The Colonel Says:

It is claimed, sub, that marital trouble will cease entirely when a separation is adopted which permits a man to keep his wife but gives him an absolute divorce from her relatives. Be that as it may, 'tis true that happiness depends greatly on appreciating virtue to such an extent as to shut out all disturbing influences. With me, sub, no arguments—no blandishments can win me from my favorite—
