After the different parties cognizant of the arrest and shooting reached the station-house and became caim, we gleaned the following—

THE ARREST OF CURLY.

Policeman Tyler, with officer Jackson, arrested Curly about 11½ o'clock, on Seventeenth, between Main and Cary streets, upon the charge already mentioned, when officer Jackson left him in charge of the work, had to pass by "Gallows Green," a spot where Reflict Hungmen seed to strive un sundry where Reflicts Hungmen seed to str

THE ATTEMPTED ESCAFE OF THE PRISONER—HE TRIES TO SILL OFFICER JACKSON.

Immediately after shooting Tyler. Curly fired two shots at officer Jackson, which passed through the cape and sleeve of his overcoat, but fortunately did not wound him. Captain Jackson promptly returned the fire, however, without effect. In the meantime the prisoner ran through Mrs. Goodwin's house, in Baker's Alley, and took refuge in the stable of Chas.
