GOV. IRELAND'S POSITION

ON THE CUTTING AFFAIR !LAIN-LY STATED BY HIMSELF.

He Favors Peace, but Not at the Expense of the Country's Honor.

NEW YORK, August 13.—The Herald has the following dispatch from Gov.

Ireland, of Texas: AUSTIN, TEX., August 12, 1886. To the Editor of the Herald :

You ask my views of the Cut'ing case. Cutting has never applied to me. It may be conceded, if necessary, that Cutting has been legally convicted under Mexican law, but the people and Government of the United States can never submit to such a rule of law. Every editor and every other person who writes or prints matter in the United States obnoxious to the views of Mexican courts can at any time when found in Mexico be arrested and punished, as Cutting has been. The person of Cutting is not involved. Surely our government has not made an idle demand. No one wants way and Literat. one wants war, and I trust no one wants peace at the expense of national bosor and the right of an American citizen. The only way to avoid war is to be ready for it, and show a willingness to accept it if it must be. Out rages have gone far enough and have been numerous.

JOHN IRELAND, Governor of Texas. The Feeling at Washington

WASHINGTON, August 13.—It is stated no fresh developments in the Cutting case, and that the attitude of this government has not changed in any respect. This case is the fruit of the natural friction of entrg mism between the sys ems of government of two peoples who differ radically in character order to obtain land here on the reservation," piquantly spoke up the maid. "But I am already married; here is my wife." "Yes, but she is old. I am young. I hear you can easily get a divorce in Chicago. Come here, marry me, and you can have land." Her entreaties were so earnest and arples who differ radically in character and cus'oms. The position we have taken is based upon the assumption that all the ma'erial facts and the legal features of the case are as they have been set forth in the correspondence and reports already made public; but in a matter involving possible war-fare, it is held to be incumbent upon us to make sure that there is nothing of importance beyond the official in formation already in hand, and to this end the best efforts of the department are turned. The toundation once firmly laid, the decision will have to be made whether the differences found to exist shall be reconciled through the further efforts of diplomacy or by war; but in no event will this govern-ment assent to the doctrine that an American citizen can be arrested, tried and punished abroad for an offense committed within our own domain.

What Consul Navarro Says

New York, August 11.—Consul Gen-eral Navarro, the Mexican representative in this city, regards the war talk as ropsensical, and admits that his country would be easy prey for the United States. "It is a matter for dirension and arbitration," he said, "and it does not seem probable that the two governments are going to act like a couple of school boys and come to blows over such a fellow as Cutting. There a many aspects of the case which ad ... t of free discussion, and the Govern r of Ohlhushus no doubt believes that his position is the right one. Although Cutting printed his libel on American soil, he circulated it in Mexico, and thereupon became amenable to Mex can laws Again, there is a clause in the code of Chibuahua making any one who commits a crime against a Mexican citizen amenable to Mexican laws, and, if I am not mistaken, there is a similar clause in the Texan code. The reports of great excitement in the towns slong the bor-der are undoubtedly fabrications. I am in daily communication with perple in all parts of Mexico, and they insist that the matter has a oused only a local interest.

"I had to laugh upon reading a dispatch sileged to have emanated from Gov. Maceyiea, ordering that, in case an attempt should be made to rescue Cutting, his head be cut off and presenie i to the rescuing party. I know the Governor personally, and am posi-tive that he could not have been a party to any such order. He is an in-telligent well educated, and conservative gent'eman, we'l known to many Americans who have traveled in Mexico, and much a mind by them. Carting is receiving the best possi-ble treatment. He is not confined in the jail proper, but couples a room in the jailer's house and enjoys other privileges not extended to ordinary pr soners. I am positive that Pr si-dent Diaz and the Minister of Fereign Affairs are anxious to adjust the mat-ter amicably, and feel sure that an un-der timeing will be reached that will be satisfactory in every way. It is a great injustice to Mexicans to state that Americans are constantly persected and annoyed when on Mexican A respectable, law abiding citi zer is just as free from aunoyance in Mexico as I sm in this country. It is the criminal element that brings tranh e on it elf, and Mexico is blamed for inforcing its laws against.

SHE IS FULLY CIVILIZED.

An Indian Maiden Tells an Editor Novel Way to Get Land,

St. Paul Pioneer Press: While on his recent visit to Detroit lake. William Penn Nixon, accompanied by his wife, visited White Earth Indian Agency. One morning he was chat-ting with Agent Sheenan, who was dilating upon the rapid progress made by the aborigines, when an Indian girl dashed up to the door upon a pretty pony, dismounted, and, taking the train of her riding habit on her arm, walked into the sgency, presented a certificate from a surveyor in regard to fees paid, and said she wished a patent for her land. "Here" said Agent Sheehan, "is a good fillustration Agent Sheehan, "is a good illustration of just what we were talking about."

The Indian girl, though a full blood, made an attractive picture in her bright riding habit, and the editor spoke up, saying: "By the way, how can I secure some land here?" "Where do you live?" saked the red girl. "In Chicago," replied the philosopher of the daily press. "Oh, then, you'll have to marry me order to obtain land here on the reservation." piquantly spoke up the maid. guments so strong that the editor was compelled to use his utmost strategy in order to prevent completing the "treaty" with the Indian maid.

Serve an Injunction on Disease By invigorating a feeble constitution, renovating a debilitated physique, and enriching a thin and innutritions circulation with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the finest, the most highly sanctioned, and the most popular tonic and preventive in existence. It strengthens the stomach, remedies torpor of the liver and bowels, and gives a healthful impulse to the secretive and discharging functions of the kidneys and b'adder. Not only does it arrest and prevent the recurrence of malarial fevers, but it furnishes the only adequate safeguard against them to persons who have never been afflicted with those maiadies, but would be liable to incur them if medicinally supprotected. It eliminates from the blood certain impurities which the most skillful pathologists assign as the exciting cause of those agonizing complaints, rheamatism and, rout, and it is, moreover, an excellent remedy for an eufseelled or overwrought state of the nerves, and for mental despondency. By invigorating a feeble constitution, reno-

Remarkable Surgical Operation. Boston, Mass., August 13.—On Thursday a remarkable surgical opera-tion was performed at the Massachution was performed at the Massachusetts General Hospital by Dr. Mauries H. Richardson, of this city. About a year ago John McCarthy swallowed a set of artificial teeth. The passage of food to the stomach was almost wholly prevented. The patient grew emscisted and weak, and it became evident that unless relief was had he must soon die. Dr. Richardson made a transverse cut in the left side of the abdomen through which the man's stomsch was drawn out and then cut open, when by the insertion of his arm to the elbow. Dr. Richardson was rough and The internal opening was then closed with five silk, and the stomach re-placed, the external cut being also closed with stitches. The whole opera-tion was completed in forty-five minutes. The patient is doing well, and his complete recovery is now con-sidered little less than certain.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK A TRAIN IN PENNSYLVANIA.

A Terrible Disaster Narrowly Averted-The Gilder Case-Sad Sulcide-A Minister's Downfall.

WILLIAM FORT, PA, August 13.—An attempt was made last night to wreck the passenger train on the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, due here a little after midnight. The attempt was made at a point three miles from this city. The switch had been turned, and a terrible disaster would have followed had the passenger train followed had the passenger train reached it before a freight train, which, coming ahead of the passenger train, was thrown off the track and several ears of coal were completely wrecked. The engine turned upside down. The engineer and fireman escaped almost miraculously. Passengers had to be transferred at the scene of the wreck.

An Erring Wife.

Waco, Tex , August 11.—One of the most eingular affairs ever occurring in any county came up here today. It seems that the mother of John Scott, seems that the mother of John Scott, of Wilberger county, lives at Gatesville, Coryelle county, and being on a visit to him her son learned that a man named Martin was paying attention to the old lady, whose age is 65. He set a watch upon the movements of the pair, and found yesterday that they had left for Waco. Today, he came in post haste and made a break came in post haste and made a break for the County Clerk's office to stop the issuance of the marriage certifi-cate. He got no information of the movement of his and it parent, but he got something will was more as-tonishing. It seems that Scott and his wife, Mary Foott, I't get along well, having liv descriptions and she in Gatesville. It seems Mr. Scott had applied at the last term of Corveile District Court for divorce, but the application has been denied. It further seems the fair lady had a lover, named M. H. Hill, and while searching the records for the ancient mothing the records for the ancient mother. ing the records for the ancient mother's name Scott found the name of his wife and that of Hill figuring as expectant bride and groom, having taken out license to marry. Upon applicawife had sworn as a widow. The Forrowing husband and son at once forsook the trail of his mother, and at once proceeded to take steps to secure the custody of his children, whom his unworthy wife had made off with. Altogether, Mr. Scott's cup is over-flowing with gall, and the lines are not coming to him in pleasant places. He says he will not prosecute his erring wife, although she is answerable under both the charges of bigamy and perjury. He will be contented with the babies, and leave the grand jury to deal with the unworthy woman in this case. All the parties have hitherto been regarded as respectable people. A Clergyman's Downfalt.

Minnearous, M ss, August 11.—An investigating committee of nice infludn'isl Methodist Episcoosi clergymen met here in secret yesterday to con-sider the case of the Rev. John Walton, of St. Paul, against whom grave charges had been brought by the civil and by the church authorities. The main charge against Walton was that of having committed a raps upon Hattie Webster, a 12 year old girl, at Wadens, March 18, 1885, It was alleged by the protecution that on the night named Mr. Walton had been called home from a conference which he was attending by the sickness of his wife. The room where she slept was small and contained two beds. about six feet apart. In one of the beds were the two children of Mr. Walton, aged respectively and 7, and also the girl Hattie Webster. The girl afterward reported to certain parties that Walton had committed an assau t upon her during the night when the children and Mrs. Walton were asleep. Walton was afterward brought up before a church commit-tee, but he was acquitted on the grounds of insufficient evidence. The matter had in the meantime created an immensa sensation in the neigh-borhood and created something of a stir in the church, but the facts did not get into the papers. Walten was soon after indicted by the grand jury, was tried and found guilty. In this trial Walton made a strong denial of all the allegations. He held that the matter was a conspiracy gotten up to ruin him by saloon men and others of the same stamp, whom he had opposed in temperance work. A new trial was granted. In the meantime the conference met, but cou'd not take action, as the case was not yet decided in the civil courts. The reverend gentleman was called before the Investigating Committee to once more account for himself. As to the charge of rape, the evidence was not satisfactory or complete, and it was decided to send up to Wadena county for the fall court records, embody ng the true reasons of the court for granting the new trial. It was also charged against him that last fall he had altered a Manitoba haif fare pass, thus committing forgery. To this charge Mr. Walton pleaded guilty. Mr. Walton's confession of this descliction did not in this instance save him. The committee voted to assure of

him. The committee voted to suspend Died of Mer Wounds.

The rivate assurances of its efficacy I had, and the good result 'its effects I had observed on Mr. R. W. marsdith, who, for more than fifteen years, had been forsman of my office, ladue! I me to be the first may family. The results have, been entirely satisfactory. The first sam, mas of two years' standing, in which I believe every known remedy had been tried with temporary relief—the chills returning periodically and with ascemingly increased severity. Your cure broke them at once, and there has been no recurrence of them for more than six months. The other case was of a milder form, and yielded more readily to other remedies; but the chills would return at intervals until your medicine was used, since which time, now several months, they have entirely disappeared. From the apportunity I have had to judge, I do not besitate to express my belief that your Chill Cure is valuable specific, and performs all you promise for it. Respectfully.
