BELLEFONTAINE-A wild Big Four engine broke loose from the yards and came tear-ing through the city at a fearful rate. When two miles west it collided with the rear of a west-bound freight, completely demolishing the engine and wrecking ten cars.

PARKERSBURG-Wednesday afternoon the Clouston cases, that have been pending so long, took a sudden turn. The attorney for the State entered a noile prosequi in 24 of the 29 indictments, But five indigtments are left and trial has begun on these.

BROWNSVILLE-Al Robinson, of Uniontown, died here yesterday from the result of a blow on the head with a stone received Noblow on the head with a sone received so-vember 17 last, the day of the big Demo-eratic blows at there. Robinson was a Re-publican and during the parade "Baldy" Ritchie, a Democrat, hurrabed for Cleve-land. Robinson said something to Ritchie whereupon the latter hit him with a stone. Ritchie has fied.

Uniontown-Charles Flowers is in jail having been captured last night at Fairhaving been captured last night at Fair-chance after an exciting chase. He stole some money from Clem Craft and a warrant was sworn out for him. Deputy Matthew Allen started out after Flowers, whom he met in the east end of town. Flowers began firing and ran. Allen started in pursuit and returned the fire, but Flowers escaped. Both men were slightly wounded.

POINT PLEASANT, W. Va.—As the train on the Ohio River Railroad was coming up from Huntington loaded with toughs that had attended the hanging of Murderer had attended the lianging of Murderer Hainson a terrible fight occurred. Ten of the toughs were drunk and took the train. The conductor and brakemen, finding the gang too many for them, the train was stopped and the entire force, Engineer Carr, Fireman Scrognins, Brakeman Beckwith, Engragemaster linguils, led by Conductor Smith, began to battle with the toughs. The ouds were two to one against the trainmen, but they waded in and for 20 minutes a desperate fight ensued. The trainmen findly won. Eight of the toughs were beaten off the train and the other two were so badly wounded that they could not be put off. Conductor Smith had his arm badly bruised and was badly cut about the eye. The fireman was also terribly beaten. One of the toughs was almost scalped and the other nearly killed. The passengers were frightened.
