

OAKLANDS WIN COAST LEAGUE

Seraphs Win from Vernons by One Game to Good. Happy Hogan's Men in Bad Luck

ANGEL CITY IN RACE

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 30.—Oakland wins by a nose. Making a gallant finish, winning on an average of five games out of every six during the past month, the Tigers were able to finish within a game of the Oaks.

That was the finish of the 1912 Pacific Coast league season, whose pennant race was not ended until the last inning of the Oakland second game Sunday.

From a Southern California standpoint the race was a success, although neither local team finished in the lead. Both of the home squads were in the fight all the time. Vernon led in the race the greater part of the time, while the Angels also held down first position for a while. Both the Angels and the Tigers are figured to be better teams than Oakland, but adverse fortune which had handicapped them all year hit them hard in the closing weeks of the season.

Portland, Sacramento and San Francisco fans had no hopes after the first few weeks of the season. Their teams slumped immediately. Next year the managers of those teams will attempt to put the teams in the running. San Francisco now has a better team than it had earlier in the year. Jack Atkin has purchased men in the east for his Senators, while McCredie has a few new men ready for next year.

UTAH REPORT SAYS STATE FOR WILSON

Betting in Salt Lake Three to One in Favor of Democrat

Woodrow Wilson will carry the state of Utah, according to a Salt Lake City correspondent writing to a friend in this city. The correspondent stated that the prevailing sentiment in that state on the strength of the three leading candidates for president was in favor of the betting odds, which were three to one on Wilson to win against the field and even money that Roosevelt would have a larger popular vote in the state than Taft.

It was generally believed here that Taft would carry Utah, owing to the fact that the Mormons are said to be for him. A short time ago the president of the Mormon church gave out a statement supporting Taft and though he immediately followed it up with the statement that he was speaking only for himself, it was too late to destroy the first impression.

The correspondent states that one brokerage house has posted $1,500 to bet against $500 that Wilson will carry the state against the field and the same house offers even money that Roosevelt will receive a larger popular vote than Taft.

PROBLEM OF BACKWARD CHILD

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Some of the brightest minds of the nation assembled at the College of the City of New York today to consider the great problem of the mentally defective child and the saving of him for useful citizenship.

The conference is similar to the one held here last year and which attracted international attention at the time. Dr. P. P. Claxton, United States Commissioner of Education, is presiding over the three days' sessions. Other notable participants include Gardner C. Bassett of Johns Hopkins University, Prof. James E. Lough of New York University, Miss Mary E. Campbell of Chicago, and Dr. C. Ward Crompton, director of physical training in the New York public schools.

KANSAS FIGHTER WINS BY K. O. ROUTE

Ray Marshall.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Oct. 30.—Ray Marshall of Atchison, Kas., who fights Tony Caponi of Chicago here in a fifteen-round bout, October 31, is just nineteen years old, but has all the earmarks of a good pugilist.

Marshall has been in the fight game for two years and in that time has participated in twelve fights. Two of these were exhibitions, one being with Howard Morrow. Marshall won eight of the other ten bouts by the knockout route and the other two by decision.

His bout with Tony Caponi no doubt will be a test as to his real worth in the middleweight class. He fights at 155 pounds, but he and Caponi will weigh in at 160 pounds, the Chicago fighter refusing to make less.

While Marshall's home recently has been in Atchison his parents live in Kansas City. He is under the management of Budd Knapp, of St. Joseph, the veteran boxing fan and promoter, who also controls the business affairs of Freddie Daniels, a lightweight.

WESTERN UNION BOY MADE TO QUIT JOB

Youth's Mother Said to Have Made Affidavit That Her Son Was 16 Years Old

The investigation of an affidavit of age, made by the mother of Louis Brown, a Western Union messenger boy, Mrs. Alice Brown, led to the resignation of the boy yesterday by the telephone company. The investigation was made by Truant Officer Stewart, and the data which he secured will be turned over to the county attorney to prosecute the case if he sees fit.

The truant officer says that Mrs. Brown, October 20, made affidavit that her son, Louis Brown, was 7 years old, and therefore not affected by the new school law providing for compulsory attendance at school of children between eight and sixteen years.

The Browns came to the city recently from Portland, Oregon and the school authorities wrote to the authorities at Portland to confirm the statement of the affidavit. Information was returned to the effect that at the close of school, June 29, 1912, Louis Brown was 15 years and 4 months old.

Upon being shown this information the Western Union immediately cleared its skirts by discharging the boy from their employ. The making of a false affidavit is made a misdemeanor under the law and the evidence obtained by the truant officer will be turned over to the county attorney.

Imprisoned Tailor Strikes.
The latest Australian strike is one of the Gilbertian order. A prisoner in Fremantle prison, a tailor by trade, refused to work on the ground that it would be contrary to his principles as a trade unionist. He sent a letter to the Tailors' union officially notifying it of his action, but that body expressed neither sympathy nor disapproval, preferring silence.

Documentary Evidence.
The geography class was in session. One small pupil astonished the class by stating that in a certain section of South America there were talking monkeys. When the teacher questioned the statement, the youngster opened his geography and triumphantly read: "This region is inhabited by a species of monkey, properly speaking, says."—The Delineator.

COL. ROOSEVELT GIVES SPEECH

Notwithstanding His Recent Wound from Assassin's Bullet Rough Rider Talks to 30,000

HE MAKES BIG HIT

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Former President Roosevelt, notwithstanding his weak condition from the effects of the bullet sent into him last week by John Schrank, at Milwaukee, tonight addressed a crowd of more than 30,000 hearers at Madison Square Garden. Nearly every word he uttered was cheered to the echo.

The candidate of the Bull Moose for president showed no evidence of weakness but he kept up until his last word was uttered and then he left hurriedly for Oyster Bay.

Battle for Human Rights.
"Friends, perhaps once in a generation; perhaps not so often, there comes a chance for the people of a country to play their part wisely and fearlessly in some great battles of the age—long warfare for human rights. To our fathers the chance came in the mighty days of Abraham Lincoln, of the man who thought and toiled and suffered for the people with sad patience and kindly endeavor. To our forefathers the chance came in the troubled years that stretched from the time when the first continental congress gathered to the time when Washington was inaugurated as first president of the republic."

Task is Lighter One.
"To us, in our turn, the chance has now come to stand for liberty and righteousness as in their day those dead men stood for liberty and righteousness. Our task is not so great as theirs. Yet it is well nigh as important. Our task is to profit by the lessons of the past and to check in time the evils that grow around us, lest our failure to do so may cause dreadful disaster to the people. We must not sit supine and helpless. We must not permit the brutal selfishness of arrogance and the brutal selfishness of envy each to run unchecked in its evil course. If we do so then some day smoldering hatred will suddenly kindle into a consuming flame, and either we or our children will be called on to face a crisis as grim as any which this republic has ever seen."

Must Be Wise in Time.
"It is our business to show that nineteenth-century wisdom consists in being wise in time. We are to our nation if we let matters drift. If in our industrial and political life we let an unchecked and utterly selfish individualistic materialism riot to its appointed end, that end would be widespread disaster, for it would mean that our people would be sundered by those dreadful lines of division which are drawn when the selfish greed of the 'haves' is set over against the selfish greed of the 'have-nots.' There is but one way to prevent such a division and that is to forestall it by the kind of a movement in which we are now engaged."

Man's Right Paramount.
"Our movement is one of resolute insistence upon the rights, and full acknowledgment of the duties of every man and every woman within this great land of ours. We are against the forces of evil, and the weapons we use are the weapons of right. We do not set greed against greed, or hatred against hatred. Our creed is one that bids us be just to all; to feel sympathy for all and to strive for an understanding of the needs of all. Our purpose is to smile down wrong. But toward those who have done the wrong, we feel only the kindest charity that is compatible with causing the wrong to cease."

"We preach hatred to no man, and the spirit in which we work is as far removed from vindictiveness as from weakness. We are resolute to do away with the evil, and we intend to proceed with such wise and cautious sanity as will cause the very minimum of disturbance that is compatible with achieving our purpose. Do not forget, friends, that we are not proposing to substitute law for character. We are merely proposing to buttress character. We are fully recognizing that as has been true in the past, so it is true now, and ever will be true, that the prime factor in each man or woman's success must normally be that man or woman's own character—character, the sum of many qualities, but above all, of the qualities of honesty, of courage and of common sense. Nothing will avail a nation if there is not the right type of character among the average men and women, the plain people, the hard working, decent-living, right-thinking people who make up the great bulk of our citizenship. I know my countrymen."

"Where in order to obtain them it is necessary to invoke the power of the nation, then we shall invoke to its uttermost limits that mighty power. We are for liberty. But we are for the liberty of the oppressed, and not for the liberty of the oppressor to oppress the weak and to bind burdens on the shoulders of the heavy-laden. It is idle to ask us not to exercise the power of the government when only by the power of the government can we curb the greed that sits in high places; when only by the exercise of the government can we exalt the lowly and give heart to the humble and the down-trodden. We care for facts, and not for formulas. We care for deeds, and not for words. We recognize no sacred right of oppression. We recognize no divine right to work injustice. We stand for the constitution. We recognize that one of its most useful functions is the protection of property. But we will not consent to make of the constitution a fetish for the protection of fossilized wrong."

CAMERON FORCED TO PAY REBELS $5,000

Salazar Takes $2,500 Which Cattleman Had with Him to Pay for Stock

EL PASO, Oct. 30.—John Cameron's liberty cost him $10,000 Mexican money. In addition to the 5000 pesos which was sent to Salazar on a special train over the Mexican North Western Cameron was forced to pay 5000 pesos in addition which he had with him to pay for the cattle he had done to Mexico to purchase.

Mr. Cameron arrived from Mexico by way of Columbus, N. M., Monday night, after being away from his office in El Paso two weeks. He was taken prisoner on October 13, after leaving El Paso to go to Pearson to purchase cattle.

Held By Rebels.
He was held by the rebels for ransom until the night of October 15, when he was given his liberty upon the payment of the ransom of 10,000 pesos to Salazar.

Mr. Cameron says he was well treated during the time he was held, except when Salazar was drinking heavily, he fell against Cameron with his gun, striking him on the head. This, Mr. Cameron believes was not intentional and aside from that, he was well treated by the rebels, he says.

Boone Brothers Robbed.
J. J. and T. W. Boone, of 2320 Myrtle avenue, also arrived Monday night after having been shaken down by Roque Gomez and 15 rebels under him for 355 pesos. They were captured 25 miles north of Casas Grandes by the rebels and held for ransom. J. J. Boone was held while his brother was to go to Casas Grandes and get the money demanded by the rebels.

Boone was told that if his brother failed to return he would be shot like a dog. A compromise was finally agreed upon and Gomez was given a check for 352 pesos, which Mr. Boone says he will honor when it is presented for payment, as he wishes to return to Mexico for more cattle and does not wish to get in bad with the rebels.

SON GIVES MOTHER AWAY AS BRIDE

Mrs. Emma Holland Becomes Wife of J. H. Warne Well Known Miner of Bisbee

The conditions of the "giving away" ceremony at the wedding of Mrs. Emma Holland to James Henry Warne, at the home of Mrs. Holland on Warren Hill, Tombstone canyon, Saturday evening were instead of the parent giving the bride away, the son in this instance, William Holland, gave the bride, his mother, away.

The wedding united two of the best known members of the English colony in the city, and it is said, terminated a romance that began years ago in their native land of Cornwall, England. Mr. Warne is a well known mining man and is one of the best drillers in the west, having drilled against many champions of the steel and hammer.

Popularity Attested.
Their popularity was splendidly attested by the numerous and costly presents they received from their friends, over a hundred of whom attended the wedding. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. Creighton Spencer. Mr. Arthur Long attended Mr. Warne as best man and the bride's maids were Mrs. Arthur Long and Miss Nicholas. Little Miss Mona Nicholas was ring bearer. The maids and the little ring bearer were presented with gold bangles by the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Warne left Monday morning for Los Angeles and other California towns where they will spend their honeymoon.

To those ordering Arizona goods for October 15th, we express our regrets at delay, but have anxiously watched the freight office for days, as the arrival of bill of lading warranted us to expect a prompt delivery. Will lose no time in reaching you when they arrive.
