THE VICTORY IN PENNSYLVANIA. The Pennsylvanian thus announces the brilliant victory of the Democracy in Pennsylvania: "THE GLORIOUS RESULT. The issue of yesterday's election is given in the figures we publish this morning. We point to them with heartfelt pride. They show that our loyal and noble people have deeply and profoundly felt the reponsibility devolved upon them. Surrounded with opponents of all hues and of every faction; assailed by Natives on the one ding one. The bold and bitter demagogue who has fanatic, every factionist, every federalist, within onr fanatic, every factionist, every feedband by promises tional Bank.

At times, one would suppose that the Whig party had given up the Bank holder. every emergency. By this means as a sort of intoxicating confidence; aroused in of the Secretary of the Treasury would embody a reout midst the elements of Nativeism and Abolition- commendation on this subject. ism, and compelled his own party to resort to some with the seal of ineffaceable reprobation.

tion, appealing to no fanaticism, and defying every not be whipped in, in this locality, we have won a ist, should ever a time arrive when it can be tested." victory, that we may wear as one of our most brilliant and most unfading honors.

Let our friends of the South read this lesson, and remember it. We are one of them, true as steel. They are our brethren and our equals, and we have a duty than a pleasure. We know how they have waited for and watched this issue, and now that it is decided in favor of the right, they will rejoice with us over an achievement that proves our fidelity to the

John W. Forney, the Editor of the Pennsylvanian, which he has borne himself in this great contest. superior order, and his patriotism is of the purest and were as sor nd as he is on the Slavery question, and Mississippi started on her voyage. as just as he is in his sentiments towards the slave- A letter from Smyrna, September 16th, notes the holding States, we should soon have peace, harmony, fifty Hungarians, and says: and good feeling in all our borders.

GEORGIA ELECTION.

of the election to affect the vote, and it is the work of designing and unprincipled men, who know that I am more sincerely devoted to the Constitution and the Union than themselves. I adopt this method to beg of you the favor to give the statement the most unqualified contradiction upon my authority.

Yous, very respectfully, CHAS. J. McDONALD.

PENNSYLVANIA. The full returns of the Pennsylvania election have not yet come to hand, but it is supposed that the maexpected. It is thought it will be reduced to seven the 4th inst. of eight thousand. He had lost considerably in Wilmot's District.

membered, with which the American Captain, Stevens, outsailed all John Bull's vessels; and which he afterwards sold to an Englishman for $35,000. The Yankees are " some."

the United States, come what might. It is well there are some wiser people than herself in the limits of her dommions, or the poor dear little stupid might be assessment for the poor dear little stupid might be assessment. be accommodated to her heart's content. It is real charity to deny her gracious malority the indulgence The weather, remarks the Greensboro Beacon of from turning rascal, when it is only a full stomach.

Be careful, and not mistake principles for potatoes.

THE "STAR" FOR A BANK.

We had intended to submit some remarks in reply to a late article in the Raleigh Star, in which that paper shows the cloven foot and the horns of a monster National Bank; but we find the matter so well noticed by our friends of the Wilmington Journal, that we substitute their article for one of our own:

" A INATIONAL BANK. This 'obsolete idea,' as Daniel Webster once termed it, is every now and and of every faction; assailed by corporation- then brought forward to prove that there are persons hand; by abolitionists on another; by corporation- in the world as obsolete as it. hand; by abolitionists on another; and by the foes of the Consti-mongers on the other; and by the foes of the Consti-parition of the ' idea' is in the column mongers on the other; and by the local transfer and commanding one. The bold and other demagogue with the been defeated by the indignant people of Pennsylvabeen defeated by the indignant people of Pennsylvainia, used his utmost exertions to prostrate and to parinia, used hi nia, used his utmost exercions to prostrate and the full proportions, adorned with the traditional appenalyze our time-nonored commonwealth and alyze our time-nonored common alize our time-nonored com toggery. In fact, the Star comes right out for a Na-tional Bank.

and predictions the most extravegant and despetation and predictions the most extravely party instigating them to wager thousands of dollars upon had given up the Bank hobby; and such, we prethe result, and denouncing all who would not vote same, is the belief of the rank and file of that party the result, and and night he has been at work. He in general. But no such notion has entered the head for him. Day and inguitions in his movements; neglecting of the old staging politicians. We have carefully was almost uniquitions in this cohorts, and and thoughtfully noted the signs of the times in this his public dudes, and enlisting at his colored the signs of the times in this employing all his patronage, for the purpose of disemploying all his patronage, tor the purpose of disemploying all his patronage, to the purpose of disemploying all his patronage, to the purpose of disemploying all his patronage, to the purpose of disemploying all his patronage, the purpose of disemploying all his patronage, the purpose of disemploying all his patronage and the purpose of disemployin employing all his patronage, for the purpose of this gracing and degrading a State that has always stood by the rights of her sisters at every hazard, and in by the rights of her sisters at every hazard, and in every emergency. By this means he infused into his every emergency. By this means he infused into his every emergency. By this means he infused into his every emergency and the are as perfectly convinced as we are of our own existence, that, could the present President and Cabinet obtain a Congressional majority, agreeing with them in sentiment, the next message of the Secretary of the Treasury would enter a series of the secretary of the Treasury would enter a series of the secretary of the Treasury would enter a series of the secretary of the Treasury would enter a series of the secretary of the Treasury would enter a series of the secretary of the sec

Our object is not now to discuss the merits of the ism, and compensed his day party to the most negations and sales by which case. It is simply to call attention to the facts in reof the most helatory has been tainted. All would not gard to it. Whatever apparent abandonment there political nistory has been most emphatically and indignant-avail! He has been most emphatically and indignantly repudiated, and his course and his conduct stamped platform is still the Creed and Koran of the old line, especially at the North; and as the bulk of the party On great national principles this contest has been is located there, so is the influence. The leopard has On great handled in the leopard has not changed his spots by any means, although he rather keeps them out of view. We have little doubt hag no equition, we ad- that the article of the Star would be endorsed by nineher, laking from the first to the last-courting no faccalled upon to show their hands. As we have already party that would not come up to the good work. remarked, our object is not to say a word pro or con, hided by a number of national Whigs, who would but to state the issue as it really will be found to ex-

> The Editor of the Star will find some "food for reflection" in the above.

MOVEMENTS OF KOSSUTH. Our European tele-They are our oredited and our equals, and we have graphic advices yesterday mention that the Mississippi, with Kossuth and his companions on board, had called at Marseilles for coal and fresh provisions, and had left again, whether directly for the United States or to stop in England, is still in doubt. We find also the following notices of her and her guests:

On the arrival of Kossuth in the Dardanelles, the John W. Forney, the Editor of the Pennsylvanian, deserves the thanks of every man, woman and child vessel, and placed his ship at the disposal of the exin the country, for the able and patriotic manner in iles, at the same time presenting $15,000 to their leader, in the name of the American government. After having solemnly promised the Turkish com-We hope to see him Clerk of the next House of Rep- missaries to go direct to America, Kossuth wanted resentatives; but we would rather have him a mem- to take a Hungarian flag with him Into the Ameriber, on the floor of the House. His talents are of a can vessel; but this was objected to by the Turks. made a speech, in which Lord Palmerston and the 31s a 33s. noblest stamp. If all the citizens of the free States Americans were not forgotten, and soon after the arrival of the Mississippi there with Kossuth and the None but Americans were allowed to go on board "None but Americans were allowed to go on board during her stay here. One of my friends went to of these fellows would sell the Union, if the patronsee him, and had a long conversation with this noble age they get for being Union men could be doubled If the report be correct that six of the Union can- patriot. He speaks in the highest terms of him, and didates and two of the Southern Rights men have says his officers' devotion towards him is without been elected to Congress from the State of Georgia, bounds. Among other things, as soon as any new the following will compose the delegation from that comer visits the vessel, two of them stand by his not their rhinoceros-like hides are impervious, it State: 1st district, James W. Jackson, Southern side to protect his person if need be, and at night would sink deep into the quivering flesh of those ranting Union Whigs who have the effrontery to detrict. David J. Bailey, Southern Rights; 4th district, commander of the frigate was saying that when he nounce as disunionists all who advocate the rights tle from the Georgia election. The last number of ces and devoted disregard to a thousand dangers, trathe from the Georgia election. The last number of that paper contains a very slight allusion to the result. Hope the Editor does'nt feel at all sore." Not at all—we how with deference to the popular will.

But you had to borrow a candidate from the Democ-But you had to borrow a candidate from the Democmay in order to make even a decent showing in Georgia.

The following Card from Gov. McDonald, published on the eve of the election, will throw some light apon the means by which this Cobb victory was achieved:

"Marietta, Sept. 20, 1851.

Dear Sir: On my return home to-day I found several letters informing me that it is extensively reported in several countries that I am in favor of our State seceding from the Union for the past aggression of Congress on our rights, and that if I am elected I will encourage South Carolina to secede, and reference of the Democmot fail to detect the flimsy veil with which they attempt to hide their real object. If this Union is only to be preserved by force, or if it is to be perpetuated only by a submission on the part of the South to the aggressions of the North, than it ceases to be the Union established by our fathers, and becomes a mere despotism. And they who denounce States' Rights men, and raise the pharisaical cry of "Union
—the glorious Union"—are the very last men to be raction. to all the refugees; and the Hungarians and Poles went as far as the gates of the city to meet this heroic martyr to the cause of Hungary. It was night when the carriage neared the city; and as it enered the gates she found the streets lighted with hundeted I will encourage South Carolina to secede, and refugeave the union of the past aggression of Congress on our rights, and that if I am eleterd I will encourage South Carolina to secede, and refugeave the union of the past aggression of Congress on our rights, and that if I am eleterd I will encourage South Carolina to secede, and
refugeave the union of the past aggression of Congress on our rights, and that if I am eleterd I will encourage South Carolina to secede, and
refugeave the union of the past aggression of Congress on our rights, and that if I am eleterd I will encourage South Carolina to secede, and refugeave the union of the pa ected I will encourage South Carolina to secede, and endeavor to carry out Georgia with her. The whole of this statement is a gross fabrication, and false in every part of it. It is put in circulation on the every hard of the statement is a gross fabrication on the every hard of the statement is a gross fabrication. The whole should be statement in a gross fabrication on the every hard of it. It is put in circulation on the every hard of the statement is a gross fabrication. The whole should the statement in a gross fabrication on the every hard of it. It is put in circulation on the every hard of the gates she found the streets inglited with individual to the colors of the statement is a gross fabrication, and false in friendly shouts from the whole body of the refugees. And the account from which we have quoted goes on Union as originally established, and the substitution to say :

" When Madame Kossuth descended from her carriage she found herself in the presence of her hus- what terrible effect does the denunciation of this band, who had risen from his bed of illness to receive the poor 'Maria F-n,' of the plains of Hungary. Sell the Union, if the patronage they get for being the poor 'Maria F-n,' of the plains of Hungary. In place of receiving her in 'his arms, M. Kossuth, overcome by feelings of admiration for the sufferings which his wife had undergone, and by gratitude for The Editor of the Register has been denouncing her devotion to the cause of her country, threw him-Gov. McDonald as a Disunionist-will he now have self at her feet and kissed them. She endeavored to the common honesty to publish the above Card, speak and offer he; husband consolation and tranquilishowing the injustice he has done to that gentleman ty, while her own poor feeble heart was ready to burst with emotion. Her voice failed her, and amid the and his friends? Of course not. The Whig cause reiterated shouts of the Hungarians and Poles, this might suffer if he should lay the whole truth before heroic woman was carried to her husband's apart-

In our rejoicings, therefore, at the liberation and the coming hither of the great patriot, let us not forget the heroic adventures of his noble wife. "

THE WEATHER AND CROPS. Frost in Louisiana. jority for Col. Bigler will not be so large as at first The following is from the Concordia Intelligencer of

On Monday morning of this week—the 29th day of September—the cotton plantations in this vicinity were visited by quite a severe white frost. We deem The following will be the state of parties in the so remarkable an occurrence as this worth chroni-Legislature: House of Representatives, 54 Demo-crats and 46 Whigs; Senate, 16 Democrats, 16 try by the 9th or 15th of October, has generally been Whigs, and one native, who will doubtless act with it " runneth beyond the memory of man," when we have had a frost here in September before.

The Illustrated London News of 27th September

Saturday, Sunday and Monday nights were cold and unseasonable. On Monday morning, we are increw. crew. She will now, we understand, undergo some formed, the thermometer stood at 44 degrees, and frost alterations, preparatory to her sailing, (with her new owner on board) about the 1st of October, for the > freeze. The Galveston News of the 2d inst., has the following in relation to the crops:

Our cotton crop appears likely to turn out much better than was anticipated a few weeks ago. There was then a prospect that the dry summer which had Queen of Spain wants War. The N. York been so injurious would be followed by a wet fall. being established in Paris. It is the first that has Sun, on the authority of a private letter from Madrid, But the weather after some fine rains, has since constates that her august ladyship, the Queen of Spain, tinued dry; and thus far no season was ever more they have heard of temperance societies, have never in reply to a residue to the season was ever more. in reply to a petition from a Cuban, for certain con-favorable for picking, or for the maturing of the bolls. had the slightest idea of what they meant. The use cessions to that ill-governed island, said that she On most of the plantations on the Brozos and Caney, of wine is so universal throughout France, that the deeply regretted that she was not the mistress of her from which we have heard, the cotton crop is reporsires, or she would at once declare war against ted to be much better than it was last year, and some of the World's Fair-Kossuth not Allowed to Land in France-Mr. Lawrence in Ireland-Decline in Cotton.

FOUR DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

HALIFAX, Oct. 15, 6 P. M. The Royal Mail steamer America, Capt. Shannon, which sailed from Liverpool on Saturday, the 4th inst., arrived here this afternoon, at 5 o'clock, bringing dates from Liverpool to the day of her sailing. She has 108 passengers. The steamer Franklin arrived at Southampton on the morning of the 2d instant.

The British and Continental news is possessed of very little interest. In England, public attention is concentrated to the approaching close of the great World's Fair, which is positively to take place on the 11th inst., after which two days will be appropriated to the exhibitors, each having the privilege of introducing two friends. The awards will be made on the 15th instant.

Lord Londonderry had again addressed the President of the French Republic in reference to Abdel Kader. The correspondence, however, amounts to nothing practical. Ten seamen belonging to the American ship Columbia, lying at Liverpool, had mutinied. The men were convicted and fined and imprisoned. The Hon. Abbott Lawrence, the American Minister, was in Dublin, visiting public institutions. He was receiving the greatest attention both from the city authorities and private individuals. Kossuth had been expected to visit London up to the 1st instant, when intelligence was received that the French authorities refused to grant him permission to pass through their territory from Marseilles. It was understood that he would sail in the Mississippi

The Queen was expected to visit Liverpool on the 9th, and no business would be transacted on the following day.

THE MARKETS. LIVERPOOL, Oct. 4. Cotton .- The market has been dull and flat since the sailing of the Atlantic on the Sales for consumption have fallen off considerably; middling qualities are only an eighth lower; ordinary and inferior much neglected. The sales of the week have amounted to 33,600 bales-eight thousand for export, and on speculation 3,000. Sales of fair bowed were made at 51d; Mobile 51d; Or-

Breadstuffs were in steady demand, and prices o the past week fully sustained. Corn was in fair request, with a light stock, and prices unchanged. Denniston's circular quotes wheat at a penny advance and flour at 6d. advance during the week. Provisions .- No important transactions have taken place. In all, except the finest varieties, the change in price has been in favor of the buyers. Pork is scarce-the bacon market nearly cleared, and no transactions of note have taken place. Hams and shoulders are extremely dull.

Lard has improved-sales at 52 s per cwt.; the stock on hand is light. Tallow is 6d lower, Linseed cake is in demand, there being no American in Turpentine has declined. Sales of light rosin at When all the refugees were safely on board, Kossuth 3s 1d to 7s 6d. Spirits of turpentine in demand at

> "It is the fashion of those who would be esteemed the rampant champions of the administration, and of being disunionists, who speak the truth to the on the other score."

Such is the lauguage of the Wilmington Commercial, a Whig paper. It is a hard hit; and were it Chas. Murphy, Union; 5th district, E. W. Chastain, Union; 6th district, Junius Hillyer, Union; 7th district, Junius Hillyer, Union; 7th district, Junius Hillyer, Union; 8th district, Robert which affected them all to the Constitution. But, says this same Whig paper, the Constitution. But, says this same Whig paper, the Constitution. But, says this same Whig paper, and I do earnestly the Constitution. Toombs, Union. On Tuesday last, ninety-three counties had been heard from, which foot up a major ing, which it is confidently stated will bring Cobb's The Raleigh Register says: "If one may judge from appearances, the "Standard" has heard but litted from a major appearances, the "Standard" has heard but litted from a major and litted from a major appearances, the "Standard" has heard but litted from a major and unofficial of 17,696. The Raleigh Register says: "If one may judge from appearances, the "Standard" has heard but litted from a major and unofficial of 17,696. The New York Expression only two counties wants from a present that assail it. The pillars of all and unofficial of 17,696. The Raleigh Register says: "If one may judge from a major is the truest friend is he who tells the truth—so he is the truest friend is he who tells the truth—so he is the truest friend is he who tells the truth—so he is the truest friend is he who tells the truth—so he is the truest friend of the Uuion who warns the people of the dangers that assail it. The pillars of all all and unofficial of 17,696. The pillars of all and unofficial of 17,696. The Raleigh Register says: "If one may judge is the truest friend of the Uuion who warns the people of the dangers that assail it. The pillars of all and unofficial of 17,696. The pillars of all and unofficial of the Union who warms the people of the dangers that assail it. T sults in perspective that defy all human calculation." as a Republic.

in its stead of a central despotism, with absolute and uncontrolled power. Upon such politicians with Union men could be doubled on the other score !" Democratic Pioneer.

[Telegraphed for the Baltimore Sun.]

The Syracuse Slave Rescue Trials-Great Excitement. AUBURN, N. Y., Oct. 17. The examination of the cases of Ira H. Cobb, J. Moses, editor of the Standard; Stephen Porter, A. Dutcher, Amos Davis, all whites, and a colored man named Brown, charged with a participation in the riot on the 1st of October, in aiding the arrest from the officers of the U.S. Government of a fugitive slave named Jerry, at Syracuse, is progressing here, but nothing has yet trans-pired to indicate what the result will be. They were brought down on Wednesday, from Syracuse to be examined here.

The excitement both here and at Syracuse is very great, and the court house is crowded to overflow District Attorney Lawrence, under instructions from Washington, insists on their full committal on the charge of high treason.

There are still a number of warrants out for the arrest of other accused parties.

[Telegraphed for the Washington Union] The steamer Union has arrived from New Orleans, with papers of Saturday. She brings $35,000. Stocks are steady—sales of United States 6's, 1867

Flour is unchanged-sales of 4,000 bbls. State owner on board) about the 1st of October, for the Mediterranean." This is the yacht, it will be reat 55 and 56 cents. Provisions and groceries are quiet and unchanged. Cotton steady at yesterday's rates. Whiskey, 211 cents. A Temperance Society on the plan of the society of Sons of Temperance in the United States, is about people cannot imagine how anybody can do without it. Little children, infants, servants, all drink wine. and the idea everywhere is, that pure water is exceedingly unhealthy.

The State of Iowa, one of the most useful and than it was last year.

The State of Iow2, one of the most useful and youthful sisters of the confederacy, is immensely rich that it was last year.

The weather, remarks the Greensboro Beacon of the whim on this occasion. The desire for war, thowever, is said to be universal in Spain, by the same wrier.

To know how bad you are, you must become poor; to know how bad other people are you must become rich. Many a man thinks it is virtue that keeps him from turning rascal, when it is only a full stomach.

The State of Iow2, one of the most useful and youthful sisters of the confederacy, is immensely rich in natural resources. Dr. Owen, the United States of the confederacy, is immensely rich in natural resources. Dr. Owen, the United States of the confederacy, is immensely rich in natural resources. Dr. Owen, the United States of the confederacy, is immensely rich in natural resources. Dr. Owen, the United States of the confederacy, is immensely rich in natural resources. Dr. Owen, the United States of the confederacy, is immensely rich in natural resources. Dr. Owen, the United States of the confederacy, is immensely rich in natural resources. Dr. Owen, the United States of the confederacy, is immensely rich in natural resources. Dr. Owen, the United States of the confederacy, is immensely rich in natural resources. Dr. Owen, the United States of the confederacy, is immensely rich in natural resources. Dr. Owen, the United States of the confederacy, is immensely rich in natural resources. Dr. Owen, the United States of the confederacy, is immensely rich in natural resources. Dr. Owen, the United States of the confederacy, is immensely rich in natural resources. Dr. Owen, the United States of the Confederacy, is immensely rich in natural resources. Dr. Owen, the United States of the Confederacy, is immensely rich in natural resources. Dr. Owen, the United States of the Confederacy, is immensely rich in natural resources. Dr. Owen, the United States of the Confederacy, is immensely rich in natural resources. Dr. Owe nights of the 27th and 28th, but they did no damage they must be capable of being worked easily, and at

[From the Knickerbocker Magazine.]

A DIRGE. "Charlie, darling little Charlie, Much belov'd, but blighted early. Blinding tears our grief are telling, As we scan thy narrow dwelling.

Household echoes, lately ringing With the gladness of thy singing, Now are silent, or awaken To the wail of hearts forsaken.

While the budding woods were growing, Daffodils and pansies blowing, Song-birds to their haunts returning, Thou hast gone and left us mourning.

Mourning for our vanish'd pleasure, Mourning for our cherish'd treasure; Words of consolation spurning, Comfort finding but in mourning.

To thee baby hearts were clinging, Now with wordless sorrow wringing, HE recall'd thee home who gave thee; Night was come, and death would have thee.

So we leave thee here in slumber Which no earthly pain can cumber, Till the trump of God awake thee, Home to Christ in bliss to take thee,"

Appointments of Bishop Ives. October 18, St. Luke's day, in the neighborhood Rawley Galloway, Esq. Rockingham county. Next day, 18th Sunday after Trinity, Church of Epiphany, Leaksville.

26, 19th Sunday after Trinity, St. Mary's Chapel Orange county. 1 and 2 November, All Saints, and 20th Sunday after Prinity, St. Matthew's church, Hillsborough. 9. 21st Sunday after Trinity, Chapel of the Cross, Chapel Hill.

23. 23d Sunday after Trinity, St. Stephen's church, Oxford. 26. St. James church, Granville county. 30. Advent Sunday, St. Johns church, Williamsboro 7th December, 2d Sunday in Advent, Emanuel ch

 3d Sunday in Advent, Louisburg.
 4th Sunday in Advent, the church of Holy Innoents, Henderson. Raleigh, Oct. 7, 1851.

Varrenton.

MARRIED.

In Robeson county, on the 2d inst., by the Rev. John . McIntosh, the Rev. Frederick K. Nash to Miss Anna Maria McLean, daughter of James McLean, esq. In Warrenton, on Wednesday evening, 15th inst., by Rev. C. F. McRae, Mr. Wm. T. Alston to Miss Laura Eaton, daughter of Wm. Eaton, Jr., Esq.

On Thursday morning, the 9th inst., by Rev. A. C. Harris, Mr. Thomas T. Best to Miss Mary M. Finch, of Granville county. At Teachey's Depot, Duplin county, on the 14th inst. by the Rev. Robert Tate, L. Badger, of Charlotte, editor of the Hornet's Nest, to Miss Mary A., daughter of Cornelius McMillan, Esq.

At Rose Hill, the residence of Wm. H. Hardin, Esq., near Fayettville, on Tuesday evening last, by the Rev. Jos. C. Huske, Mr. Wm. S. Mallett to Miss Frances Harriet, second daughter of Mr. Hardin.

DIED.

In Pasquotank county, on Wednesday, 8th instant, Eliza, daughter of Timothy and Eliza Gilbert, aged 6 years 3 months and 2 days.

A PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency, DAVID S. REID, Governor of the State of North Carolina.

Given under my hand, and the Great Seal of the State, at the Executive Office in the City of Raleigh, this the 15th day of October, A. D. 1851, and the 76th of American Independence.
DAVID 8. REID.

By the Governor, y the Governor,
THOMAS SETTLE, JR., Private Secretary.
101-Raleigh, Oct. 15th, 1851.

· NOTICE.

The Last Chance for Bargains! HAVE just received and epened at my Store, a large assortment of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, ought for cash. You will find in the assortment a great many low priced Alpaccas, figured and plain, of all colors. Also, Merinoes, Delaines, Cashmeres, lower than ever in the market before. A lot of cheap Caps and Hats; a large stock of Boots and Shoes. Also, double and single barrel Guns and Pistols, and every article generally kept in a Dry Goods Store, and many articles not usually kept by Dry Goods dealers.

The above Goods will all be sold at a low rate-a great deal lower than common, as I am determined to close out my stock before the Spring, as I have concluded to retire from business. J. CREECH.

Raleigh, Oct. 20, 1851.

MORE NEW BOOKS. THE life and times of Calvin, the great Reformer.

Translated from the German of Paul Henry, D. D.

2 vol., 8 mo., $3. Scenes and Legends in the North of Scotland, by Hugh Miller, author of Old Red Sand Stone, Foot Prints of the Creator, &c. 1 vol., 12 mo., $1,25. Campbell's Lives of the Chief Justices of England, rom the Norman Conquest to the Death of Lord Mans field. American edition, just re-printed. 2 vol., 8 mo Appleton's Dictionary of Mechanics, Machinery, En gine Work and Engineering, with 400 Illustrations. rol. Royal, 8 vo., ½ Calf, $12,00.

For sale by W. L. POMEROY. For sale by Raleigh, Oct. 20th, 1851.

$10 REWARD.

RANAWAY from the subscriber a yellow boy named SAMPSON DEW, about ninetten years old, had on when he left a green coat and blue pantaloons. Said boy was bound to me until he attains the age of 21 years. I hereby forwarn all persons from harboring or employing said boy. I will give the above reward for his deliv ery to me, or $5 for his confinement in Jail so that I can get him. ALFRED MITCHELL, alias BOOTS. Raleigh, October 20th, 1851.

Just received by Express. AZARINE and Sky-Blue Marinos, Super White and Mode Col'd do.,

Rose, Dark Green, Pea Green and Cherry Col'd Muslins. An additional supply of handsome Ribbons, White and Col'd Paris Kid Gloves, Valvet Ribbons Embroidering Braids, &c., &c.

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER.

Shoes! Shoes! OBINSON'S Walking Shoes and Slippers, White Kid, Jenny Lind and Bronze Slippers, Parodi, Super Seal and Jeffersonian Shoes, Misses and Ohildren's Black and Fancy Bootes, Men's Boy's and Servant's Shoes. Which we are offering low.

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER.

TURTLE SOUP AND STEAK!

101-

Raleigh, Oct, 21.

VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE.

On Saturday, the 13th day of December next, on the premises, I shall offer for sale, the well known and desirable country residence called Harrison's or Upchurch's old place, lying 12 miles South from Louisburg, in Franklin county, near Poplar Spring Church. The said land is situated in a fertile section of country and has on it a large and comfortable dwelling house, with all necessary out buildings; a mill and mill-seat, a well constructed country store house, a new gin house, a blacksmith's shop; a well of good water at the store, and never failing springs in abundance on the land. The tract contains about 1000 Acres, lying on the waters of Crooked Creek, a large portion of which is fresh and productive, and well adapted to the cultivation of cotton, corn, wheat, &c. The house is well situated for a public house, and the Store is regarded as the best country stand within the bounds of the county. Several fortunes have been realized by the sale of hair black. goods at that place.

At the same time, I shall sell three other tracts of Land. all on a credit. The above described tract will be sold by virtue of a decree of the Court of Equity, on a credit of one, two and three years, with interest from the day of sale. Bonds with security will be required in all THOS. K. THOMAS, C. M. E. October 18th, 1851.

PLANK ROAD NOTICE.

A T a regular meeting of the Directors of the Green-ville and Raleigh Plank Road Company, held at their office in Greenville on Thursday the 9th day of October, 1851, it was Resolved, That Books of subscription be opened by the commissioners first appointed under their Charter, for the purpose of increasing the capital stock of said Company, and that the subscribers pay in a sura equal to that called in and paid by the original stockholders.

ALFRED MOYE, Pres't.

By Goold Horr, Sec'y. Oct. 15, 1851.

Grand Lodge of North Carolina. THE Annual Communication of this Masonic Boni will be holden in this City, on Monday evening the st of December next, at 7 o'clock, and will continue its sittings until all the business which may be brought be-fore it shall be disposed of. Officers of the respective Lodges are requested to attend in person, or cause proper delegates to be appointed, in pursuance of the Constitution and general regulations of the Grand Lodge. WILLIAM T. BAIN, Grand Secretary. Raleigh, Oct. 17th, 1851.

DISSOLUTION.

THE Copartnership heretofore existing under the firm of OLIVER & PROCTER was dissolved on the 6th instant by mutual consent. All persons having claims against the firm will present them to either of the partners for liquidation, and those indebted are earnestly requested to make immediate payment, as longer indulgence cannot be given. Mr. Oliver having made arrangements to leave here by the 1st of December next, the business will in future be conducted by ISAAC PROCTER, (he having purchased out Mr. Oliver's entire interest,) at the Old Stand, sign of the R. R. R. R. Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C. THOMAS M. OLIVER.

ISAAC PROCTER. 100-41

Raleigh, Oct. 14th, 1851.

IMPORTANT SALE.

T SHALL sell at public auc ion, without reserve, at my late residence, 9 miles East of Raleigh, on Wednes day, the 22d inst., 150 Barrels of Corn, 15 or 18 Stacks of Fodder, and a quantity of Wheat, Oats, and seed Also, all my stock of Cattle, Hogs, Oxen, as well as my Household and Kitchen Furniture.

TERMS OF SALE.—For all sums of, and over $5, a credit of nine months will be given, the purchaser executing a bond with approved security. For sums under $5, cash, on the delivery of the article, HENRY H. HARRIS.

Raleigh, Oct. 1st, 1851. 97-122dinst.

$100 REWARD.

RANAWAY from the Subscriber on the 29th plt. JOHN, sometimes called John Carwill, a mu-latto, indicating Indian blood. The said John has very dark hair, inclined to curl, but when combed lies in waves. He is about 5 feet 10 or 11 inches, and about 28 years old.

Being a house servant his manners are easy, but when spoken to he has a down-cast look, but feplies with a smile. I will give a reward of Fifty Dollars if taken up within the State, or one Hundred Dollars if caught out of the State and lodged in Jail. B. BOYKIN.

Camden, S. C., Sept. 30th, 1851. 97-4tpd.

EXECUTOR'S SALE.

TACKS and JENNIES, some 16 in number, of every age, will be sold by the undersigned to the highest bidder, on a credit of 9 months, at the late residence of Samuel S. Downey, deceased, in Granville County, together with the perishable property of every kind, Thursday, the 13th day of November next.

The sale to continue day by day, until completed. Bond with approved security required.

JOHN A. DOWNEY, Executor. October 6th, 1851.

TO COTTON PLANTERS. T HAND

Gunny and Hemp Bagging, 44 inches wide Bale Rope and Twine. ALSO. 150 pairs of Men's and Boy's Brogans. Men's Kip Shoetees, Woms. Lea. Bootees, with a general assortment of shoes, Bl'k and white Wool Hats, 75 Point and Duffle Blankets, Cradle Blankets, For sale low by J. BROWN,

No, 9, Fayetteville St. Raleigh Oct. 6, 1851.

ATTENTION!

HEAD QUARTERS, 35th REGIMEKT,) N. C. MILITIA, Raleigh, October 4, 1851. THE Officers and Soldiers of said Regiment will parade on Hillsborough Street, at ten o'clock, on the 25th October instant, for Regimental Review, armed and equipped as the law directs. The Commissioned and non-Commissioned Officers will parade for drill discipline, the day previous, at eleven o'clock, in the Old Baptist Grove. By Command of Col. W. H. H. TUCKER. Raleigh, Oct. 4, 1851.

Attention Ringgold Guards! PARADE at the Capitol Square on Saturday, the 25th day of October, at 9½ o'clock, A. M., armed and equipped according to law, in winter uniform, and for inspection of arms and accountements. By order of the Captain, JOHN R. UTLEY, O. S.

N. B. Attend a meeting of your Company at the City Hall on Friday night, the 24th of October, at 7 o'clock precisely. October 8th, 1851.

CLOTHING! CLOTHING! $8,500 DOLLARS worth of superior Ready-made Clarks Ready-made Clothing, Just received. E. L. HARDING, & CO. Oct. 13, 1852.

Shirts! Shirts! 30 DOZ. of those Patent Yoke-seam Shirts, just HARDING & CO.

NOTICE.

8 hereby given, that the annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Wilmington and Raleigh Railroad Company, will take place on the second Thursday (13th) of JAMES S. GREEN, Sec'y. 101-4t. November next, Oct. 16, 1851.

Monthlies. TARPER'S Magazine. Also the International. Just received by W. L. POMEROY. October 6, 1851.

OLD English, Pine Apple and Goshen Cheese.
For sale at TUCKER TUCKER'S. Raleigh, N. C.

$200 REWARD. A PROCLAMATION

By His Excellency, DAVID S. REID. Governor of the State of North Carolina.

THEREAS, it has been made to appear to me that WHEREAS, it has been made to appear to me that JAMES R. LEWIS, charged with the crims of negro stealing, has broken the jail of Granvill County, and fled probably beyond the limits of this State, Now to the end that the said James R. Lewis may be brought to trial for said offence. I do hereby issue this, my Proclamation, offering a reward of two hundred dollars for the apprehension and delivery of the said James R. Lewis to the Sheriff of the said county of Granville.

The said James R. Lewis is described to be about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, twenty-five years old, thin visage, long sharp chin, erect in stature, fair complexion, but has some swarthy spots on his face, eyes blueish and Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina, at the City of Raleigh, this 16th day of October, A. D. 1851.

DAVID S. REID. By the Governor,

THOMAS SETTLE, JR., Private Secretary. Raleigh, Oct. 16, 1851.

100,000 DOLLARS City of Petersburg Bonds at Public

TILL be offered at public auction at the Merchant's Exchange, in the City of Petersburg, on Thurs-DAY, OCTOBER 16th instant, at eleven o'clock, A. M., $100,000 City of Petersburg Bonds, with Coupons attached, for the interest at six per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, on 1st February and 1st August.
The bonds are in sums of $5,000, $1,000 and $500, payable in the years 1865 and 1868, and are issued for he payment of the subscription of the City to the stock of the South Side Rail Road Company. The interest accrued from the 1st August last will be added. Twenty-five per cent. of the amount will be required on the day of sale—the remainder in equal payments on 15th November, 15th December and 15th January, when the bonds will be delivered. Purchasers may, owever, make payments at once, or at an ea lier date for the instalments. Any information desired in relation to these bonds can-be obtained from either of the undersigned, who believe that no safer investment can be found ANDREW KEVAN, D'ARCY PAUL, ROBERT B. BOLLING.

Committee of Com. Council. October 3, 1851.

Prime Green Tea. TUST Received,

Loaf, Crushed, clarified and brown Sugar, Java, Laguira and Rio Coffee,

Pepper, Allspice, Ginger, Starch, Nutmegs, Cloves, and Mace, Spanish Indigo, bar Lead, Powder, Shot, and Percussion Caps, Blacking, shoe, scrubbing, horse, crumb and hearth Brushes, tooth, nail and hair brushes, cut Nails, finishing and common Brads, Swedes Iron and cast Steel, cotton and wool cards, bellows, brass and cast Irons, Gothic Fenders, shovels and tongs, Hods, fire carriers, Painted and brass bound Buckets, wire sieves, shovels and spades, Collin's axes, Augurs, saws, files, chisels, cross cut and mill saws, Broad axes, adzs, frying pans, wafer and waffle irons, Knob, pad, stock, till and cupboard Locks, hinges, screws, finishing brads, cut tacks, knives and forks, Pen and pocket knives, scissors and shears, Iron squares, trace and log chains, wagon boxes, Tin and Crockery were. For sale by J. BROWN.

DRY GOODS. At No. 9, Fayetteville Street. 100 ps. Dress and Furniture Calicoes, 100 Bleached and brown Shirting and Sheeting. 1 Shirtings, white and red Flannel, Canton Flannel, And cotton Jeans, white Welsh Flannel, sup. articles, Table, bird-eye towelling Disper, and Irish Linen, Jaconet, Swiss and checked Muslin, English Cambric, Oct. 14, 1851.

Silk, floss cotton, linen and cotton Tape, cotton cord, and carpet binding, Silk and cotton Hose (white and black,) cotton and merino 1 hose, carpeting and hearth Rugs, white and black wadding, Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings, Kentucky Jeans and over-coating.

Furniture and Cambric Dimity, and cotton Fringe, Linen Cambric and linen cambric Handfs, Powyer and cotton Handfs., spool cotton, knitting do. sewing Kersey and stripes for servants. With a general assortment of Goods usually kept in For sale by J. BROWN. Raleigh, Oct. 14, 1851.

RANT'S History of the Nestorians, or the Los Tribes. Containing evidence of their identity, an account of their manuers, customs, and ceremonies, together with sketches in ancient Assyria, &c., Map. 12mo. Muslin. An important accession to our stores of geographical knowledge. Church of England Review.

Contains much curious and interesting information of which its name gives no previous warning. For sale by H. D. TURNER,

N. C. Bookstore. October 16, 1851.

VALUABLE BOOK. THE American Practice Condensed, or the Family Physician. The scientific system of Medicine, on vegetable principles, and designed for all classes.

This work embraces the character, causes, symptoms. and treatment of the diseases of men, women and children of all climates. By W. Beach, M. D., complete in one vol., illustrated with nearly two hundred engrav-For sale by H. D. TURNER.

N. C. Bookstore. October 16, 1851.

ings, 4th edition.

A TEACHER WANTED. THE Trustees of the Tar River Academy wish to engage a Teacher for the next year. None need apply except a graduate of a respectable College. For particulars address, LEWIS F. ALLEN, Sec'y.

Tar River, Granville Co., N. C.

N. B. A competent Female Teacher could also get good School in the neighborhood. Sept. 29, 1851. Harper's New Monthly MAGAZINE for October, received this day, by N. C. Bookstore. Raleigh, Oct. 4, 1851.

NEW BOOKS. THE Fate-a Tale of Stirring Times, by G. P. R. James. The Stone-Mason of Saint Point-a Village Tale, by The Stone-Mason of Saint Lamartine. Received this day by H. D. TURNER.

NEW BOOKS. ITERARY Reminiscences, from the Autobiography of an English Opium Eater, by Thomas De Quin-

Raleigh, Sept. 27, 1851.

MARGARET, a tale and Bloom, &c., 2 vol.

Por sale by
W. L. POMEROY.
99-4 MARGARET, a tale of the Real and Ideal, Blight

Comprehensive Tables FOR the calculations of Earth Work, as connected with Railways, Canals, Docks, Harbors, &c., givng the quantities for each Base and Slope at one view, with a Practical Treatise on Earth Work in general.

By Edward G. Hughes, Civil Engineer. For sale by H. D. TURNER. Rpleigh, Sept. 27, 1851.

Hats and Caps, for Men and Boys. CUPERIOR Black Moleskin Hats. Broad Brim fur Hats, for old gentlemen. Cloth Caps, for men and hoys.

J. BROWN. Oct. 14, 1851,