batteries pitted against each other.

McElroy has been released and Kaeouff, late of the Athletics, telegraphed for. He is said to have a good record as a pitcher and much is expected of him

Eloped with Her Pastor.

MILTON, W. VA., March 22.—Great excitement prevails in town to-day, especially in religious circles, by the discovery that the Rev. N. A. Ramsey of this place had eloped last night with his cousin, Miss Rosa S. Hanley. The affair is rendered more shocking by the fact that the reverend gentleman, who stood most high in the estimation of his congregation, leaves an excellent wife and three small children. Miss Rosa Hanley was a social belle here, eighteen years of age, and very beautiful. She was regarded as an especial friend of her paramour's wife. Mr. Ramsey was a Presbyterian, and has expounded the gospel here for ten years, and the fall of the heavens could not have created a greater shock than this insane action of his. Mrs. Ramsey, it is thought, will die from the blow. The family of the young lady vow summary vengeance on her seducer. The whereabouts of the guilty pair is unknown, but it is believed they have gone over the Chesapeake and Ohio to Cincinnati.

SALVATION OIL, the greatest cure on earth for pain, may be relied on to effect a cure wherever an external application can be used. Price only 25 cents a bottle.

Will Be Torn to Pieces.

BATESVILLE Panolian: The corporations may succeed further to reduce the working-people to a state of vassalage, but the end will come nevertheless—and they will be torn to pieces and ruined before many decades. Working-people will endure long and suffer much, but when they are finally driven to desperation by starvation and want, woe to those who have caused it.

SOUTHERN RAILROADS.

CHANGE OF GAUGE OF THE TEXAS AND ST. LOUIS.

The Railroad Bond Market—Chesapeake and Nashville—East Tennessee Officials—Notes.

[SPECIAL TO THE APPEAL.]

PINE BLUFF, ARK., March 24.—W. R. Compton, general superintendent, and H. G. Allis, comptroller of the Texas and St. Louis railway, accompanied by an expert engineer, representing the bondholders of the road, arrived here this afternoon. The gauge of the road will be broadened at once and new rails laid, and the engineer will report cost through.

Railroad Bonds.

The continued extremely low rates which money commands, when secured by first-class collaterals, is having a wonderful effect upon the railroad bond market. What were considered A1 investment railroad bonds a few years ago have been almost entirely absorbed by permanent investors, and when a set ay bond of this class finds its way to Wall street, it readily commands an almost fabulous premium. The natural result is to bring forward the more recent issues, the better classes of which are now greatly in favor among would-be investors. The general public has no idea of the great number of railroad bonds dealt in during the past month at the Stock Exchange, the amount of sales and the advances made in quotations.

The Chesapeake and Nashville.

President Zimmerman has returned to Gallatin from Glasgow, and reports Capt Harvey Sawyer and corps making fair headway on their lines in Kentucky. The main line will run from Glasgow to the Kentucky Central and Short Line, and from Glasgow to the Chesapeake and Ohio and Southwestern. It will be built connecting at Cecelia with the Short Line; will be about thirty miles long; will give Louisville connection with the Chesapeake and Nashville, and will make the distance from Nashville to Louisville by the Chesapeake and Nashville some eighteen miles shorter than by the Louisville and Nashville. President Zimmerman leaves for Nashville to-night.

SPIKES AND SPARKS.

IT is reported that the officials of the Queen and Crescent route are seriously contemplating changing the gauge of the New Orleans and Northeastern division on Sunday, April 4th. It is not known why the change is to be made so soon.

MASTER MECHANIC H. N. BURFORD of the Memphis and Charleston shops is at Huntsville erecting the machinery necessary to change the gauge of the rolling stock of the road in conformity with the standard gauge, to which the tracks will soon be adjusted.

THE proposed sale of the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia railroad in May next will have no effect in changing the present officers of the company. Receiver Henry Fink will doubtless be made general manager, and the other officers will continue in their present positions.

A MEETING in the interest of the extension of the Nashville and Chattanooga road from Elora to Huntsville, $36,000 of the $40,000 bonus was subscribed at Huntsville. Terminal facilities here have been secured, and a committee appointed to secure the right of way. The business men are confident that all expected of Huntsville will be done.

JUDGE McDOWELL.

Declines to Stand for Re-election, and Indorses Judge Ellett.

There is now very little doubt of the nomination of Judge H. T. Ellett for the Chancellorship, Judge McDowell, whom many supposed might be a candidate for re-election, having not only declined to enter the contest, but joined in the call upon Judge Ellett, whom he assures of his cordial support. The following, which explains the situation, was handed the APPEAL last night:

"Many of my political and personal friends having asked me whether I would be a candidate for reelection to the responsible position of Chancellor, in which I have served the public for nearly eight years, I regard it as due to them and to the public to say that, for many reasons, I am not a candidate.

"In declining to enter into a contest for a judicial position and in resuming my position at the bar, I shall regard myself as entitled to resume the lawyer's interest in the Chancellorship.

"The name of the Hon. H. T. Ellett has been suggested in this connection. If he will consent to be a candidate he will have my earnest and hearty support, both from the standpoint of a citizen and a lawyer. Judge Ellett's long experience, great learning, and high character, I hope justify this declaration, when the Chancellorship is involved, although it is spoken by one who occupies the bench.

"W. W. McDOWELL."

THREE FIRES.

Dangerous Blaze on Calhoun Street—Other Sparks.

At 11 o'clock last night a light was seen to the northeast of the city and the engines turned out, but stopped at the city limits, the fire being some distance farther out.

About 1 o'clock yesterday a small frame building at 367 Calhoun street, just west of Hernando, caught fire from some unknown cause and there was so much delay in turning in an alarm that it was very nearly consumed before the engines arrived. The wind blew fiercely and the sparks and glowing cinders flew in every direction, setting fire to the adjoining tenements, both belonging to B. Richmond, 363 and 365, and to 371 and 373, the property of Steve Marksman, occupied by colored people. Mr. L. L. Pullen's house was also in great danger. The house 249 Desoto street, 200 yards away, caught fire and was slightly damaged.

Earlier in the day an alarm was turned in from box 4, caused by the burning of the roof of 45 Market street, ignited by a spark from the chimney. The damage was about $10.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five a bottle.

Trading in Wives.

TAYLOR, GA., March 22.—A queer story of domestic life has just been unraveled here by the action of vigilantes. There has been living near here two families, one Mrs. Vina Hutto, and the other Mrs. Julia Hutto, both the wives of the same man. Several nights ago a party of masked men visited the houses of both women, dragged them from their beds and soundly flogged them with hickory switches. They were then ordered to leave within a week. The husband, Wm. Hutto, ran for the swamps when he heard the men approach. His reputation for trading in wives is widely known. He sold his first wife for a fiddle and a pen of shucks. He married a second, got a barrel of syrup for so doing, and she died on his hands before he could dispose of her. His third wife he sold for half a bushel of peas. His fourth wife was somewhat of a termagant, whom he found it impossible to sell, although he offered her on trial; so he abandoned her. The two women concerned in the present difficulty are his fifth and sixth wives, respectively.

Peculiar Law Suits.

BLOOMINGTON, ILL., March 24.—Three peculiar suits were begun here today. Four weeks ago Benjamin Sholty of Coral, while insane, shot and killed his brother's wife, Mrs. Levy Sholty; shot and seriously wounded Miss Sholty, his niece, and burned Levy's barn and contents, perishing in the conflagration. To-day three suits for damages were brought against the estate of the deceased madman, Levy Sholty bringing suit for the loss of his wife and a suit for $4000 damages on his barn and contents. Miss Sholty sues for damages inflicted upon her by her uncle. The suits aggregate $10,000.

WOMAN

HER BEST FRIEND!

DR. J. BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR

This famous remedy most happily meets the demand of the age for woman's peculiar and multiform afflictions. It is a remedy for WOMAN ONLY, and for one SPECIAL CLASS of her diseases. It is a specific for certain diseased conditions of the womb, and proposes to so control the Menstrual Function as to regulate all the derangements and irregularities of Woman's

MONTHLY SICKNESS.

Its proprietors claim for it no other medical property; and to doubt the fact that this medicine does positively possess such controlling and regulating powers is simply to discredit the voluntary testimony of thousands of living witnesses who are to-day exulting in the restoration to sound health and happiness.

BRADFIELD'S

FEMALE REGULATOR

is strictly a vegetable compound, and is the product of medical science and practical experience directed toward the benefit of

SUFFERING WOMAN!

It is the studied prescription of a learned physician, whose specialty was WOMAN, and whose fame became enviable and boundless because of his wonderful success in the treatment and cure of female complaints. THE REGULATOR is the GRANDEST REMEDY known, and richly deserves its name—

WOMAN'S BEST FRIEND

Because it controls a class of functions the various derangements of which cause more ill health than all other causes combined, and thus rescues her from a long train of afflictions which sorely embitter her life and prematurely end her existence. Oh, what a multitude of living witnesses can testify to its charming effects! WOMAN, take to your confidence this

PRECIOUS BOON OF HEALTH!

It will relieve you of nearly all the complaints peculiar to your sex. Rely upon it as your safeguard for health, happiness and long life.

Sold by all druggists. Send for our treatise on the Health and Happiness of Woman, mailed free, which gives all particulars.
