

COLONEL AUGUST W. MILLER,
Popular Clerk of the Circuit Court.

One of the best men named for election to the municipal court bench November 7, next, is Alderman John H. Lyle. He has made a fine record in public life. Ald. Lyle was elected to legislature in 1914; re-elected in 1916; elected alderman in 1918; re-elected in 1920.

The Legislative Voters' League said:

"John H. Lyle, lawyer, is an intelligent and vigorous young man, well qualified for legislative work, did good work as Chairman Civil Service Committee, made good fight for Sanitary District new power plant bill (introduced by Lyle) to give Chicago cheaper lighting. Alderman John H. Lyle is an active, well educated, likable young man who has practiced law 16 years and built up a good law firm, who has served 8 years in public office and whose record has been highly commended by all who believe in good government, because of his fearless and successful fight for enforcement of all law. He will make a good judge."

Charles Krutchoff always made good public record.

Charles Center Case, the well known and able lawyer would make a fine judge of the Superior Court.

Judge Frank Johnston Jr. is making a good record on the Circuit bench.

Joseph F. Haas has always made a good public record. He is a man of the people.

Ben J. Short, the popular lawyer, would make a great judge.

E. J. RICE,
Highly Respected Member of the Chicago Bar.

William J. Healy is growing in strength as a Republican Candidate for Mayor.

People who patronize the Brevoort Hotel always patronize it again.

Gustave A. Munch, highly respected president of the American Developing Company, who is popular with everybody in public life, is a writer, a ball player, a hunter, a fisherman and a business man who always keeps his word.
