Another Quaker petition was presented to the Senate on the 30th of November. It is addressed to the Senate by the Hon. Edward Tompkins, of South Carolina, declaring, in his introduction, the proposition that the Senate had no right to pass any law protecting the introduction of slavery into the territory of Alabama. The Senate has also received a petition by the Hon. William H. Seward, of New York, enjoining the Senate to pass no law to protect slavery in the Territory of Washington. The Senate has also received a petition by the Hon. William H. Seward, of New York, enjoining the Senate to pass no law to protect slavery in the Territory of Washington.

The petition is presented to the Senate on the 30th of November. It is addressed to the Senate by the Hon. Edward Tompkins, of South Carolina, declaring, in his introduction, the proposition that the Senate had no right to pass any law protecting the introduction of slavery into the territory of Alabama. The Senate has also received a petition by the Hon. William H. Seward, of New York, enjoining the Senate to pass no law to protect slavery in the Territory of Washington. The Senate has also received a petition by the Hon. William H. Seward, of New York, enjoining the Senate to pass no law to protect slavery in the Territory of Washington.