Do When It Comes,

WHAT IS THE GRIP?

This Mysterious and Terrible Disease Care-

Nearly every physician, every scientist and every sufferer has been asking this great question: What is the grip? Some have asserted that it is a dangerous microbe which comes into the system, breeds several millions every second, and soon overruns the body with disease. Others have said that we are passing through a region of star-dust, and that the minute particles are drawn into the body with every breath. Whatever it may be, it is certain that it is something within the body which is fighting with the body to undermine the life.

What would common sense dictate in such an emergency? Counteract the enemy. Drive it from the system. De not triffe with it. Act promptly and wisely at the first approach which you can readily detect. Take something which you can readily detect. Take something which can counteract their deadly influence. Spirits of some kind are the best thing to take, and whiskey is preferable to any other kind of spirit; but it should be berne very carefully in mind that only pure whiskey will have the effect, and it should also be remembered that Duffy's Pure Mait Whiskey stands at the head of all preparations and is the only medicinal whiskey upon the market. Scientists have asserted this, the doctors have verified it, and millions of people have proven it beyond a doubt. There are many unscrupilous dealers who will assure you that any whiskey will answer the purpose, but they are wrong and are trying to deceive you. In case of Grip you cannot afford to take any chances, therefore take that which is, beyond question pure, medicinal and the only valuable whiskey upon the market.

ATTACK ON INFIDELS.

Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage Takes Skepticism for the Subject of

ONE OF THE SERMONS ON PLAGUES.

The Reasons Which He Gives for Not Being an Unbeliever.

GOD NEVER DID SANCTION POLYGAMY

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR. NEW YORK, April 5 .- Continuing his course of sermons on "The Ten Plagues of the Cities," Rev. Dr. Talmage to-day took for his subject "The Plague of Infidelity." The discourse was delivered to large and appreciative audiences at the Brooklyn Academy of Music in the forenoon and the New York Academy of Music in the evening. The text was, Romans 3:4: "Let God be true, but every man a liar." That is, if God says one thing and the whole buman race says the opposite, Paul would accept the Divine veracity. But there are many In our time who have dared arraign the Almighty for falsehood, Infidelity is not only a plague, but it is the mother of plagues. It seems from what we hear on all sides, that the Christian religion is a huge blunder; that the Mosaic account of the creation is an absurdity large enough to throw all nations into rellicking goffaw; that Asiam and Eye never existed; that the applicat flood and Noah's Ark existed; that the abolest flood and Noah's Ark were impossibilities: that there never was a intrade; that the Bible is the friend of cruelty, of courder, of polygamy, of all forms of base crime; that the Christian religion is woman's trant and man's stullification; that the Bible from lid to lid is a fable, a cruelty, a humbug, a sham, a by: that the martyrs who died for its truth were miserable dimes; that the Church of ith were miserable dupes; that the Church of Christ is properly gazetted as a fool; that Jesus Christ is properly gazetted as a fool; that when Thomas Carlyie, the skeptic, said, "The little is a noble book," he was dropping into imbeclity; that when Theodore Parker declared in Music Hall, Beston, "Never a boy or girl in all Christendom but was profited by that great book," he was becoming very weak-minded; that it is something to bring a binsh to the cheek of every patriot, that John Adams, the father of American independence, declared, "The libble is the best book in all the world." The Eible is the best book in all the world;"

and that lion-hearted Andrew Jackson turned nto a sulveiling coward when he said, "That book, sir, is the rock on which our republic ests;" and that Daniel Webster abdicated the one of his intellectual power and resigned logic, and from being the great expounder the Constitution and the great lawyer of age, turned into an idiot, when he said, y heart assures and reassures me that the great Jesus Christ must be a divine reality, on the line that a my morbers test or on om the lime that at my mother's feet, or on y father's knee, I first learned to lisp verses om the sacred writings, they have been my rily study and vigitant contemplation, and if

The Cry of the Latter-Day Skeptic. This book, having deceived them, and havng deceived the mighty intellects of the past, st not be allowed to deceive our larger, filer, vaster, more stupendous intellects. And so out with the book from the courtroom, where it is used in the selemnization of testiony. Our with it from under the foundation of church and asylum. Out with it from the omestic circle. Gather together all the Hibles the children's Hibles, the family Hibles, bose newly bound, and those with hid nearly forment and pages almost obliterated by the worn out and pages almost obliterated by the fingers long are turned to dust—bring them all together, and lot us make a bonfire of them, and by a warn our cold crinicism, and after that turn under with the ploughshare of public indigination the polluted ashes of that loanseme, adulterous obscene, cruel and deathful book which is so antagouistic to man's liberty, and woman's benon and the world's hapmiess. Now, that is the substance of what infidelity proposes and declares, and the attack on the libite is accompanied by great jocosity, and there is hardly any subject about which more math is kindled than about the Bible. I like fur, no man was ever built with a keener appreciation of it. There is health in laughter instead of harm—shysical health, mental health, moral health, spritual lealth—provided you hagh at the right thing. The moranue is jocual. The Indian with its own mist haptizes the cataract Minnehala, or laughing water. You have not kept your eyes open, or your ears alert, if you have not seen the sea smile, or heard the forest clap their hands, or the orchards in blossom week agies with redolence. But there is a laughter which has the rebound of despair. It is not health yo sunick about the things of the humortal soul. Tou know what caused the accident vests ago on the Hudson River Ball-road. It was no intoxicated man who, for any home so rarely fortunate as to indinotal soul. You know what caused the accident years ago on the fludson River Railroad. It was an intoxicated man who, for a joke pulled the string of the air-brake and stopped the train at the most dangerous point of the journey. But the lightning train, not knowing there was any impediment in the way, came down, crashing out of the mangled victims the importal again the way. ims the immortal souls that went speeding in-tantly to God and judgment. It was only a oke. He thought it would be such fun to step stands to God and judgment. It was only a joke. He thought it would be such fun to step the train. He stopped it! And so unidelity is chiefly anxious to step the long train of the Bibbs, and the long train of the churches, and the long train of Christian influences, while coming down upon us are death, judgment and eteraty—coming 1,000 miles a minute, coming with more force than all the avalanches that ever slipped from the Alps, coming with more strength than all the lightning express trains that ever whistled or shricked or thundered across the continent.

hundered across the continent, Why He Is Not an Infidel, Now in this sentiment of infidel thinkers I cannot join, and I propose to give you some reasons why I cannot be an infidel, and so I will try to belp out of this present condition any who may have been struck with the awful plague of skepticism First I cannot be an infide! because infidelity bas no good substitute for the consolation it proposes to take away. You know there are millious of people who retribed consolation from this book. What would you think of a crusade of this sort? Suppose a iman should resolve that he would organize a consparary to destroy all the medicines arom all the affotherances and from all the hospitals of the earth. The work is done. The medicines are then and they are thrown into the river, or the lake, or the sea. A patient wakes up at midigate in a paraxysm of distress, and wants an anodyne. "Oh," says the nurse, "the amodynes are all destroyed; we have no drops to give you, but instead of that Firead you a book on the absurdities of morphine, and on the absurdities of morphine, and on the absurdities of morphine, and on the absurdities of anodynes, the cruelties of anodynes, the indecencies of anodynes, the cruelties of anodynes, the c has no good substitute for the consolation it

But the man continues to writhe in pain, and the nurse says. "I'll continue to read you some discoures on anodynes, the creelties of anodynes, the creelties of anodynes, the creenties of anodynes, the creenties of anodynes, the creenties of anodynes, For your groan, I'll give you a laugh." Here in the bospital is a patient having a gungrened limb amputated, the says, "6th, for ether. Oh, for chloroform." The doctors say, "Why they are all destroyed; we don't have any more chloroform or ether; but I have got something a great deal better. I'll read you a namphlet against James Y. Sampsen, the discoverer of cultoroform as an anison, the discoverer of cultoroform as an anison, and thosack, and Mott, and Harvey, and Abernethy." "But," says the man, 'I must have some anesthetica." "No," say the doctors, "they are all destroyed, but we have got something a great deal better." "What is shaft" "Fun." Fun about medicines. Lied down all ye patients in Bellovae Hospital and stop your gruaning—all ye broken-hearted of all the cities, and quit your crying; we have the catholicon at last!

Here is a dose of wit, here is a strengthening plaster of sarrossm, here is a bottle of ribaldry that you are to keep well shaken up and take a spoonful of it after each meal, and if that does not cure you, here is a solution of blasphemy in which you may bathe, and here is a liceture of derision. Tickle the skeletion of death with a repartee! Make the King of Terrors cackle! For all the agonies of all the ages, a joke! Millions of people willing with upfilired hand toward heaven to affirm that the gospel of derision. Tickle the skeletion of the solution of blasphemy in which you may bathe, and here is a liceture of derision, the complete of the search of the complete of the specific of the scheme of the prophes of the

A Religion of Awful Negatives. Infidelity is a religion of "Don't know." Is here a God? Don't know! Is the soul immor. tai? Don't know! If we should meet each other in the future world will we recognize each other? Don't know! A religion of "don't know" for the religion of "d know," "I know in wham I have believed." "I know that my Redeemer liveth." Infidelity proposes to substi-tute a religion of awful negatives for our religion of glorious positives showing right before us a world of reunion and ecstasy, and high companionship, and glorious worship, and stunendous victory; the mightiest joy of earth not high enough to reach to the base of the filmains of uplifted splendor awaiting all those who on wing of Christian faith will scar Furthermore: I cannot be an infidel, because of the false charges inheldly is all the tring of the false charges inheldly is all the tring making against the Bible. Perhaps the similar that has made the most impression and that some Christians have not been intelligent enough to deny is that the hibbe throws notygamy, Does the God of the Bible uphold polygamy, or old he? How many wives did God make for Adam? He made one wife. Does not your common sense tell you when God started the marriage institution, he started it as he wanted it to continue? If God had favored polygamy he could have created for Adam 5 wives, or 10 wives, or 20 wives, just as easily as He made one. At the very first of the Bible God shows himself in favor of monogramy and antagonistic to polygamy. Genesis ii, 24: "Therefore shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall cleave unto his wife." Not his wives, but his wife.

mother, and shall cleave unto his wife." Not his wives, but his wife. How many wives did God spare for Noah in the ark? Two and two the birds; two and two the cattle; two and two the birds; two and two the human race. If the God of the Bible had favored a multiplicity of wives. When God first launched the human race He gave Adam one wife. At the second launching of the human race He spares for Noah one wife, for Ham one wife for Shem one wife, for Japhet one wife. Beyond the news there were many fine selected articles, some of them being artistically illustrated. Following are some of the principal news features:

A Permission Not a Sanction God permitted polygamy. Yes; just as he permits to-day murder and theft and arson and all kinds of crime. He permits these things as you well know, but he does not sanction them. all kinds of crime. He permits these things as you well know, but he does not sanction them. Who would dare to say he sanctions them? Because the Presidents of the United States have permitted polygamy in Utah, you are not, therefore to conclude that they patronized it, that they approved it when on the contrary, they denomined it. All of God's ancient Israel knew that the God of the Bible was against polygamy, for in the 450 years of their stay in Egypt there is only one case of polygamy recorded—only one. All the mighty men of the Bible steed aloof from polygamy, except those who, falling into the crime, were chastised within an inch of their lives. Adam, Aaron, Noah, Joseph, Joshua, Samuel, monogamists. But you say: "Didn't David and Solomon favor polygamy?" Yes, and did they not get well punished for it? Read the lives of those two men, and you will come to the conclusion that all the attributes of God's nature were against their behavior. David suffered for his crimes in the caverns of Adullam and Massada, in the wilderness of Mahanaim, in the bereavements of Zoklag. The Bedouins after him, Adonijah after him, the Edomites after him, death after him, the Hedomites after him, death after him, the Hedomites after him, death after him, the Lord God Almighty after him. The poorest peasant in all the empire married to the planest Jewess was happier than the King in his marital misbehavior.

How did Solomon get along with polygamy. Read his warnings in Proverbs, read his self-disgast in Ecclesiastes. He throws up his hands in loathing, and cries out: "Vanity of vanities, all is vanity." His 700 wives nearly pestered the life out of him. Solomon get well paid for his crimes—well paid. I repeat that all the mighty men of the Scriptures were aloof from polygamy, save as they were that all the mighty men of the Scriptures were aloof from polygamy, save as they were pounded and flailed, and cut to pieces for their insuit to holy marriage. If the Bible is the friend of polygamy why is it that in all the lands where the Bible predominates, polygamy is forbidden, and in the lands where there is no Bible, it is favored? Polygamy all over China, all over India, all over Africa, all over Persia, all over heathendom, save as the missionaries have done their work: while polygamy does not exist in England and the United States, except in defiance of law. The Bible abroad, God honored menogamy. The Bible not abroad, God abhorred polygamy.

Not Anjaronistic to Women. that all the mighty men of the Scriptures were

Not Antagonistic to Women. Another false charge which infidelity has made against the Bible is that it is antagonistic to women, that it enjoins her degradation and belittles her mission. Under this impression many women have been overcome of this plague of infidelity. Is the Bible the enemy of woman? of infidelity. Is the Bible the enemy of woman of infidelity. Is the Bible the enemy of woman come into the picture gallery, the Louvre, the Luxemboule of the Bible, and see which pictures are the more honored. Here is Eve, a tures are the more honored. Here is Eve, a tures are the more honored as perfect a woman as could be Captain James D. Touhey, of Erie; Peter M. Captain James D. Touhey, of Erie; Peter M. made by a perfect God. Here is Deborah, with her womanly arm hurling a best into the battle. Here is Miriam, leading the Israelitish orchestra on the basks of the Red Sea. Here is motherly Hannah, with her own loving hand replenishing the wardrobe of her son Samuel, the prophet. Here is Ablgall, kneeling at the foot of the mountain until the 400 wrathful men, at the sight of her beauty and prowess halt, halt—a hurricane stopped at the sight of a water lily, a dewdrop gashing any home so rarely fortunate as to have one, an old Christian grandmother Grandmother Lois. Who has more worshippers Grandmother Lois. Who has more worshippers to-day than any being that ever lived on earth, except Jusus Christ? Mary. For what purpose did Christ perform his first miracle upon earth? To relieve the embarrassment of a womanly housekeeper at the falling short of a beverage. Why did Christ break up the silence of the tomb, and tear off the shroud and rip up the rocks? It was to stop the hereavement of the two Bethany sisters. For whose comfort was Christ most anxious up the hour ment of the two Bethary sisters. For whose comfort was Christ most anxious in the hour of dying exerciation? For a woman, an old woman, a wrinkle-faced woman, a woman who in other days had held him in her arms, his first friend, his last friend, as it is very apt to be, his mother. All the pathos of the ages compressed into one unterance, "Behold thy mother." Does the Bible antagonize woman?

More Charges Against Infidelity. Infidelity scrapes no lint for the wounded, bakes no bread for the hungry, shakes up no pillow for the sick, rouses no comfort for the bereft, gilds no grave for the dead. While Christ, our Christ, our wounded Uhrist, our risen Christ, the Christ of this old-fashioned Bible—blessed be His glorious name foreverl our Christ stands this hour pointing to the hospital, or to the asylum, saying; "I was sick and we grave Me. 2 couch I was love the control of the christ stands the saying the couch we grave Me. 2 couch I was love the country of the christ stands of t
