COL. LOWDEN IN FIELD

Popular Owner of Sinissippi Farm Announces Himself in Race for Governor.

Chicago, April 12, 1916. At the state fair last September I stated publicly that if the sentiment favorable to my candidacy, which then existed, should continue, I would at the proper time be a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor. According to the information which I have obtained from different parts of the state, this sentiment has continued, and I have decided to become candidate.

I shall make a vigorous, state-wide campaign, but it will be a fair cam-Ave.

pal Pier Food Contract.

The harbor board awarded the con tract for supplying all foods, beverages, tobacco, confections, novelties flowers and publications at the mu-of the gross receipts, and in return supplies all the tables, chairs and electric lighting fixtures. No intoxicating liquors may be sold, and the conces sionaire agrees at all times to furnish "the best quality of food, beverages and other vending articles, and to serve them satisfactorily." Uniformed employes, approved by the harbor board, also must be hired.

JOB HOLDERS UNION

It Shuts Out Germans, Poles, Bohemians, and Other Big Voting Units, and Yet Expects Their Help.

There is not a German,

Bohemian. Italian. Scandinavian. Hungarian,

Russian, or any representative o any other big foreign nationality in Chicago's population among the three principal office holders who have big patronage jobs in the County Building and whose terms expire this year. And yet the Democratic party calls *self cosmopolitan.

"Family first" appears to be it not' this year. The Germans, Poles, Russians, Bo hemiars, Italians and others are needel at the polls to ratify the desires of the Job Holders' Union. That is all.

Alderman Capitain Starts the Ball Rolling for Fewer Aldermen and Less Wards.

> Before the council judiciary committee Ald. Henry D. Capitain urged the preparation of legislation to redistrict the city into fifty wards, allowing one alderman from each ward. He also suggested that a city manager should be appointed by the city council, thus practically eliminating the office of mayor. The subject matter was referred to a sub-committee com-posed of Ald.
