1 POUND AND PLOOD PURFIER—This areat discovery is bringing health and happiness to thousands. Rheumatism can be cured. More than one thousands. Rheumatism can be cured. More than one thousand cases of chronic rheumatism (of the worst form of this dreadful disease) have been cured permanently, during the past year by the use of a few bottles of this compound. Letters and certificates are daily being received from parties of high standing, many of whom have been criples for years, from the effects of this hitherto incurable disease, but who now adjurn that they are sound and well, made so by this great remedy, which is a vegetable spirit—an internal remedy—prepared for this one disease alone, and this it will cure in every case, either inflammationy, (acute.) of chronic form. Testimony of the most undoubted character will be cheerfully submitted to the inspection of chronic form. Testimony of the most unacounted con-racter will be cheerfully submitted to the inspection of all who may feel sufficiently interested to call on the proprietors, at their central Office, No. I, Barclay at., Astor House, New York. Chronic Rheumatism of Ten Years' Etanding.

New Opleans, March Si.
P Price, merchant, writes: "No language can describe the sufferings I have endured for the last ten years. Mine was Chronic Rheumatism in its worst forms. For the last three years I have scarcely been able to turn myself in bed during the night. My whole system was affected. I have had the best medical attendance which could be procured in the linest and South. And besides, I have used all other remedies of which I could hear, and have taken medicine enough to ruis the constitution of any man. At length I tried Mortimore's Rheamatic Campound, and it has performed a radical cure.

PIANOS.—P. H. TAYLOR is constantly receiving elegant and plain Fiavos from the popular makers, Nunns & Clark.

These instruments received the great gold medal price at the "World's Fair," London, 1851; and they have invariably received the first price at the American Institute Fairs in this country. They combine all the modern improvements with the Metallic Frame and patent over strings and are confidently recommended for succiness of tone and great durability, which quality will be appreciated in the country, where good tuners are seldom found.
