PURPOSE OF THE UPLIFTER LEAGUE

Zealous Society Organized to Advance the Race.

DESTINED TO DO MUCH GOOD

Many Sections of the United States Already Benefited by Its Influence—Important Educational Campaign Being Arranged—Several Noted Scholars in Its Ranks.

One of the most effective of the younger organizations for the advancement of the race is the Uplifter league, organized in September, 1912. The organization is growing rapidly, and its influence for good is being felt in many sections of the country. The league is arranging an educational campaign in which will be shown the past achievements and present possibilities of the race along all lines of active work.

Valuable tracts and documents bearing upon the past achievements of the Negro is in the possession of the organization and will be given to the public from time to time. The organization has a membership of 279, made up of both men and women, and is one of the most representative groups of workers to be found in this country. The membership represents all walks of life. In its ranks may be found many of the best scholars of the race.

One of its members is George Gabrielle, formerly vice president of Abyssinia, who is now living in New York. The organization has two departments known as the intellectual and the executive departments. The intellectual department is composed of the men and women who are giving their time to research work on race matters and the discussion of matters pertaining to the enlightenment of the public on vital matters pertaining to the race.

The officers of the organization are Augustus T. Bell, president; George Gabrielle, vice president; I. G. Johnson, secretary, and Fred Demmings, treasurer. Augustus T. Bell, the president of the organization, is one of the best known men of the race. He has given much time to the study of the achievements of the race and has written extensively on the subject.

He was born in Gloucester City, Va., in 1854, and received his early education in the public schools of his native city. He resides in New York, where for three years he has applied himself to the study of theology under Dr. George W. Sampson, a noted white clergyman. He is the author of the "Woolly Hair Man of the South" and "The Amendment to the Fourteenth Amendment." The latter publication has had a wide circulation and has brought the author wide notice. He has also written much upon other subjects.

The organization has its headquarters at 247 West Sixty-first street, New York city, where it holds weekly meetings. Mr. Bell gives weekly lectures on some vital phase of the race question. At the last public meeting of the organization, which was held at the Y. M. C. A., many interesting facts relative to the race were made known. The organization passed a resolution to be forwarded to Abyssinia, in which it deplored the reported death of King Menelik.

This organization of earnest men and women, who have banded themselves together to keep to the fore the best efforts of the race and to seek to educate the rising generation to honor the race, has before it a glorious work, which will meet the approval of all lovers of freedom. It marks a new era in the race's advancement and is destined to do much good. It asks the co-operation of every race loving man and woman in its efforts.

The motto of the federation is "For God and Humanity." The membership is over 4,000.

WEEK OF REWARD AT FISK.

Recital Precedes Commencement at Fisk University in Nashville.

Nashville, Tenn.—The week ending June 14 was an unusually interesting and busy period for the faculty and students of Fisk university in this city. The commencement festivities were preceded by a brilliant recital given by the four graduates of the music department, assisted by the students in voice culture. The exercises were well attended and listened to with close attention.

The baccalaureate sermon was preached by Dr. Wilber F. Tillett, dean of the theological department of Vanderbilt university. Besides the faculty and student body, the public manifested much interest in the sermon, which is always an attractive feature of the commencement program.

The seniors held class day exercises out on Jubilee grounds. The program consisted of burning books, class song, planting of the class tree with the tree oration by one of the members. On Tuesday afternoon, June 10, the two alumni associations held their anniversary meetings in the parlors of Jubilee hall. In the evening these organizations were addressed by Professor William H. Singleton of the normal class of 1898 and Rev. W. S. Ellington of the college class of 1894.

The climax of the exercises occurred on Wednesday, June 11, at which time the commencement address was delivered by Dr. Booker T. Washington. Five members of the graduating class took part in the spatechnaking and did honor to the occasion. Besides the presentation of diplomas and the conferring of degrees, the J. G. Merrill commencement prizes were awarded.

The following students were candidates for diplomas and degrees:

SCHEME TO HELP THE TRAVELING PUBLIC.

How a Housing Bureau Will Work For the Race's Social Betterment.

The National League on Urban Conditions Among Colored People has recently moved its new headquarters into the new World's Tower building at 110 West Fortieth street. About four months ago the league opened a branch office in Harlem at 127 West One Hundred and Thirty-fifth street. In this office is located the work of the industrial committee and the housing bureau of the league.

The housing bureau is a new work added to the league's many agencies for the social betterment of our people in New York city. The work as planned by this bureau deals with the many vital problems that arise from the congested tenement life in the city. The results already obtained promise a very successful future.

This department of the league also plans to aid the many visitors to New York city in obtaining quiet, respectable accommodations. The advantage to the traveling public of this work alone is worth the bureau's establishment. Many persons go to New York and have an otherwise pleasant visit spoiled by being unable to secure comfortable places to stop.

A number of the best New York families will accommodate persons recommended by this bureau. Any one planning to visit New York for any purpose who wants such accommodations should write to this bureau at 127 West One Hundred and Thirty-fifth street. There is absolutely no charge for this service, and the league plans to arrange a similar service in other cities.

Alumni Association Shows Loyalty.

The recent report of the committee in charge of the collection of the $10,000 pledged by the Alumni association of Howard university to the gymnasium fund showed that the sum of $7,000 had been subscribed, of which $2,100 has been paid in actual cash. It is expected that the entire $10,000 can be raised by the next meeting of the association in 1914. Professor Kelly Miller, Shelby J. Davidson and Robert A. Pelham constitute the committee on finance of the gymnasium fund and have done excellent work. At a big meeting in the interest of the fund last year President William Howard Taft was the speaker of the occasion.
