"MUCH YET REMAINS UNSUNG"—Cowper.

[From Ackerman's Forget Me Not for 1830.]

VERSES

Inscribed in an Album, by Francis Jeffery, Esq.

Why write my name 'midst songs and flowers,
To meet the eye of lady gay?
I have no voice for lady's bowers—
For page like this no fitting lay.
Yet though no more my heart must bound
At witching call of sprightly joys,
Mine is the brow that never frown'd
On laughing lips, or sparkling eyes.
No—though behind me now is closed
The youthful paradise of love;
Yet can I bless, with soul composed,
The lingerers in that happy grove.
Take, then, fair girls, my blessing take!
Where'er amid its charms you roam;
Or where, by western hill or lake,
You brighten a serener home.
And while the youthful lover's name
Here with the sister beauty's blends,
Laugh not to scorn the humbler aim,
That to their list would add a friend's!

BY virtue of a deed of trust, executed to me by William Verser, on the 9th day of August, 1827, and duly recorded in the Clerk's Office of Nottoway County, I shall proceed to sell, to the highest bidder, for cash, at Nottoway Court House, on Thursday the 7th day of January next, (it being Nottoway Court day,) the following slaves, to wit: Anthoney, Bob, Doctor, Randall, Nelly, Mary, Mary, (the younger,) Tisha, Jude, Lucinda and their increase—or so many of them as may be sufficient to discharge a certain bond named in the said deed executed to Archibald A. Campbell.—The title to said slaves is believed to be good, but I shall only convey to the purchaser such tittle as is vested in me as trustee. RICH'D K. CRALLE, jr.

BUMFORD ACADEMY.—This Institution will, as usual, be opened for the reception of pupils on the 15th of January next, being the commencement of the first session of the ensuing year. The character of this Seminary and its proverbially healthy location are, it is believed, generally known in the lower part of the State. To those who are unacquainted with the Institution, it is proper to observe that the surrounding neighbourhood presents no inducements to be dissipated or to contract irregular habits. Without professing to teach more than is taught in other grammar schools, let it suffice to say, that in the classical department, the pupils are prepared to enter the senior classes of any of the Colleges or Universities of the Union. The Mathematical department will continue under the direction of Mr. Kenny, whose merits as an Instructor are already known to, and duly appreciated by, the public. The course of English and Mathematics is such as to qualify youth not only for admission into College, but likewise for the Counting-house, the Navy, or the Military Academy at West Point.

TERMS—Board, washing and tuition for the session (5 months,) each boarder finding his own bed, towels, candles, &c. $60, payable in advance.—Tuition alone $15, per session, payable also in advance.
WM. HAWKESWORTH.

The first session will terminate on the 15th June.—Students who enter at any time within the first month (previous to the 15th February) will be liable to the expense of the whole session.

My terms for Board and Tuition are $60, the scholastic year of ten months. My school will commence on the 15th of January, 1830, and terminate on the 15th December. A vacation of four weeks will be given in the summer.

I shall have an examination at the commencement, and another at the close of the year.—The result of which will be sent to the parents and guardians of children committed to my care.—Particular attention will be paid to the moral conduct of my pupils, and good discipline maintained in school. I have been engaged in teaching for eight years past, and am fully sensible of the great responsibility which my profession imposes. My residence is unusually healthy and remote from places of vice and dissipation. In relation to my character and qualifications, I am authorised to refer to the following gentlemen, viz:

Mr. H. Davis was employed by Bishop Meade as private tutor of his children for upwards of two years, and I have every reason to believe was approved by him. I, therefore, can with propriety recommend Mr. Davis, to such parents as may be disposed to employ him.

In forming the morals and cultivating the intellectual faculties of youth, he has had the experience of about thirty years; during which time, the high literary character which his pupils have generally sustained, has redounded much to his gratification and their credit. THE METROPOLITAN;—Or, Catholic Monthly Magazine

"Jesus Christ yesterday, and to-day: and he is the same forever."—HEB. xiii. 9.

"Hanc Fidem quam nunc habemus omnes Fideles qui nos præcesserunt a priscis temporibus habuerunt."—LANEFRANC CONTR. BERENG.

"The faith which we profess, was held by all the faithful, who have preceded us from the earliest times."

A Monthly Magazine, dedicated to Religion and Literature, is about to be issued from this Metropolis.—The circumstances under which it takes its origin, are of a nature, at once, to promise it success, and secure its continuance. Approved by the Most Rev. Archbishop—depending on the exertions, science and talents of the clergy of Maryland and of the Union, it cannot fail to be conducted in an able and interesting manner. Differing in its character from those religious papers which have already been established, it will neither interfere with their design, nor tend, in any way, to impede their circulation.—Its object is, indeed, the same: the dispersion of truth—the dissemination of knowledge—and the vindication of those doctrines and usages of the Church, which have been, and are still, not unfrequently, misrepresented. In pursuing this object, it will be necessary to have recourse to arguments and facts: which, while they strengthen the tenets of the Catholic Church, must tend to the refutation of those of all others. But while these arguments and facts are appealed to, it shall be done with mildness and forbearance, comformably to the spirit of true charity on which Religion is essentially founded. The Metropolitan will be divided into four heads, viz:—Religious, Literary, Miscellaneous, Poetical. It will be published monthly in Baltimore by P. Blenkinsop—the first number will appear in January 1830. It will be printed in 8 vo. on good paper, and forwarded to Subscribers through the Post Office. Terms $4 per annum—payable half yearly in advance.
Dec. 10. 71—w4w

EDUCATION—The Subscriber will commence his school in Charlottesville, on the 10th day of January next, for the instruction of boys, in the English, Latin, Greek, and French Languages, which will comprise a session of little upwards of ten months. A vacation of one month will be given in August. The course will comprise in the English Department, English Grammar, Geography, Book-keeping, Arithmetic, and a preparatory course of Mathematics; viz: Lacroix's Algebra and Legendre's Geometry; in the classical, the Latin, Greek and French Languages, with Ancient History, Geography and Mythology. The instructor will be generally during the day with his pupils, save a sufficient time for exercise and recreation, so as to assist and instruct them both in the preparation, and recitation of their lessons. As he intends his school to be permanent, and believes the advantages of an education, and the facility of acquiring it, increased by pursuing a regular and systematical plan, he would prefer, as pupils, those boys, who will probably complete their scholastic course with him. His course is such, as to give boys all the necessary preparation for any of the Colleges or Universities, and especially for the University of Virginia; with an eye to which, it has been prepared. He would be glad, if those who intend to favor him with their patronage, would immediately apprize him of their intentions; for if the size of the School will justify it, he will employ an assistant, so as to have the French Language taught by a native Frenchman.

Those who may not be acquainted with the subscriber, he would refer to Thomas W. Gilmer, R. W. Wood, James W. Saunders, Henry T. Harry, Dr. C L. Cocke, Thomas J. Randolph, Philip P. Barbour and Wm. F Gordon. Board in genteel families can be obtained in Charlottesville from eight to ten dollars per month.

Terms for a session of ten months for instruction in the English branches, Latin, Greek, French, and Mathematics, $35.00
English branches, Latin, and Mathematics, 30.00
English branches only, 25.
GEORGE CARR, Principal.

There will be a vacation of one month, in the summer.—The price of board, tuition, washing and lodging, will be one hundred dollars—for board and tuition alone, ninety dollars, payable, in each case, one half on the 1st of June, and the other half, on the 15th of December.—His residence is about twenty-six miles above Richmond, and in one of the most healthy and respectable neighbourhoods in Virginia.—It is on the road, leading from Colonel Goodall's Tavern to Fredericksburg.

The subscriber pledges himself to pay strict attention to the tuition and morals of the boys, intrusted to his instruction. Letters addressed to Montpelier Post Office, Hanover County, will be attended to.

TWENTY DOLLARS REWARD.—I will give the above reward for the apprehending and delivery to me, in Goochland, my man Moses, who made his escape on Thursday night, the 26th ult.; or lodging him in any Jail so I get him again. Moses is between twenty-five and thirty years of age, yellow complexion, has a scar on one side of his face, near the eye, but on which side, not recollected; he is about five feet six or seven inches high: he had on, when he started, a Surtout coat, with a long tail, homespun, wove serge, and dyed a dark brown with bark; no other clothing recollected. Moses is a good blacksmith, also a tolerable good shoemaker; he makes pegs and sewed shoes; he crossed at Cartersville on the 28th of last month, about 11 o'clock, where he took a wacth from Mr. E. Wellfre who repaired the same for him; the watch is a French watch, single-cased, it has had a hand to tell the day of the month, has a gold streak round the figures, the 15. Minute dots are yellow; he has a brass seal which has a compass in it, the back of the watch has the appearance of being broken and repaired. Moses will no doubt pass himself as a free man, and has no doubt a free pass. Moses is quick spoken, but when confused stammers smartly.

RAPPAHANNOCK ACADEMY.—Having succeeded in procuring the services of Mr. CHARLES A. LEWIS, JUN. as principal, to be aided in the Classical Department by Mr. Samuel B. Owen Wilson, (son of the Rev. Samuel B. Wilson, of Fredericksburg,) the Trustees of this Institution confidently congratulate the public, upon the prospect of again realizing those benefits, which it once so extensively diffused; and indulge the hope, that its enlightened patronage will obtain for it the success, to which its numerous and acknowledged advantages, so eminently entitle it. For the faithful and able discharge of the duties assigned him, the best pledge will be found in the unwaaried and practised zeal, with which Mr. Lewis has heretofore acquitted himself in the profession of his early choice. Of the qualifications, and amiable disposition, of Mr. Wilson, the most satisfactory testimonials have been adduced, from sources the most unquestionable. When to these primary elements of success, are added others even better assured, and only second to them in importance, viz: large and commodious Buildings, the salubrity of whose site is indubitably tested, by the fact, that for years past, it has proved a refuge of unfailing security to the adjacent inhabitants of less favoured spots, and for the last seven years, to the President himself, and his family, with entire exemption from autumnal diseases, remoteness from every haunt of vice, and a well-selected library of about 500 volumes, the Trustees cannot doubt it will be secure in the discernment of a liberal public. The course of instruction will be such, as to qualify students for entering College, or the University, and will comprise the English, Latin and Greek Languages, Geography with the use of the Maps and Globes, Arithmetic, Algebra, Geometry; Plane and Spherical Trigonomery, and the Theory and Practice of Surveying. The moral and religious instruction of the youth committed to his care, will be a primary object, and will be inculcated upon every fit occasion, as the best foundation for piety, virtue and useful knowledge, by the Principal and his Assistant.—The exercise will commence on the 15th of January, 1830: and terminate on the 15th of December following, with a vacation of one month in the summer.—Terms for Board and Tuition including washing, $110, each Boarder finding his own bed, bedding, towels and candles.

Address, to the Principal, Bowling-Green, Caroline County, Va. till the 1st of January; and afterwards to him, or to the President, Rappahannock Academy.
JOHN B. BERNARD, President.

DANVILLE MALE ACADEMY.—This Institution will be re-opened on the first Monday in January next, under the immediate tuition and care of the Rev. John Warnock, whose classical and scientific acquirements and experience and success as a teacher, eminently qualify him for the instruction of youth.

Mr. Warnock is a graduate of Glasgow University, and has been engaged in teaching, during the last nine years in this Country. His recommendations which are ample and satisfactory, show that he is well qualified not only by his literary aquirements, but also by his worth to preside over an institution of this kind. As the school will be permanent, the advantages of this Academy will be equal to any in the State. The classical course will be sufficiently extensive to prepare students for entering any of our Universities. Boarding may be had in respectable families at a moderate rate.
By order,
JAMES D. PATTON, President of the Board of Trustees.

P. S. Mr. Warnock will take a few boarders: as the numbers will be limited, an early application is requested. Dec. 10. 71—6t
