

LOBLER F.

MUCH YET REMAINS UNAUNG.

[From the Carolina Observer.]
A DRAMATIC SKETCH.

SCENE-Vestibule of the Senate Chamber.—Time—
Nomination of Mr. Van Buren.
Enter Clax and Websten. (speaking as they enter, the latter very wrothy.)—They talk Millenic, after the latest and most approved Ishion of Dr. Channing.
"Elder Brother. (Anglice Webster)—But come, lets on

on
Against the opposing will and arm of Heaven, [1]
May never this just sword be lifted up,
But for that dann'd [2] MAGICIAN, let him be girt With all the grisly legions that troop Under the sooty flag [8] of Acheron, Harpies and hydras,—or all the monstrous forms [4] Twixt Africa and Ind, Pil find him out, And force him to return his purchase back [5]

Or drag him by the curls [6] to a foul death Curs'd as his life Spirit (English for Clay) . . . Alas, good ventur ous youth!

I love thy courage [7] yet, and hold emprise;
But here thy sword [8] can do thee little stead:
Far [9] other arms, and weapons must.
Be these that quell the might of Hellish [10] charms; [11] He with his bare wand can authread thy joints, [12] And crumble all thy sinews." Millon's Comus.

NOTES-By GIFFORD. NOTES—By GIFFORD.

[1] Heaven.—The God-like, as his cognomen betokens, here talketh very piously, and also magnanimously. See his very devout and reverential quotation of scripture, in his late reference to the prophet's account of the reanimation of the "dry bones of the valley."

[2] Dann'd.—Here again the early Calvanistic education of the speaker breaks through the surface of a more pulished and well-bred Section of the speaker breaks through the surface of a more pulished and well-bred Section with a service of a more pulished and well-bred Section with a service of a more pulished and well-bred Section with a service of a more pulished and well-bred Section with the service of a more pulished and well-bred Section with the service of a more pulished and well-bred Section with the service of a more pulished and well-bred Section with the service of a more pulished and well-bred Section with the service of a more pulished and well-bred Section with the service of a more pulished and well-bred Section with the service of a more pulished and well-bred Section with the service of a more pulished and well-bred Section of the service of a more pulished and well-bred Section of the service of a more pulished and well-bred Section of the service of a more pulished and well-bred Section of the service of the polished and well-bred Socialanism; as this very plain-spoken cpithet sheweth. It is but fair, however, to state, that the speaker says in justification, that he only used it, as he did the other allusion, rhetorically; and that he did'nt mean any harm.

[3] Sooty flag.—The original, whence the God-like borrowed his famous description of the Union Banner, in the Foot Resolution speech—"Streaming all over—and over—and on both sides—and round the edges—and in be-

May next.

[12] Unthread thy joints.—An ill natured reflection (to say the least of it) and most unkind cut at the long standing Rheumaticks of his friend, the God-like;—or, perhaps the language is only metaphorically expressive of a regret on the part of the speaker himself, that although in the prime and vigour of manbood, before his own joints grew stiff, in his devotion and courtship of the People, he with untiring perseverance, crooked the pregnant hinges of the knee, thrift would not follow lawning.

Note to the Editor.—You will perceive, on turning to your copy of Milton, that the extract from "Comus" is given verbatim.

has been so ably exposed on the floor of the Senate, and in the proceedings of the public meetings that have already reached me, that I shall not now attempt to take the day reached me, that I shall not now attempt to take the way and affectionate sympathy of my friends. I am the proceedings of the public mections of the publ in station than in worth, who, springing from the democracy, has been long and honorably identified with them, sesses, in the largest sense, their confidence and attachment.

EMINETECAT. [From the Albany Argus.]

CORRESPONDENCE. ALBANY, Feb. 10, 1832.

the expectations of this State, were not disappointed your conduct in this elevated station.—The success

Be assured, Sir, that this blow at an administration high in the affections of the people, and the degradation to our national character, springing from this unprecedented act of our national Senate, will be made to recoil upon its authors, by the unpurchased voice of an insulted and indignant people; and that when you return to this country, you will find, not merely your native State, but the people of the whole Union, prepared to protect an honest, a capable and a faithful servant, from the malignancy of disappointed ambition, and from all the arts of a triumvirate, which has but one parallel in the history of the world.

We are, very respectfully,

Your ardent friends,

Your ardent friends,

And very humble servants, EDW'D HOWELL, N. P. TALLMADGE, THOS. ARMSTRONG, CHS. L. LIVINGSTON, LEVI BEARDSLEY, JOHN F. HUBBARD, PETER WOOD, AARON REMER,
G. OSTRANDER,
JAS: HUGHSTON, J. W. EDMONDS, WM. H. ANGEL, J. W. WIELIAMSON. WM. SEYMOUR.

LONDON, March 14th, 1832. Gentlemen—Your letter of the 10th ultimo, communi-cating to me the views of the republican members of the legislature of New York, in relation to the conduct of the over—and on both sides—and round the edges—and in between the seams, with living characters, &c. &c."—I quote from memory.

[4] Monstrous forms.—Here the speaker means the Radicals, and Parliamentary Reformers of England, with whom the Minister was then consorting. The same wild animals, that like the Bell of Cyprus in Othello, frightened Mr. Peel, and the Duke of Wellington from their propriety.

[5] Return his purchase back. Deducting, be it understood, the $9000 cutfit, for which the Fiend took a Bond of Fate; and which upon presentation was duly paid at the Treasury.

[6] Treasury,

[7] The public will.

[7] I believe this principle, maintained in its purity, and operating through the representative channel, to be the true secret of internal order and prosperity—of external dignity and strength. It is congenial to all our institutions, and maintains them in healthful op—cation. Whatever militates against their harmony, is some discordant principle, foreign to the genius of our Constitution, and munwilling to discriminate; you must therefore allow me to throw myself upon their indulational faith; and is to be studied in the doctrines and example of its founders, not in the glosses and mal-practices of modern sectarians. It is neither factions nor intolerant, of modern sectarians. It is neither factions nor intolerant, of modern sectarians. It is neither factions nor intolerant, of modern sectarians.

ly throughout the world, who look to the conduct of our legislative bodies as the criterion of that representative state of Illinois, vice Shadrac Bond, decased.

New Ordanice Corps.—It will be recollected that at the present site institutions is so well established, and has received such accession of Congress a law has been passed, or cession of convention.—Into which huge cauldron, the speaker perceived, with no little foreboding, the Imps and Familiars of the Press, casting in their potent drugs and poisonous roots, preparatory to a great political Sorcery-stew in May next.

As to the motives alleged for my rejection, their futility has been so ally exposed on the floor of the Senate, and May next.

from the walks of private life, and elevated me into office; it was their continued countenance that, for twenty years, sustained me through a succession of arduous tasks, and cheered and encouraged me under every trial; and though

The subjoined letter from Mr. Van Buren we copy from To the Hon. Martin Van Buren.

Sin.—The undersigned, having been commissioned by the Republican members of the Legislature of the state of New York to convey to the state of the State of New York to convey to the State of New York to the New York to the State of New York the Republican members of the Legistature of the state of New York, to convey to you their views in relation to the recent conduct of the Senate of the U. S., have the honor to transmit herewith, an account of their proceedings at a neeting held by them in the Capitol, on the 3d instant.

The Democracy of this State have long felt themselves identified with your political career. Your steady adherence to their faith, under circumstances the most adverse, and the unrelenting howelfity of the aistocracy of the country to your conduct, have been duly appreciated, and a strong desire has more than once manifested itself to express the well-grounded confidence of the people of this State in your character and your principles. Your elevation to the chief magistracy of this member of the Union, was hailed as a triumple of constitutional principles and of undefiled republicanism, and your removal to the cabinetof the nation, was a confirmation of the assurance, that there too such doctrines would prevail.

speedily return to his native land .- N. Y. Ev. Post

tion and regret with which the defeat of this great object, by the Senate, has been received by the nation. The language of the resolutions which we have the honor to enclose, is that of the great mass of the people of this country; but we cannot, in justice to ourselves, refrain from the expression of our undiminished confidence in your capacity and character.

many of whom are adverse in political opinion, concurring in a public expression of attachment and esteem; -if I find them taking my name to their heart's keeping, and conting to me the views of the republican members of the logislature of New York, in relation to the conduct of the Senate of the United States upon the subject of my maintain as minister to this country, has found me in the hurry and press of occupations, public and private, preparatory to my departure. This circumstance increases the difficulty which I would at any time feel in expressing is suitable terms, the emotions of my heart on receiving so eloquent a testimonial of sympathy and confidence,

I cannot but be deeply gratified and flattered by the approbation expressed of my public services, though I feel that in the warmth and excitement of the mement, that approbation has far exceeded my deserts. In exerting myself to the utmost to discharge the successive trusts with which I have been honored, I have but filfilled the obligations incumbent upon every citizen: had my merits one testimolal which gives me the proudest gratification, and part of which I hesitate not to accept and appropriate as any due. You tell me that the Democracy of New York have long felt themselves identified with my political entering the most adverse circumstances. In this latter respect they have but to me me justice. Looking upon the mazes of losing sight of it, I have resorted to the true spring-head the public will.

I believe this principle, maintained in its purity, and operating through the representative channel, to be the true sector of linearing order and prosperity—of externel distinguish and adhere to listing sight of it, I have resorted to the true spring-head the public will.

I believe this principle, maintained in its purity, and operating through the representative channel, to be the true sector of internal order and prosperity—of externel for the public will and maintains them in healthful op-action. What have a proceed to the true spring-head and maintains them in healthful op-action.

do Infantry, 3d do Artillery, 4th do do 5th 5th Captain 1st 1st 1st Lt. 2d 8th 1st Lt. 4th 2d Lt. 4th Engineers, 7th do 2d Lt. 3d Regt. Artillery, 8th do

MR. VAN BUREN, AND THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE N. YORK DEMOCRACY.
We have the gratification to give to our readers to-day, the correspondence between the Republican members of the Legislature of this State, and Mr. Van Buren.
The letter of the committee, conveying the sentiments of the Representatives of the democracy, in relation to the Representatives of the democracy, in relation to as an act of party malness and personal malice, as causeless an act of party malness and personal malice, as causeless an act of party malness and personal malice, as causeless and endorsely the democracy of my native state.

Be pleased, gentlemen, to make to the republican members of the legislature of New-York, my warmest acts of the Agent employed by the Ag ble in manner: And this delegated expression, on an appeal to the people, has been fully, unequivocally, triumphantly confirmed.

The reply of Mr. Van Buren is a high and eloquent emanation of feeling and of patriotism. We point to it with pride and graffication. It comes warin from the heart; and speaks a lenguage that will find a response in every democratic boson. It is perfectly in keeping with all the acts and declarations of a citizen, not more eminent.

To N. P. Tallmadge, Thos. Armstrong, Levi Beardsley, John F. Hubbard, John W. Edmends, Aaron Remer, Gileon Ostrander, Peter Wood, John F. Hubbard, John W. Edmends, Aaron Remer, Gileon Ostrander, Peter Wood, John F. Hubbard, John W. Edmends, Aaron Remer, Gileon Ostrander, Peter Wood, John F. Hubbard, John W. Edmends, Aaron Remer, Gileon Ostrander, Peter Wood, John F. Hubbard, John W. Edmends, Aaron Remer, Gileon Ostrander, Peter Wood, John F. Hubbard, John W. Edmends, Aaron Remer, Gileon Ostrander, Peter Wood, John F. Hubbard, John W. Edmends, Aaron Remer, Gileon Ostrander, Peter Wood, John F. Hubbard, John W. Edmends, Aaron Remer, Gileon Ostrander, Peter Wood, John F. Hubbard, John W. Edmends, Aaron Remer, Gileon Ostrander, Peter Wood, John F. Hubbard, John W. Edmends, Aaron Remer, Gileon Ostrander, Peter Wood, John F. Hubbard, John W. Edmends, Aaron Remer, Gileon Ostrander, Peter Wood, John F. Hubbard, John W. Edmends, Aaron Remer, John M. V. A. Weetler at the Agent was for the assurance of my individual respect, my sincere thanks for the assurance of my individual respect, my sincere thanks for the assurance of my individual respect, my sincere thanks for the assurance of my individual respect, my sincere thanks for the assurance of my individual respect, my sincere thanks for the assurance of my individual respect, my sincere thanks for the assurance of my individual respect, my sincere thanks for the assurance of my individual respect, my sincere thanks for the assurance of my individual respect, my sincere thanks for the assurance of my individual re Gideon Ostrander, Peter Wood, John M. Keiner, Sider it. At a meeting called by the Chiefs to have the James Hughston, Edward Howell, Elisha Litchfield, W. H. Angel, William Seymour and Cha's L. Livingston, thirty and forty names. All the Indians not concerned in the government, agree in believing that it will be for

Interesting to Settlers in the Creek Nation.—The Marshal of this district (says the Mobile Register,) has received instructions from the Secretary of War, to repair to the district each by the Secretary of War, to repair o the district ceded by the late treaty, and give notice to all persons, except those allowed by the treaty to remain till their crops are gathered, to remove within as short a gebut on the sition and other circumstances. The Marshal is instructed to fix this period, and make it publicly known.

In the execution of this delicate trust, the Marshal is directed to be as conciliatory as may be compatible with the object to be obtained, and to apply force, only when absolutely necessary, and after having fully explained to the parties their own duties, the rights of the Indians, the the parties their own duties, the rights of the financials, the obligations of the government, and the instructions be has received. Should it become necessary, the commanding officer at Fort Mitchell is directed to aid the Marshal with the military force under his command, in the execution of his duties .- Ib

The Columbus Enquirer mentions, that the U. States Marshal for the Southern District of Atabana, has been ordered by the President of the United States, to remove to construct a bridge over the Ohio, at Louisville. The cost of this work is estimated at five millions of dollars.

The Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road is now open and in use to the point of Rocks. Passenger cars are to run daily. We may therefore expect to see a considerable increase of stage travel up this valley.

We understand Charles J. Faulkner, Esq. of this place here are generally opposed to the protection of any particular trade, calling, or business, at their expense.—Abing-

McKeever is about to proceed to the Brazil station to take command of the U. S. Sloop of War Lexington, to re-lieve Capt. Duncan, who has asked permission to return Death of Col. John Taylor .- A letter from Camden. Death of Col. John Taylor.—A letter from Camden, dated on Monday last, states that Col. John Taylor, late Governor of this State, died there, on the morning of that day; and that his remains were to be removed to Columbia for interment.—Charleston Courier.

FOREIGN.

THREE DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE. (From the New York papers of May 1.)

By the arrival of the Canada, Captain Wilson, from Liverpool, whence she sailed on the 1st of April, we have our London files to the 31st of March, and Liverpool to ne day of sailing.

The news of a political character is not important. The or 90 cases per day; but it appears to excite little alarm. It has made its appearance decidedly in Dublin.

We give reports below of cholera in Paris. There is no other French news.

There is nothing new from Don Pedro nor his brother.

An English pages monthly a given to the second of the seco

An English paper mentions a shipment of heavy artillery and materiel for the defence of Lisbon.

The Reform question looks darker than ever for its narge to the second teaching was postponed from the 5th of April to the 8th, on account of the occurrence of the "quarter sessions"—an inferior court. The creation of peers is loudly demanded, as affording the only hope of the passage of the bill.

PARIS, March 28 .- A courier arrived this day from Capt. Delano. She was boarded last night by our news schooner Eclipse. The London dates brought us by her, are to the evening of the 31st—those by the Canada were to the morning of that day; and we have besides, by the Columbia, the Hampshire Telegraph of the 2d April.

The official Cholera Report is one day later. Under date of the 31st March, it states that there were 87 new cases in London, and 4d daubs, since the meading day be in London, and 44 deaths, since the preceding day. In the country 33 new cases and 16 deaths. The Courier of the 31st contains the following in rela-BELGIUM.

Although the ratification of the Belgian treaty, by the Emperor of Austria, has been received by Baron Wessen-berg, the Austrian Charge d'Affaires, it will not this day be given in to the Conference, as was intended: the exchange having been made conditional, upon the giving in the ratification of Prussia, for which Baron Bulow has not yet received the necessary authority. To what this delay is owing we know not, but we understand that the Prussian Plenipotentiary is in hourly expectation of the requi-site authority.

On the subject of Italy, the same paper has the follow-The last accounts from Ancona are considered both by the British and French Governments completely satisfac-tory. Gen. Cubiers has restored to the affair that charac-ter which it would not for a moment have been divested of had it not been for the most strange forgetfulne ders which emanated from the Cabinet of the Tuileries at the epoch of the departure of the expedition.

At Rome, however, the most trivial circumstances are converted by anger into ground for note after note to the French Ambassador; it being evidently the design in this way to ring the changes to Europe, and to mother the principal question under a heap of trilling details, which, their interest to emigrate.—Macon Telegraph, April 26.

Interesting to Settlers in the Cash S

"We have here the British ship Challenger, of 28 guns, despatches. The Admiral is on his way from India with all to $1500 the ships he can collect—every one asks, what for None can tell, unless it be to give us all trouble; the negotiations may be spun out until answers are received to the dispatches sent last August to England. I cannot suppose it possible that the Company will quarrel with the Chinese, having but 2 years to live—they may keep us in hot water for some months, and all end in smoke.

The addressed to the Editor of the Sport should bear the post mark of the 1st May.

April 27.

April 27.

TOR SALE.—My tract of land, (contain the sand water for some months, and all end in smoke.)

The Legislature of Indiana have chartered a company of the CHANCERY.—VIRGINIA.—At a Circuit Superior construct a bridge over the Ohio, at Louisville. The rior Court of Law and Chancery, held for Chesterfield county, at the court-house thereof, on the 28th day of March, 1828.

Eldridge Flournoy, Rebecca Flournoy, Susan Flournoy and Thomas Flournoy, the said Susan and Thomas being infants, who sue by Francis W. Dunnavant, their next friend

We understand Charles J. Faulkner, Esq. of this place has received from the Governor of this Commonwealth, the appointment of Commissioner to collect and prepare the testimony in relation to the settlement and adjustment of the disputed boundary line between Virginia and Maryland.—Martinsburg Gazette.

Messrs. Herron and De Witt, Engineers, employed by the Board of Public Works, are at present engaged in a survey of the Shenandoah Valley, in pursuance of an act of the Legislature, passed during the session before the last. This act contemplates a very full examination against Silas Cheatham, in his own right, and as administrator and settle, and to the Court report with any matter spe and settle, and to the Court report with any matter specially stated deemed pertinent by himself, or which may be required by any of the parties to be so stated—Provided, that such of the foregoing accounts as have been settled, reported to and confirmed by the county Court of Chesterfield, the said Commissioner is directed to take as prima facie correct, liable to be surcharged and falsified by the parties, by the production of legal and sufficient proof for that purpose.

Conv Teste.

P. POINDENTER Cit-

P. POINDEXTER, Clk.

COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE. Chesterfield C. H. April 5th, 1832.

LAWSON NUNNALLY, Comm'r.

April 24.

113—w8w.

N CHANCERY—VIRGINIA.—At rules held in the clerk's office of the Circuit Superior Court of Law and Chancery for the county of King & Queen, on the 10th of March, 1832: James Garnett, adm'r. with the will annexed of Thomas Garnett, dec'd, which said Thomas Garnett was in his life-time Executor of Henry Garnett, Pltff.

Was in his life-time Executor of Henry Garnett, Pltff.

Ind.—w8w.

N CHANCERY—VIRGINIA.—At rules held in the clerk's office of the Circuit Superior Court of Law and Chancery of Mecklenburg county, on the first Monday in April, 1832:

Alexander Butler, Armistead O. Butler, John H. Butler, in his own right, and as administrator of Charles G. Butler, dec'd., John T. Gale and Jane H. his wife—late was in his life-time Executor of Henry Garnett, Pltff.

against
Samuel Parrish and Mary his wife, which said Drary being hear the information with the said Samuel Parrish was Mary Garnett, a daughter of Henry Garnett, dee'd, and Muscoe Garnett, Samuel Parish was Defts.

Defts.

Defts.

Jane Keys, but formerly Jane H. Butler—Edward T. Marsthe and Efficabeth his wife, formerly Elizabeth Butler, against Hume R. Feild and James W. Oliver, Ex'ers of Jahr. Mary Garnett, a daughter of Henry Garnett, dec'd, and Muscoe Garnett,

The defendants, Samuel Parish and Mary his wife, not having entered their appearance and given security according to the act of assembly and rules of this court, and it appearing by satisfactory evidence, that tkey are not inhabitants of this country, it is ordered that the said defendants wife, Win. Oliver, son of John Oliver, Armistead Oliver, and so appear here on the first Monday in June next and answer the bill of the plaintiff, and that a copy of this order be forthwith inserted in some newspaper published in the city of Richmond for two months successively, and posted at the front door of the court house of this county.

A Copy Teste, ROBERT POLLARD, p. c. March 30.

and the genome south, the which the Florid took a Bott of Parts and which top presentations was old print at the property and the genome and property and the genome and the and the genom

May 1. [115-w8w] R. F. GRAVES, D. C.

Mercantile business heretofore conducted in Char-lotte county, under the firm of Samuel S. Fuqua & Co., was dissolved on the 31st March last, by mutual consent. was dissolved on the olfs and all his interest ther to Josiah W. Chappell.

JOHN ARMISTEAD, SAMUEL S. FUQUA.

The business will be continued in future, under the first Chappell & Fuqua. JOSIAH W. CHAPPELL, SAMUEL S. FUQUA

Spring Meeting, 1832, will commence on the last EXDAY in May, (29th) and continue four days. First day—first race, (to start at 12 o'clock precisely,) a sweepstakes for colts and fillies, 3 years old; mile heats; entrance, $100, half forfeit,—four or more to make a race.

Second race, a post sweepstakes with colts and fillies, three years old; mile heats; entrance $200, p. p.—four or more to make a race. To close 1st of May; three sub-

Second day, a post sweepstakes for all ages; entrance

Fourth day, jockey club purse, $1000; four mile heats;

Extract of a letter from Canton, dated December 19, 1831.

Extract of a letter from Canton, dated December 19, 1831.

Extract of a letter from Canton, dated December 19, 1831.

We have here the British ship Challenger of 28, 1831.

The december 19, 1831.

It will be seen by the above, that the Post Sweepstakes for colts and fillies, three years old, $200, p. p., will close on the first of next month. We have little doubt, but "We have here the British ship Challenger, of 28 guns, with despatches from the Governor General to the Vice Roy of Canton, who has appointed a time and place for the Kongheep to meet Capt. Freemantle and to receive the month (May.) The purse in that case amounts already described.

P. S. Persons subscribing will be in time, if their let-er addressed to the Editor of the Sporting Magazine in hot water for some months, and all end in smoke.

Sand acres) situated in Prince Edward Country, on Sandy River, two miles from the bridge and five miles from Farmville,—a flourishing little village, where a ready market may be had for all its products, and within three Chancery for King and Queen county, on the 2d day of April, 1832:

John Chowning, jr., adm'r., with the will annexed of Elizabeth M. Davis, dec'd.

Pitf the there too such declines would prevail.

The expectations of this State, were not disappointed in your conduct in this elevated station.—The success which crowned your efforts, while continuing our originations, was to us, a sure pressed of the blessings which might yet the conference upon our counting our originations, was to us, a sure pressed of the blessings which might yet the conference upon our counting our originations of a meeting the citizent of Albany, upon the rejection of high the conference upon our counting to understance that the proposed of the content of the street, instituted to a sill higher and more responsible trust. The feelings which prompted your resignation of a situation where the conference of the Executive and the proposed of the value of the conference of the Executive and the proposed of the street, which we are foundation. The particular which is an appearance that the grant of the street of the conference of the street, in the conference of the street, in the conference of the street of the street of the conference of the street of the street of the conference of the street of th

Mr. Isaac Whayne, Jane Whayne and Thomas

Howerton—
DLEASE take notice, that we shall on Tuesday the 28th day of August next, at the Tavern House of Moses Palmer, in the county of Halifax, and continue from day to-day until the same shall be accomplished, take the depositions of David Shelton and others, to be read as evidence in a suit now depending and undetermined on the Chancery side of the Circuit Superior Court of Law and Chancery for the county of Halifax, wherein we are plaintiffs and yourselves and others defendants, when and where you may attend, if you think proper. Yours, &c.

ROBERT E. OWEN,

MARY ANN F. OWEN.

May 4.

May 4. N CHANCERY-VIRGINIA:—At rules held in the Clerk's Office of Mecklenburg County Court, on the first Monday in April, 1832. John G. Baptist,

Overton Wiles, Clark Royster, and William Townes,

The defendant, Overton Wiles, not having entered his The delendant, Overton Wiles, not having entered his appearance, and given security according to the Act of Assembly and the rules of this Court, and it appearing from satisfactory evidence, that he is not an inhabitant of this State—On motion of the Plaintiff by his Attorney, it is ordered, that the said Defendant do appear here on the first day of July Court next, and answer the Plaintiff's hill and give security for perfection the hill, and give security for performing the decree of the Court; and that a copy of this order be inserted in some newspaper, printed in the city of Richmond, for two two months successively, and posted at the front door of the Court-House of the said county. A copy Teste.

May 4. [116-wSw*] JOHN G BAPTIST, C.

N CHANCERY-VIRGINIA.—At rules holden in the Clerk's office of the Circuit Superior Court of Law and Chancery of Mecklenburg county, on the first Monday in April, 1832: William Townes, administrator, with the will annexed,

against
David C. Hutcherson and Edw. A. Holloway, Defts.
The defendant, David C. Hutcherson, not having entered his appearance and given security according to the act of Assembly and the rules of this Court; and it appearing from satisfactory evidence that he is not an inhabitant of this State, on motion of the plaintiff, by his attorney, it is ordered, that the said defendant do appear here at rules to be holden for the said court, at the clerk's office thereof, on the first Monday in July next, and answer the plain-

May 4.

here on the first day of the next September term, and an-DISSOLUTION OF CO-PARTNERSHIP.—The swer the bill of the plaintiffs; and that a copy of this or-

A copy. Teste, ROLFE ELDRIDGE, C. May 4. N CHANCERY-VIRGINIA.—At rules holden in the Clerk's office of the county Court of Charlotte, the 2d day of April, 1832:

William Matthews, Nancy Matthews, the widow of William Matthews, Matthews, and Polly Matthews, and William Matthews, and John Wyatt Matthews, and John Wyatt Matthews, infant child of Wyatt Matthews, dec'd., and William Deupree, defts.

The defendants, Griffin Vaughan and Elizabeth bis wile, not having entered their appearance according to the wile, not having entered their appearance, according to the actol Assembly and the Rules of this Court, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that they are not inhabitants of this State, on the motion of the plaintiff by counsel, it is ordered, that the said defendants do appear here on the first Monday in July next, and enter their appearance and answer the plaintiff's bill, and give Second day, a post sweepstages for an ages, 250, p. p.—four mile heats,—four or more to make a race the proprietor to add $500. To close 1st of May; four security for performing the decree of the Court; and that a copy of this order be inserted in some paper printed in the city of Richmond, for two months successively, and posted courty.

A Copy Teste. WINSLOW ROBINSON, o N CHANCERY.—In Amelia county court, March 23, 1832.

Moses Overton, adm'or. of Rhody Beadles, Nathaniel M. Motley, Parskill Motley, and Thomas E.

Jeter.

This day came the Plaintiff by his counsel and filed his bill against the defendants. The defendants Nathaniel M. Motley, and Parskill Motley, not having entered their appearance and given security according to the act of Assembly and the rules of this court; and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court, that they are not inhabitants of this commonwealth; on the motion of the plaintiff by his counsel, it is ordered that the said defendants do appear here on the fourth Thursday in June next, and appearance. here on the fourth Thursday in June next, and answers the plantiffs bill, and that a copy of this order, be forthwith inserted in some newspaper published in the city of Richmond, for two months successively, and that another copy be posted at the front door of the court house of this ounty, on two successive court days. A copy Teste, April 3. [107-w8w] JOHN T. LEIGH, c, ty, on two successive court di

April 3. [107—w8w]

OTICE.—Intending to visit some of the watering places in Virginia, the next season, for my health, I have determined to bring all my transactions, as well private as in my fiduciary character, to a speedy and final adjustment; I must therefore carneatly request all those indebted to me in either capacity, to make immediate payment, and those having claims against me are requested to present them, properly authenticated, as I am ready to discharge them.

THOMAS R. BARNES. discharge them. THOMAS I Richmond County, Virginia, April 28.

HE subscriber will be absent from Richmond until April; during his absence Mr. Lethbridge will atand to his professional business, in whose skill, as a Dentist, the public may with perfect safety place the most is plicit confidence.

P. HOUSTON. Jan. 5, 1832. 72-oawtf

R. BOHANNAN has amoved his office to the roomse over the store of Mr. Joshua Hallowell, four doors below the Bell Tavern, Feb. 29. [94—tf] ing with honest pride in such defence and in such companions.

1a the discharge of the public trusts confided to me, I claim to myself but the merit of pure intentions and indefatigable zeal: of the ability with which I have discharge of them, it rests with my fellow-citizens to judge. I cannot but be conscious that I have fallen far, far short of my views of public utility; and that for the inadequate services I have been enabled to render, I have been already overpair by the favor bestowed upon me by the nation at large, and more paticularly by my fellow-citizens of my native State.

The proceedings of the meeting embrace topics which have hererefore been fairly and frankly placed before my countrymen. The statements which I have made on those points never have been, and never will be impeached. Against gratuitous suspicion and unfounded clamor, a man's life and character must be his safe-guard; and I We reiterate the statement made by the meeting in this county on the first day of the last court, that South Western Virginia is almost unanimously opposed to "The American System," as it is called. We say the people there are generally opposed to the protection of any particular are generally opposed to We learn, says the Baltimore Patriot, that Capt. Isaac b of Edwin H. Peete, dec'd.

Copy Teste,

Chesterfield C. H. April 5th, 1832. 5
The parties interested in the execution of the order, are hereby notified that I have appointed the 2d day of July, 1832, to take the several accounts therein referred to, at which time, they are hereby required to attend before me at my office, at Chesterfield court-house, with the necessary accounts, vouchers, &c. to enable me to perform the duty required by said order.

LAWSON NUNNALLY, Comm'r.

be holden for the said court, at the clerk's office thereof, on the first Monday in July next, and answer the plain-tiff's bill, and give security for performing the decree of some newspaper printed in the city of Richmond, for two months successively, and posted at the front door of the court-house of the said county.

A Copy—Teste, JOHN G. BAPTIST, Clk.

May 4.

State of Illinois, vice Shadrac Bond, deceased.

New Ordnance Corps.—It will be recollected that at the present session of Congress a law has been passed, or active present session of Congress a law has been passed, or active present session of Congress as law has been passed, or active present session of Congress as law has been passed, or active present session of Congress as law has been passed, or active present session of Congress as law has been passed, or active present session of Congress as law has been passed, or active present session of Congress as law has been passed, or active present session of Congress as law has been passed, or active present session of Congress as law has been passed, or active present session of Congress as law has been passed, or active present session of Congress as law has been passed, or active present session of Congress as law has been passed, or active present session of Congress as law has been passed, or active present session of Congress as law has been passed, or active present session of Congress as law has been passed, or active present session of Congress as law has been passed, or active present session of Congress as law has been passed, or active present second as this count the present session of Congress as law has been passed, or active present session of Congress as law has been passed, or active present session of Congress as law has been passed, or active present session of Congress as law has been passed, or active present session of Congress as law has been passed, or active present session of Congress as law has been passed, or active present session of Congress as law has been passed, or active present session of Congress as law has been passed, or active present session of Congress as law has been passed, or active present session of Congress as law has been passed, or active present session of Congress as law has been passed, or active present session of Congress as law has been passed, or active present session of Congress as law has been passed,

Spring Meeting 1822 over the Central course,-

Seven subscribers, and closed.

A LADIES' CUP will also be run for; the day to be fix-l hereafter. J. M. SELDEN, Proprietor.

OR SALE - My tract of land, (containing one thousand seres) situated in Pand, (containing one thousand seres)