

CAMERA NEWS

GOVERNOR EDWARDS AND HIS FAMILY

Governor Edward I. Edwards, of New Jersey, who was elected on a "wet" platform. He is a strong Democratic Presidential Candidate, and his supporters are especially appealing to the voters against prohibition. Left to right: Gov. Edward I. Edwards, Wm. D. Edwards 3rd, Mrs. Edwards, Miss Elizabeth J. Edwards, Capt. Edward I. Edwards, Jr., and his wife.

MAN O'WAR, WINNER OF FAMOUS PREAKNESS

Man O'War and Jockey Kummer, after winning the famous Pimlico Preakness Race at Baltimore, Md. This three-year-old colt is a son of "Fair Play," and made the course in 1.51 3-5 minutes—beating by lengths "Upset" and "Wildair". The purse was $25,000.

A CITY OF TENTS

Until permanent quarters can be obtained for them, evicted tenants in Newark, N. J., are now residing in tents. The government furnished 200 heavy, waterproof army tents for the purpose, each big enough for three or four persons, and the city of Newark appropriated $25,000 to house the unfortunates. Streets on the plan of Military streets have been laid out, electric lights supplied, and the tent dwellers are comfortable and happy, and thoroughly enjoying the novel experience. Their food is cooked in a large community kitchen at a small charge.

THE PRINCE OF WALES AND STAFF ATTEND DIVINE SERVICE ON H. M. S. RENOWN

TRIBUTE TO NAVY'S HERO DEAD

The bodies of 138 American sailors and marines, which were interred in the Kerfentras military cemetery at Brest, France, reached New York May 18th, and the following day impressive funeral ceremonies were held at the Brooklyn Naval Base. Secretary Daniels paid a glowing tribute to the heroes who gave their lives for their country, and 200 sailors from the battleship Tennessee formed a guard of honor. The bodies will be sent to their homes in various parts of the country.

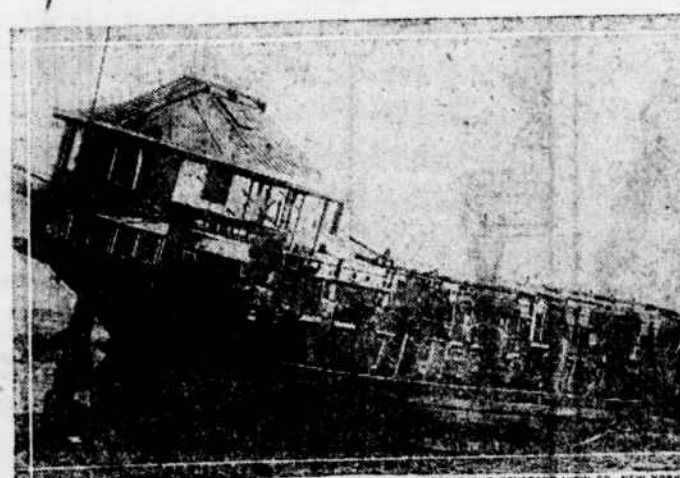

SAN FRANCISCO FROM THE AIR

The Democratic National Convention will be held here in June. The central building is the beautiful City Hall.

THEY "SCOOT" ABROAD

The motor-bicycle vehicle is all the rage abroad, especially in France, where "scooter" races have just been held at St. Cloud, which attracted great attention. Above is shown Mlle. Myrtho Savene, a French actress who took part in one of the races.

LAST OF THE WOODEN MEN OF WAR

The 62-year-old wooden frigate Richmond is to be burned for her metals, on the beach at Eastport. Once the pride of the U. S. Navy, she served in three wars. There is about 200 tons of high grade copper which is said to have been used in her construction. The Richmond was built in 1858, is 125 feet long, 43 feet wide, 17 feet deep and was formerly a full rigged warship with sixteen boilers.

AMERICAN SUFFRAGE LEADERS SAIL ON THE "ROYAL GEORGE"

To attend the convention of the Woman's Suffrage Alliance in Geneva. Left to right—front row: Mrs. Helen Ring Robinson, Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, Mrs. Josephus Daniels, wife of Secretary Daniels; Mrs. James W. Alger. Back row: Miss Jane Manners, Miss A. Robinson, Miss Constance Drexel, Miss Marjorie Sheeler and Miss Emma Hast.

ROYAL FLYERS IN CROSS CHANNEL FLIGHT

Recently the King and Queen, of Belgium, flew to England to attend the Curzon wedding, crossing the Channel in rain and mist. Above they are shown landing at Farnborough. The Queen is shaking hands with Lieut. Crombex, their pilot.

GENERAL PERSHING AND HIS SON WARREN

General John J. Pershing as an interested spectator in the performances of the A. E. F. horses at the National Capital Horse Show, and particularly in his individual entries "Jeff" and "John Bunny." With the General is his son Warren Pershing.

CAROLINE LOCKHART AND ANITA STEWART

Miss Lockhart, the noted writer, lives at Cody, Wyo. She recently visited California to make the acquaintance of Miss Stewart, the screen favorite. Photo taken at the latter's home. Two of Miss Lockhart's recent books are "The Fighting Shepherdess" and "Mc-Smith".