MORE INFORMATION SECURED BY GAUNT

Finger Print Expert Procures Criminal Record Data in Three Cases.

Ray Gaunt, in charge of the county's finger print and investigation bureau, has received information on the criminal record of Oren Samuel Whiting, recently held by city police on a charge of vagrancy and released upon payment of a $100 fine.

On November 14, 1915, according to the record, he was arrested at Winnipeg for vagrancy. On May 7 of the same year he was charged with theft in a confidence game at St. Boniface, Manitoba, Canada and was ordered to leave the city. On a similar charge he was taken on May 28, 1915 at Winnipeg and sentenced to six months, this being suspended. On July 1, 1918, the record states, he was held at Colorado Springs, Colorado as a "con" man, but no disposition was made. Then on May 8, 1919 he was acquitted of a charge of conspiring to defraud at Vancouver, B. C.

It is alleged Whiting went under four different names: O. S. Whitting, O. S. Kniffe, O. S. Wright and W. R. Wright. Hansen Did Time. Mr. Gaunt has also received the information that Elmer Hansen, arrested by city police here on August 21 last and charged with improper conduct, being released in order that he might fight forest fires, is believed to be the same man who under the name of Elmer E. Hansen did a year's time in a Spokane jail on the charge that he contributed to the delinquency of a minor.

May Be Brewer's Son.

In the case of C. J. Martin, now charged with "moonshining" and out on bail awaiting his hearing, Mr. Gaunt says the chief of police at Spokane feels confident Martin is the son of Rhinehardt Martin, formerly manager of The Spokane Brewing and Malting company. Martin, when arrested, stated he was a bottler, and the Spokane chief informs Mr. Gaunt the son of the manager at one time worked at the Spokane plant as a bottler and shipping clerk.
