The general health of our town is good. A large number of our citizens attended the B. L. E. fair in your city last week.

Clifton is having quite a boom. Carpenters are busy putting up dwelling and business houses. A big time is expected here the 19th of this month, as there are 250 lots to be sold that day, and there seems to be quite a number of eager buyers. If Clifton keeps on at the rate she is going now, she will soon be able to call herself a city.

Due Wiley is building a fine residence here.

Work will soon be commenced upon the bridge to be built here, across Jackson river.
