No. 2 of March 3, 1879.

Established October 5, 1889.

By Henry F. Donovan.

The Chicago Eagle numbers among its subscribers the most influential, most prosperous and most respected men in Chicago. It reaches nearly every man of standing in the community and all men who are moulders of public opinion or directors of public affairs. It is the guide, mentor and friend of every political leader of every shade of opinion. It is read by Government, State, County and City officials. It is read by a big percentage of the legal fraternity, including bench and bar. It is the favorite of Chicago's leading business men. It reaches all classes in their homes. It is read by the Fire Department. It is read by the Police Department. It is in every public office and every public library. It is not controlled by any cheap, cheeky or crooked advertising agency. In the twenty years of its existence it has managed to build up a large circulation and great business without the aid of professional advertising sharks. That is why it is so independent, so popular and so strong. The Chicago Eagle is one paper that has never depended upon advertising agents for a circulation. It has one of its own.

Now for the big campaign.

The judges of the Municipal Court are municipal officers and should be elected in the spring at municipal elections instead of in the fall at county elections. The county ticket in the fall is too big entirely and loading it down with the municipal judges is entirely unnecessary. The election of municipal judges in the spring would insure the selection of a better class of men than have been chosen for this office as a rule, because the ticket would be smaller and the voter would have a better chance to make an intelligent choice.

Edward Osgood Brown is a winner for Circuit Court Judge. His grand record before is well known to the people and his plurality will be a large one next November.

John J. Bradley, the well known and highly respected real estate man and former Alderman, is looked upon by many as the right man for the Democrats to nominate for City Treasurer next spring.

William Kolacek is giving the people of the West Side an honest and clean administration as President of the West Park Board. He is a progressive and successful business man who is looking out at all times for the best interests of the people.

Former United States Senator, Albert J. Hopkins holds the confidence and admiration of all Illinoisans.

Peter Bartsen's candidacy for President of the County Board is steadily growing in strength.

Thomas Taylor, Jr., the popular and well known lawyer and Master-in-Chancery, is the right man to place on the Superior Court bench.

Every one of County Clerk Joseph F. Haas' big army of friends are out to have him re-elected by a record breaking plurality.

No lawyer in Chicago stands higher in the estimation of the bench and bar than Homer E. Tinsman.

Albert G. Wheeler commands the confidence and highest esteem of Chicago's leading financiers and business men.

William Ritchie, the distinguished and successful attorney, enjoys a widespread popularity in Chicago which has been well earned by his brilliant and honorable career.

Democrats all over the county are rallying to the support of William L. O'Connell's candidacy for County Treasurer.

No man on either ticket enjoys a more widespread popularity among the party workers, than does John E. Owens, Democratic candidate for County Judge.

James S. Hopkins the popular and well known attorney, and Master-in-Chancery, would make a splendid judge.

George M. Welchelt, the popular young attorney and Twenty-fifth ward Republican, is out working hard for the success of the whole Republican County ticket.

Clyde A. Morrison, the popular assistant City Attorney has made a record as a public official and a lawyer that he can at all times point to with pride.

Clayton E. Crafts, the able lawyer and leading Democrat, enjoys a well earned popularity all over Chicago.

Chicago never had an abler, hard-working or more popular public official than City Attorney John R. Caverly.

As a business man, a political leader and a citizen, Harry Hildreth, Jr., is liked and respected by all who know him.

Henry J. Kolze, the popular former County Commissioner, is, as usual, working hard for the success of the Republican ticket.

Michael McInerney, the popular and fearless Thirtieth ward alderman, will be found as usual this fall hustling around helping to land a big vote for the whole Democratic ticket.

Judge Kieckham Scanlan is making one of the best judges ever on the Circuit Court bench. He is an honest, conscientious and fearless judge.

Francis D. Connery has served the people well as City Clerk. A better man never held that position.

Stillman B. Jamieson's splendid record as a lawyer and master-in-chancery, has gained for him a high place in the estimation of both bench and bar.

Robert R. Jampolis has made a fine record as assistant Corporation Counsel, something that every one of his big army of friends expected he would make.

A. R. Porter continues to serve the people in an able and painstaking manner as Clerk of the Appellate Court. He is a good public official.

Andrew J. Ryan has reached a position of prominence and influence as a citizen, lawyer and politician. He is a Democrat. The party is proud of the fact.

Mr. Ryan is a man of intellectual brilliancy, simple pure honesty, sound convictions and splendid energy. He has carved his way amidst the powerful intellectual forces of the Chicago bar to a recognized standing of influence in his profession. Nature bountifully endowed him with the qualifications that combine to make the successful lawyer. Possessed of an analytical mind and one that is readily receptive and retentive of the fundamental principles and intricacies of the law; gifted with a spirit of devotion to details; quick to comprehend even the most subtle problems and logical in his conclusions; fearless in his duty; he is indeed a born lawyer. Mr. Ryan is a man of many friends. His popularity is not confined to one party, race or creed. He is a universal favorite, and made one of the best City Attorneys that Chicago ever had.

A resident of Chicago since 1880, and for years the credit man and financial representative of the well-known music house of Lyon & Healy, he gave up a lucrative position to fulfill his long-cherished ambition of devoting his talents and energies to the pursuit of law.

He is a leading member and officer in many fraternal and benevolent societies, among them being the Royal Arcanum, Royal League, Knights of Columbus and other kindred societies, where his advice and experience have always been at the command of the members in furthering the interests of these organizations. He was attorney for the West Town Board in 1894, and director of the Chicago Public Library. He resides at 1044 Jackson boulevard.

Mr. Ryan is essentially a self-made man, who has acquired his present high standing at the Chicago bar by his force of character and those qualities which in any sphere of life command success.

His success in his profession has been brilliant and enduring. He is the legal adviser of many of the largest interests in this city, particularly among the music, cooperage, electric and tanning industries.

One of the strongest and most reliable banking institutions in Chicago is the South Side State Bank, at Cottage Grove avenue and 43d street. This bank, which has a capital of $200,000, deserves the support of business men and residents especially of the South Side, who desire to place their earnings in a safe place. The bank has for directors such men of standing in the community as Isaac N. Powell, George B. Robbins, Nate R. Salisbury, C. H. Rundie, Oscar F. Schmidt and John Cheshire. It has for president H. W. Mahon, one of the best known and most highly respected bankers in Chicago. Mr. Mahon has been in the banking business for fifteen years and his reputation for safe and conservative banking methods is well known.

The nomination of Edward Osgood Brown for the vacancy on the Circuit Court bench by the Democrats will prove a popular one all over Chicago and Cook county.

Albert J. Hopkins was the choice of the people of Illinois for United States Senator, as that choice was fully expressed at a fair primary. His election was prevented by the very hypocrites who are now yelling for the adoption of the "Oregon plan." Scratch a reformer and find a crook.

County Clerk Joseph F. Haas is deservedly popular all over the county, and his reelection by a record-breaking plurality looks certain.

Chauncey Dewey is the straightforward and fearless kind of a political leader that has behind him all the time the rank and file of the party, and all other good citizens as well.

No official in Cook County enjoys a more widespread popularity than does County Clerk Joseph F. Haas.

Following is a list of the offices to be filled next fall:

Popular Master-in-Chancery, Federal Court.

straightforward man, who is looking out at all times for the best interests of the people. The west parks were never in a better condition than they are now.

Peter Bartsen gained for himself a widespread popularity as building commissioner under Mayor Dunne, and he is daily receiving hearty assurances of support from all over the county in his campaign for president of the county board on the democratic ticket. That he is a vote getter goes without saying, and the whole county ticket will be strengthened by his nomination.

Ernest J. Magerstadt has made the splendid record as City Collector that every one of his big host of friends and admirers expected he would make.

Col. James Hamilton Lewis can always feel certain that he has the loyal backing of every Chicago Democrat for any position he may aspire to.

George M. Welchelt, the able and well liked young lawyer, is one of the most active leaders in the Republican organization of Lake View.

Judson F. Going is one of the most conscientious as well as one of the ablest members of the Municipal Court of Chicago. He is painstaking and studious and stands well with the bench and bar as well as with the public.

Clyde A. Morrison, the popular assistant city attorney, is one of the most active leaders in the Republican organization.

Judge Charles S. Cutting's honest and fearless record on the Probate Court bench has earned for him the confidence and admiration of everybody, irrespective of party affiliations.

Our memory carries us back to days when some of the advocates of the "Corrupt Practices Act" were denounced publicly in Chicago for some very corrupt political practices themselves.

The Democrats are going to make a hard fight to reduce the Republican majority in the County towns of this County.

Peter Bartsen's campaign for President of the County Board will be an aggressive one from the start.

That ordinance consolidating the Chicago railways and Consolidated Traction Company ought to be beaten in its present form.

The big army of friends of Joseph F. Haas are out working like Trojans for the re-election of the popular county clerk by a record breaking plurality.

John Golombiewski, the well liked former alderman from the Twentieth ward, is one of the hardest working and most aggressive Republican leaders in the Town of Lake.

What "reform" has accomplished to date: Secured the passage of a primary law which takes all powers out of the hands of the voters and placing the naming of candidates in the hands of a few men.

No lawyer in Cook County is better fitted for a seat on the Superior Court bench than Thomas Taylor, Jr. His nomination by the Republicans on September 15 will result in his election next November.

People who are howling for an income tax will change their tune if they get one. The rich will escape as usual, by perjury, while the poor will have to pay.

Andrew J. Graham's mayoralty boom is growing with great rapidity, and the popular West Side banker is getting stronger every day.

Honest Peter Bartsen deserves your vote for president of the county board.

Joseph F. Haas' good record as county clerk coupled with his widespread popularity, makes his candidacy for re-election a tower of strength to the whole Republican county ticket.

William H. Weber's able and hard-working record as secretary of the Republican County Central Committee has made him deservedly popular with every Republican in the county.

Loop platforms are too short.

The Democrats chose a deservedly well liked man when they slated former City Attorney John E. Owens for County Judge.

A good, honest and fearless judge like Charles S. Cutting, judge of the probate court, will not experience much difficulty in being reelected.

Homer E. Tinsman, the popular and well known lawyer and former alderman, would serve the people well on the bench.

The election of Thomas Taylor, Jr., as judge of the superior court will place on that bench an able, brilliant and honest judge.

An outer harbor should be built.

Edward Osgood Brown is known all over Cook County and his vote for Circuit Court Judge promises to be one of the largest ever cast for a candidate.

Joseph F. Haas' splendid record as County Clerk makes his candidacy for re-election a tower of strength to the whole Republican ticket.

Peter Bartsen, as President of the County Board, will be looking after the people's interests all the time and his nomination by the Democrats will prove popular all over the county.

Democrats all over the county are enthusiastic over William L. O'Connell's candidacy for County Treasurer.

William Ritchie stands in the front ranks of Chicago's ablest lawyers and most highly respected citizens.

Former United States Senator Albert J. Hopkins continues to hold the confidence and high esteem of all Illinoisans.

Arthur W. Fulton, the popular Alderman from the Thirtieth Ward, will be found, as usual this fall working hard for the success of the whole Republican ticket.

One of the ablest, hardest working and most painstaking men on the Municipal Court bench, is Judge Edward A. Dicker.

Alderman George F. Harding, Jr., will take an active part in the big campaign now opened up. Alderman Harding is one of the most popular Republican leaders in the city.

Charles B. Pavlicek is making a splendid record as attorney for the West Park Board.

What pull has the Gamewell Fire Alarm Company at the city hall? It certainly gets an enormous price for its fire boxes and other apparatus.

Popular Joseph Haas will run like a scared deer for re-election as County Clerk next November.

No lawyer in Chicago stands higher in the estimation of the bar and for the people in general than does William Ritchie.

Edward Osgood Brown's candidacy for the vacancy on the Circuit Court bench is growing stronger every day.

John J. Bradley would make a splendid city treasurer.

William F. Quinn, the well known Twenty-fifth Ward Democratic leader and Father of Edgewater, is working hard for Democratic success this fall.

Honest Peter Bartsen can be depended upon to serve the people well as President of the County Board.

Thomas Taylor, Jr., is one of the ablest and most highly esteemed lawyers in Cook County and his election as Superior Court Judge will place on that bench one of the best fitted men ever put there.

No man stands higher in the business and financial world of Chicago than does Albert G. Wheeler.

Homer E. Tinsman is a man in whom Chicago is proud to claim as that approaches it in accuracy, completeness and carefulness of detail. It is invaluable.

Benjamin F. Ritchie has won the high place he holds as a lawyer by his force of character, natural ability and splendid energy.

John R. Caverly has proven by his record as City Attorney that he has

ANDREW J. RYAN.
Prominent Attorney and Public Spirited Citizen.

one of her most successful lawyers and best known citizens.

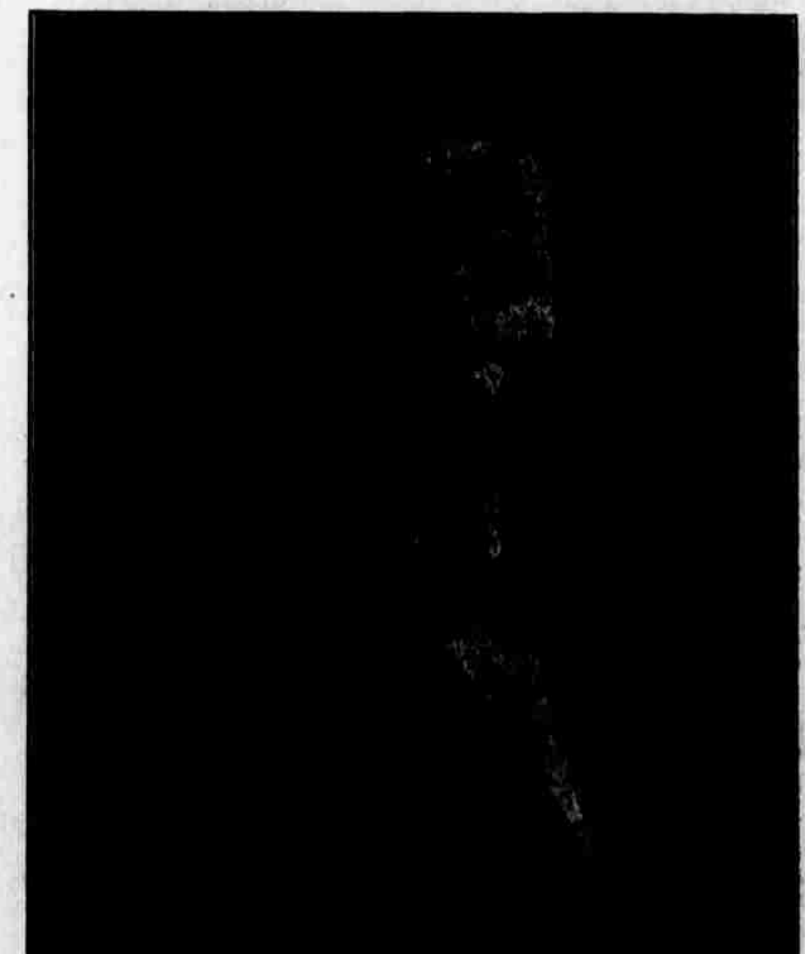

James S. Hopkins deserves the popularity he enjoys in Chicago. For a lawyer and a citizen his record is a clean and honorable one.

Webster's New International dictionary is a work of art as well as the greatest dictionary in one volume ever published. There is no other volume been working all the time in the interests of the people. He deserves his widespread popularity.

Fred W. Blocki made one of the best City Treasurers Chicago ever had, and he would make equally as good a Mayor.

The few vessels that go up the Chicago River now days are not numerous enough to justify the bridge nuisance.
