On Friday night a fire broke out in Nixon On Friday night a fire broke out in Nixon & Co.'s foundry, on Park avenue, St. Louis, destroying two-thirds of the establishment, with many valuable patterns, and involving a loss of $15,000. The flames extended to the malt-house of Hoppe & Co., and destroyed the rear portion, together with a large quantity of grain. The loss on the building and stock will probably reach $40,000; insured for $10,000.

The papers from the cotton States teem with accounts of the damage wrought upon the cotton by the late storms. Some re-commend planters to hold their staple for commend planters to hold their staple for a high price, while others characterize this advice as "dangerous." The fact seems to be, however, that in South Carolina, Georgia and Florida, a good deal of damage has been done during the last fortnight.

The Defaulting Paymaster—His Own Confession.

The following is the confession of his guilt made by Paymaster Hodge, to Paymaster General Brice:

SUNDAY EVENING, Sept. 10, 1871. General B. W. Brice:

Sir :- I have to inform you that I am unable to close my accounts, and that I owe the frightful amount of about $459,000, which sum I have lost during the last few which sum I have lost during the last few years in stock speculations, going deeper and deeper, in hope of retrieving myself. I have no excuse or mitigation of my crime to offer, and propose to take the full consequences of my sin. I had thought a week ago of escaping from New York, but believe I have done better in returning here to deliver myself up, as I felt I was going to do.

I can, of course, make no pretence of excuse for the systematic deceit I have practiced on you and the advantaoe I have taken of the special position I have held, and feel that you, especially, have cause to be justly inexorable against me. I have been led on by the infatuation that always attends the course I entered on, hoping always to recover my loss and conceal my crime. I cover my loss and conceal my crime, I believe it is really a relief to be forced to a discovery, for I have been in a hell on earth for years, and the alternations of hope, and fear I have gone through and constant care to avoid detection were becoming too strong.

I desire to turn over any property I have as a small set-off against my deficiency, and after giving any information that will assist in settling my accounts, or, if possible, in recovering a portion of what I have lost, I expect to take the full punishment awarded for my offence.
