SECRETARY MANNING A VICTIM OF OVERWORK.

Big Schemes Before Congress—Mr. Blaine's Political Prospects—His Plans for the Future.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—Inquiry at Secretary Manning's house this morning elicits the information from his private secretary that Mr. Manning is doing well, and that his physical condition is favorable. His sprained ankle causes him considerable pain.

At 11 o'clock this morning Dr. Lincoln and Hamilton reported the condition of Secretary Manning as not much changed since midnight. "He slept nearly all night," said Dr. Lincoln to an Associated Press reporter, "and is doing as well as could be expected; he is, however, very weak, and unable to sit up. His mind is clear, and he is in good spirits."

"Are there any symptoms indicating danger?" was asked Dr. Lincoln. "No, none have yet appeared."

Dr. Hamilton made a statement to Assistant Secretary Fairchild this afternoon in regard to the condition of Secretary Manning, from which it appears that he has symptoms of apoplexy, and is not regarded as out of danger. Dr. Hamilton says he will be confined to his bed for some time.

Secretary Manning was first taken ill in his office, and, in falling to the floor from exhaustion, wrenched his ankle. Subsequently he grew worse and had symptoms of apoplexy, which alarmed his friends and they summoned a physician. The attack of vertigo, Mr. Fairchild said, was entirely unobserved. At about 3 o'clock a messenger from the Secretary's house informed Mr. Fairchild that the Secretary was much improved. The physicians will have another consultation this afternoon.

Blaine Still in the Political Field. Ex-Poetmaster Manly, of Augusta, Me., the friend of Mr. Blaine, who came here a week ago to spend some days in conferring with Mr. Blaine and in looking over the political field, left the city somewhat abruptly for New York, where he will pass a few days and thence return to Maine. In speaking to a friend Mr. Manly said his visit had been short.

Estimates of the Expenses Incurred by Cabinet Officers. Letter in the New York Herald: Secretary Whitney and his wife have abandoned the social honors of the season, although they are not expected to do so. Mr. Whitney has been extravagant in his expenses. Usually they want an office, but are not above accepting gifts from these men. It is very difficult to draw the line between what is proper and what is excessive.

Some Huge Schemes. Every session of Congress brings to light some new enterprise of mammoth proportions which somebody is willing to see the government with its full treasury undertake. Mr. Eads wants the government to help him with his railway to carry ships across the Isthmus of Panama.

CONTINUATION OF THE PENSION BUREAU INVESTIGATION.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—The examination of Pension Commissioner Black was continued by the Senate Committee on Public Expenditures this morning. Senator Harrison took up the case of Capt. John A. Whitist, one of the twenty cases furnished by Commissioner Black to sustain his charge that the pension office had been managed as a political machine by his predecessors.

Commissioner Black said he did not wish to be examined on that case this morning, and that he would withdraw it from the investigation. Senator Harrison asked whether the withdrawal was in consequence of the politics of the claimant.

Senator Harrison asked if witness knew that claimant had always been a Democrat, and was a chairman of the Democratic Committee of Indianapolis, to which the commissioner replied in the negative.

Commissioner Black said he had not dropped Whitist's case because of his politics. He did not know whether he should do it. Emphatically, he thought the testimony was enough to keep him on the rolls.

Is often the beginning of serious affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes, and Lungs. Therefore, the importance of early and effective treatment cannot be overestimated. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral may always be relied upon for the speedy cure of a Cold or Cough.

Last January I was attacked with a severe cold, which, by neglect and fretting on my lungs, a terrible cough soon followed, accompanied by pains in the chest, from which I suffered intensely. After trying various remedies, without obtaining relief, I commenced taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and was

I contracted a severe cold, which suddenly developed into Pneumonia, presenting dangerous and obstinate symptoms. My physician at once ordered the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. His instructions were followed, and the result was a rapid and permanent cure.—H. E. Simpson, Rogers Prairie, Texas.

Two years ago I suffered from a severe cold which settled on my lungs. I consulted various physicians, and took the medicines they prescribed, but received only temporary relief. A friend induced me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. After taking two bottles of this medicine I was cured. Since then I have given the Pectoral to my children, and consider it

The Best Remedy for Colds, Coughs, and All Throat and Lung Diseases, ever used in my family.—Robert Van Hook, Mount Airy, N. C.

Some time ago I took a slight cold, which, being neglected, grew worse, and settled on my lungs. I had a hacking cough, and was very weak. This cold, which I neglected, nearly cost me my life. I commenced using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and in a few days I was cured. I feel that I owe the preservation of my life to its curative powers.—Mrs. Ann Lockwood, Avon, New York.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is considered here, the one great remedy for all diseases of the throat and lungs, and is more in demand than any other medicine of its class.—J. F. Roberts, Middlebury, Vt.
