It pays to do right and it costs to do wrong.

True friendship is just as good as true love.

When you do the best you can, no more can be expected of you.

Cold weather brings suffering, just as warm weather often brings disease.

Intelligent people will secure an education and learn how to save their own money.

Having an aim in life is half the struggle. Still, many young people have no aim in life.

Promises are all right if they are kept and they are all wrong, if they are not kept.

Crying is all right for children, but it is mighty poor business for grown folks.

Some people believe that they can reach Heaven by the short route, but they are doomed to disappointment.

Deception has been practiced through all ages and among all peoples, but never more than it is at the present time.

Cloudy days are dispiriting and sun-shiny days cheering, but some people carry long faces, during all kinds of weather.

People, who are too tender-hearted and bashful are not fitted for the warfare of the life. They move by "other men's breath."

The Disarmament Conference at Washington is reaching a stage where most of the observers of its actions are smiling.

It costs much money to run business, but most people think that the longer they delay pay day, the better the business will thrive.

Some people are just beginning to talk about the Golden Rule. It has been in discard for some time among the nations of the earth.

The Bible is supposed to be the foundation of all churches, but some of them have gotten off that foundation some time ago.

Meditating in a grave-yard is mighty unpleasant business. It has a tendency to make one feel that it will not be long before they get there,—on the inside.

The "Lily Whites" are endeavoring to figure out how it happened. They could see the gubernatorial mansion in the distance, but were unfortunate enough not to get there.

God continues to help the colored folks and when some of the white folks join in the movement, the success of this class of people on earth is secure.

The disappearing colored vote, which was cast November 8th, 1921 seems to be showing up on Governor-elect E. Lee Trinkle's side of the column and we are satisfied.

President King of Liberia sailed for home on a United States battleship, but he left that five million dollar loan behind. It is hoped that the Congress of the United States will extend the aid requested.

Colored folks, let us use temperate language and do all we can to win the good opinion of the better class of white folks, wherever this can be done without compromising our manhood or sacrificing any fundamental principles.

The St. Paul Appeal is waging a great fight in behalf of fundamental principles and while it may not see the full results of its efforts either today or tomorrow, success must necessarily crown its efforts. There are so few leaders now, either white or colored, who are far-seeing enough to see and understand this that it is highly gratifying to note the flag of liberty being carried aloft by men who face scorn and ridicule and who defy the powers of evil in their demand for the triumph of fundamental right principles.

THE TROUBLE IN IRELAND.

Ireland expects absolute independence and is steadily contending for it, with nearly one half of this same island objecting to absolute independence. Should Great Britain grant the demands of the lower half, it will have civil war at its own doors and in this war it will soon be embroiled. The last condition will be worse than the first. To get all that it demands, the Sinn Fein organization must beat England, better known as Great Britain. Then it must subjugate Ulster.

This is the Irish problem and time alone can bring about a solution. The support, extended by the Irish in this country is really the backbone of the insurrection and it may be that we shall be ultimately be drawn into the contest. Of course, the religion of Jesus Christ affords a way out and an observation of its teachings would bring peace, but these people use religion for Sunday purposes and find parts of it very comforting when they do not conflict with their ideas and notions.

THE CONFIRMATION OF MR. JOHNSON.

The action of the United States Senate in rejecting the nomination of Hon. Henry Lincoln Johnson, of Georgia as Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia will not set well "up on the stomachs" of the colored people of these United States. The announcement of Senators Watson and Harris, rock-ribbed Democrats of Georgia that the confirmation of the nominee would be personally objectionable to them will make the failure to confirm all the more objectionable to the conservative people of the United States inasmuch as the appointment does not come within the purview of these senators. It is not within the limits of the State of Georgia, which State they represent.

Mr. Johnson has held the office before with credit to himself and with satisfaction to the people of the District of Columbia. It is the duty of the Republican leaders to see to it that the nominee is confirmed and we hope that President Warren G. Harding will renominate him and insist upon his confirmation. Certainly, if a subcommittee of the Senate found his nomination all right and then the full committee, there can be no legitimate excuse for his rejection. We are hoping that his rejection is only temporary and that in the end he may be the Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia.

THE IRISH SITUATION.

It is stated that the Irish and the British are on the verge of a resumption of hostilities. We have never seen any reason for the cessation of these activities, with two extremists in action, neither one of which will yield until the other is destroyed. We have no record in the history of the world where any nation has ever achieved its complete independence until one or the other had been vanquished by a force of arms. Ireland or at least the southern part of it is full of fight. The northern part is full of fight too, but it is against its own "flesh and blood."

If Great Britain grants complete independence to Ireland as is demanded by the southern part, it will be only to have a civil war at its doors, with the United States by the under-ground route furnishing arms to southern Ireland and Great Britain by the under-ground route furnishing arms to northern Ireland. It is an open question as to whether or not the two countries might not be openly drawn into the conflict.

Northern Ireland is Protestant and southern Ireland is Roman Catholic and religion will enter into the conflict promising to furnish one of the bloodiest periods in the history of civilization.

The world is war-weary, but these people are panting for more war with all of its horrors. Great Britain is simply gaining time by delay after delay with the hope that some way out may be found. It may be that Great Britain as a last resort will accord complete independence to the southern part of Ireland, which part refuses to take the oath of allegiance to the crown or it may be that it may decide to let the two contending parties "fight in their own fat" and fight it out amongst themselves. In either event, it "spells trouble" for Great Britain.

An yet all of these people profess a faith in the Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ and on Christmas will offer prayers and profess allegiance to the Prince of Peace. O, the hypocrisy of it!

Y. W. C. A. NOTES.

"God's Opportunity in the present Crisis" was the subject of a very thoughtful and forceful address by Mr. J. R. Henderson at Vesper Services on Sunday afternoon. Mr. Henderson reviewed briefly the Disarmament Conference and showed how God had at his disposal the heads of the governments now gathered in Washington, that it was God's opportunity if He so willed to use these minds to lead the world out. That the time was now ripe for the foundation of world peace and security to be laid. But before this can be done a disarmament must take place in the hearts of men. Enmity and race hatred must be cast out. "If nothing tangible is done at this Conference then we can but become skeptical about the powers of might and right." The debt by Misses Julia and Martha Lewis and the violin solo by Mr. Thomas Barrett were excellently rendered and were very much enjoyed. Dr. Bessie Sharpe presided.

Mr. W. M. Banks will be the speaker at Vespers on Sunday afternoon. Special musical numbers will be rendered. The program is being arranged by Miss Mildred Johnson.

Miss Belee Boyd is the new adviser of the Coronation Corps. This group of young girls are delighted to have Miss Boyd with them and are planning for very pleasant and delightful times. Miss Julia Lewis has also volunteered for Club Work. The various clubs are planning to send Xmas gifts to Chin Lee, Arizona to the Navajo Indians and to Cherokee, N. C., to the Cherokee. The South Atlantic Girl Reserves are pledged to give these little folks a Merry Xmas and so our girls are going to do their part.

Miss Adelaide Smith, Girls Work Secretary from Columbia, S. C., and Miss Janie Cunningham from Petersburg were guests at the "Y" during the past week.

day I gazed upon the dusty, sandy waste. Thursday morning we arrived at Ogden and a short time thereafter at Salt Lake City on time. The train time was so slow that the one hour and forty minutes we had lost was readily made up. That train stopped at every station and I had plenty of time for both observation and meditation. I did much of both. I was to reach Denver at 12:45 the next day. I was now on the Denver and Rio Grande line. The train was to cross the Rocky Mountain. I was told that the road had much trouble with washouts and could not make much time. Mr. Williams had returned to Oakland California from Sparks Nevada.

A Comprehensive Publication for the Information of Bankers.

For the information of bankers business men and the public generally the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond, has issued an authoritative and comprehensive little book on the organization and operation of the Federal Reserve System. It answers many practical questions regarding the new banking law and meets a number of objections raised by persons not fully cognizant of the purpose and workings of the system.

Such matters as mobilized credit, reserve accounts, elastic currency, rediscounts, par collections, and the immediate credit symbol are clearly and succinctly explained. The book further shows in non-technical language the benefits which have accrued to the country as a result of the establishment of the Federal Reserve System. Among these are listed increased financial security, more generous credit accommodations, elasticity of currency from rediscounts, an easier system for the transfer of funds, mobilization of reserves when and where needed, economy of time and money in check collection, and greater confidence of the public.

The book, entitled "Questions and Answers on the Federal Reserve System," takes up the general plan of the organization of the Federal Reserve System and shows how banking institutions may attain membership. The functions of the Federal Reserve Bank are then described. This chapter goes into questions of mobilization of reserves, the elasticity of currency, rediscounts, and eligible paper, and being followed by a discussion of the reserves of member banks, collections transfers and currency shipments. State bank and trust company membership, etc.

Member banks will find the book of interest since it is designed to make clearer many points regarding the operation of the Federal Reserve act; to explain the manifold advantages and privileges of membership; to the business man, generally it will prove worth while inasmuch as it shows how the Federal Reserve bank in each of the twelve districts safeguards and strengthens the financial, industrial, and commercial enterprises of the nation.

The book is well printed on good paper; it is neatly bound in cloth, has a complete table of contents, and is fully and conveniently indexed. Those desiring copies of this book should write direct to the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond.

ARKANSAS MOB LYNCHES MAN. Man Accused of Attacking Woman Is Given Short Shift.

Heena, Ark., Nov. 18.—Will Turner, colored, charged with an attack on a young white woman here today, was taken by a mob from a sheriff's posse, while being removed to Marianna, Arkansas, for safekeeping and after being shot to death by members of the mob, his body was brought back here and burned in the city park.

Will Turner, colored who was lynched was arrested soon after the attack on the young woman but feeling run so high that Sheriff Mays ordered him removed to Marianna for safekeeping. He was taken from the officers by a mob of about thirty men a few miles outside the city. They forcibly took the prisoner from the officers and removed him to the woods nearby where his body was riddled with shot.

office-holders. This aroused action against him and even if the vote that would otherwise have come to me went over to Hon. E. Lee Trinkle, those associated with me are content. In conclusion, it may be well to add that the vote accredited to Senator E. Lee Trinkle, two days after the election was approximately 62,000. It is now 12,000 more—74,000. The vote accredited to Hon. Henry W. Anderson was 59,000. It is now 8,000 more—67,000. The only comment I wish to make is that the Anderson vote, so far as the colored people are concerned, was negligible. We entered the campaign for a purpose—the overwhelming defeat of Col. Henry W. Anderson and we accomplished that purpose. If there is any way possible Mr. Editor to give Hon. E. Lee Trinkle the remaining 5,230 votes officially recorded to us, kindly advise, and I and my associates will gladly execute a quit claim deed to this remaining piece of political "property." Solah.
