Don't forget that Gordon is selling out at cost.

John Murro came up from Mingusville, Monday.

The freight-house has been thoroughly underplanned and is now ready to stand any raise of Quick creek, across which it is built.

Dave Brown and wife of Mingusville, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Tisdale to Medora. They returned home Tuesday evening.

Pierre Witaux and his brother were in town Monday. The latter, whose home is in France, is visiting Witaux at his Beaver Creek ranch.

W. J. Tomkins' daughter has returned from her Tongue river trip. She started to-day for her father's ranch, where she intends to spend the summer.

Jac. Boyd of Deadwood, came up from the Hills Monday and started back Tuesday with one of the M. S. & F. Co's stages. He will use it on a new line between Deadwood and the Carbonate camp.

Ed. Turner, Al. Uhlrich and George Myers, started yesterday morning for the O'Fallon creek round-up, which begins at Hockett's ranch on May 25. The two former represent the Ref. Car Co. and the latter, the Maltese Cross.

Will some one who knows explain whether it is grubs, heel-flies or what it is, that worry cattle now? A number have been noticed with no apparent reason will start on a dead run as though they had a job carrying the mail.

John Goodall, who was in the Black Hills country, selling horses for the Ref. Car Co., has been instructed by telegram to return as soon as possible, bringing with him the unsold horses. He will probably be here inside of a week.

Tom. Crisswell, a well-known and well-liked cowboy, who was a foreman for Driskill's outfit in the Black Hills country, died in Buckholts, Texas, recently, of paralysis. We also learn that a cowboy named Cox, died at the VVV ranch recently.

Vic. Smith went through Medora last Sunday, on his way to Billings, where he will make his headquarters. While on the platform here, he carefully wore a plug hat under his arm. He has been making a great reputation throughout the east this winter, exhibiting his skill in the use of the rifle.

Yesterday morning, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tisdale stepped from the cars and were soon busy accepting the congratulations of their numerous friends. Both are well known here and good-sports follow them from every side. The marriage ceremony took place at Mingusville Tuesday evening.
