"Graustark" Next Week

"Graustark," the dramatization by Geo. D. Baker, of the popular novel of fiction from the pen of George Barr McCutcheon, will be the attraction at the Lyric Theatre Wednesday night, Nov. 22nd.

Unique Reception Held by Trinity Methodist Congregation

A unique reception was held by the Methodists of Lexington at Trinity Methodist church last Thursday night, given by the Board of Stewards and Ladies' Aid Society to members of the congregation. More than two hundred and fifty members and friends of the church responded to invitations and enjoyed the hospitality of the occasion.

A short program of music and speech-making was followed by abundant refreshments.

The pastor, Rev. Murray D. Mitchell, presided over the informal exercises and opened with a short heart-to-heart talk to the assemblage. He was followed by Rev. L. V. Ruckman, pastor of the Methodist church at Colliertown. The other speakers were Col. R. T. Kerlin of the Virginia Military Institute faculty, William R. Kennedy, superintendent of the Sunday school, and J. Carl Peck, a student of Washington and Lee and one of the teachers in the Sunday school. The subject discussed bore on various phases of church life, with special reference to relation between pastor and people, responsibilities of the individual member and the influence exerted upon student life.

Music on the pipe organ was interspersed and rendered by Miss Bessie Quisenberry and Miss Bookie Campbell.

Abundant refreshments served consisted of ham sandwiches, coffee, iced cream and cake, fruit, etc.

A plea-ant social hour was spent to the edification and enjoyment of all.

R. V. Patterson Given Six Years

The trial of R. V. Patterson for the murder of S. H. Campbell June 30th near Vesuvius was concluded last Saturday, when the jury brought in a verdict of conviction and fixed his punishment at six years in the penitentiary. His counsel made a motion to set aside the verdict because contrary to the law and evidence. The Court has not yet rendered a decision.

The first poll of the jury stood unanimously for conviction, the highest being for ten years in the penitentiary.

This was the second trial of this case. The first took place at the September term of the Court and resulted in a hung jury, although they spent much time in deliberation.

The crime, it will be recalled, occurred near Campbell's home not far from Vesuvius station on the Norfolk and Western railroad. Patterson shot Campbell after an altercation over the right of way across the railroad. Many witnesses were put on the stand at both trials, and the trial was long drawn out.

In Behalf of Homeless Children

Rev. E. F. Kahle of Abingdon, Va., financial secretary of the Children's Home Society of Virginia, with headquarters in Richmond, occupied the pulpit of Trinity Methodist church Sunday night and presented the cause he represents. Dr. Neighbors was formerly pastor of Greene Memorial Methodist church in Roanoke, and is one of the strong preachers of Methodism. Dr. Neighbors occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church Sunday night. Dr. Kahle's ancestors were residents of Lexington.

In Winter's Grasp

Sunday last opened pleasantly, as had been some days before, but about noon a heavy rainstorm arose, and in the afternoon the weather became very disagreeable. Monday was extremely cold and blustery; in fact the coldest spell of the season. The thermometer fell to about 22 degrees. The freeze did much damage.

Reports from all sections of the country brought incidents of suffering and loss.

World Series Baseball Games

The management of the "Savoy" have arranged to show the public the "World's Series Baseball Game" on Monday night, November 20, 1911. Come early and fill the house. Price of admission 10 cents. A Shower on Jackson Memorial Hospital

The Mary Custis Lee Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will meet at the Jackson Memorial Hospital, Lexington, Va., on Monday before Thanksgiving (Nov. 27, 1911) to receive any linen shower that the friends of the Hospital may pour on them. A gentle shower of sheets (for three-quarter beds), towels, napkins, table cloths, pillow cases, bureau and table covers, etc., etc., will be refreshing—but a fresher would be preferred.

The ladies of Lexington and Rockbridge are cordially invited to come with the shower, and contribute liberally to the downpour.

"While the linen shower is falling, We'll be happy as can be, Polly will put the kettle on, And we'll all have tea."

Remember the heavier the shower, the brighter the sun—also remember that the greatest of the Christian virtues is charity. "I was a stranger and ye took me in; sick, and ye visited me."

Electric Current

Now that the longer evenings are coming on and you have more need for good lights, we would suggest, FIRST, that you by all means

Install Electricity in your home or store unless you already have it. If you already have it you should look over your lamps and see if they don't need renewing. You can not get a good light from an old smoked lamp. We recommend the use of the MAZDA TUNGSTEN lamps which give nearly three times as much light at the same cost as the old style car on lamps.
