CAMPBELL CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH, CORNER 23RD AND LAWRENCE STS. REV. JAMES WASHINGTON, PASTOR.

Preaching at 10:45 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. Sunday School at 9:30 a. m. Class meeting, 12:00 m. Allen's Christian Endeavor each Sunday at 6:30 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH CORNER 24TH AND CALIFORNIA STS. P. J. PRICE, PASTOR.

Sunday School lesson Oct. 19, 1913. "The Report of the Spies." Num. 7: 1-17; 14-25. W. A. Moore, Supt.; J. W. Hardy, Asst. Supt.

B. Y. P. U. Topic, "How To Make the Best Year In Our Society's History." Phil. 3:7-15 (lead by the pastor). Morning sermon, Neh. 2:10-11. Evening sermon, Psa. 133:1.

Mr. Tumbler's little girl is quite ill. We trust that she will recover soon. Mother Shafer entertained the pastor and wife Sunday elaborately.

Mrs. Georgiana Stacker gave a dainty repast for her Sunday School scholars, Sunday, Oct. 12, at her residence.

Mother Page's condition remains the same.

Just watch for the Thanksgiving supper given under the auspices of the officials of Central church and their wives, Nov. 27th.—Adv.

The Sunday School rally the first Sunday in November at 3:00 p. m. Come and see the program tendered on the above-named date.

We desire the hearty co-operation of all the Christian churches on Oct. 26, as there will be three services on that day.

The captains are working nicely and steadily.

Our young people are taking much active part in the church work now. We commend them for their zeal in working so faithfully.

The Sisters' Missionary Society met at the residence of Mrs. J. Jackson, Friday, Oct. 10, and was so well attended that the hearts of all present rejoiced. The remarks by Mrs. H. R. Buckner were highly enjoyed by the circle. Mrs. Jackson served a repast worthy of consideration and many spoke of her timeliness in entertaining the Missionary Society.

Rally day at Central church, Oct. 26, 1913.

NOTES OF THE ZION BAPTIST CHURCH.

Twenty-fourth Avenue and Ogden St., David E. Over, Pastor.

Last Sunday's gleanings from the rally brought the total up to within about three hundred dollars of the three thousand mark. That this remaining sum will be raised there is no doubt. This is without question the most splendid rally ever held in this section, and when we remember that it was held during a time of business panic it is all the more remarkable. The pastor is very proud of the membership of Zion.

The congregation is already feeling at home in its comfortable, roomy quarters. The Sunday School had been thoroughly reorganized in anticipation of the change and began work in earnest last Sunday morning. Mrs. Over took charge of the primary department with two assistants and each class in the other departments was assigned to its own private class room. The enthusiasm which marked this beginning, not only indicates growth in numbers, but that also better work may be expected through our added conveniences.

The Young People's meeting was largely attended and much interest was manifested. Sister Lillie Moore's leading drew out a most helpful and enjoyable discussion.

Deacon Riley is now comfortably installed in the new church as custodian of the building. The advantage of having a suite of rooms for the caretaker will not only facilitate the work of keeping the house neat and clean, but will permit anyone having business there to enter at any time during the day.

The funeral of Deacon Thomas D. Perkins was held from the church a week ago yesterday. In the passing of Brother Perkins Zion loses one of her most faithful and active officers. The large attendance and the many floral tributes indicate the tender regard in which he was held by the church and community.

The little son of Sister Launda Crumley died at the hospital last Monday afternoon from an affection of the heart. He was ill only a few days and the end was unexpected and sudden. The funeral service was held from the Douglass Undertaking Parlor and the body was interred in Riverside.

Sermon Topics, Sunday, Oct. 19th.

11 a. m.—"Not Empty Hand—"

5 p. M.A.—"Here and There."

At a recent coming together of the men of the church the Presbyterian Brotherhood was organized. At an early date another conference will be observed when the officers will be elected and installed. The scope of work will be social, literary, political and evangelical. Membership, active and associate, is open to all men of good repute whether you are a church or otherwise.

In pursuance to a deliverance of the Ministerial Alliance of this city, and to be in line with the other Presbyterian churches, that have unanimously endorsed such a deliverance, the first Sunday of November, being the second day of the month, will be observed as "CHURCH ATTENDANCE DAY." Every member of the local church with friends is cordially invited and earnestly expected to attend church that day. Let every member be a committee of ONE to boost for "CHURCH ATTENDANCE DAY." This is the first of a series of days that are to be observed in the churches of Denver.

The pastor leaves next Tuesday morning to attend the sessions of the Synod of Colorado, of which body he is an accredited member ex-officio. The Synod of Colorado consists of all the Presbyterian ministers of the states of Colorado and Wyoming, in addition to one elder from the respective churches of these states. The People's Presbyterian is one of the two colored churches of Synod, the other being in the state of Wyoming. The First Presbyterian church of Colorado Springs will be the seat of the Synod. Rev. Thos. Hazell will be the guest of Dr. R. S. Grant for the week.

SHORTER CHAPEL.

Washington and Twenty-third Sts. Rev. Robert L. Pope, Pastor.

The following order of service will be observed at Shorter Chapel tomorrow:

9:45 a. m.—Sunday School. Lesson: "Report of the Spies." Num. 7: 13-15, 17-14-25.

11:00 a. m.—Sermon, "The Wandering Sheep," by the pastor.

6:30 p. m.—Allen C. E. League. Topic: "How To Make This the Best Year In Our Society's History." Phil. 3:7-15. (Led by the pastor).

7:30 p. m.—Our pastor will fill the pulpit at the evening service also.

Last Sabbath was a red-letter day at Shorter. At the morning hour the graduating exercises of the Primary Department of the Sunday School were held when a special sermon was delivered by Rev. John Adams of Butte, Mont., and Mrs. E. P. Costigan with a very appropriate speech, presented certificates of graduation to a class of seventeen boys and girls. The choir, under the direction of Mrs. Ross and Miss Hicks, thrilled the packed auditorium with sweetest music, and it is difficult to determine who received the greater inspiration, the youthful graduate, his teacher, or his parent. Superintendents Glenn and Brown and their teachers are maintaining a high standard of efficiency in our Sunday School work and the parent who allows his child to grow up in Denver without religious training is absolutely without an excuse.

Brother and Sister Geo. C. King of Logansport, Ind., and Mrs. Naomi Harrison of Pueblo were welcomed into our fellowship last Sunday evening. Shorter knows the art of making strangers feel at home within her midst.

The Allen C. E. League has a very residence of Mrs. R. N. Nelson Monday evening. Every committee submitted a written report of its work for September. President Brown is making a splendid officer and his co-workers are supporting him right nobly. It is so inspiring to drop into the meetings Sunday evenings.

The many friends of Mrs. Dishman were delighted to see her in the audience Sunday after a prolonged visit to Vancouver.

Some fifty or more of the friends of Miss Jamesie S. Pope gave her a delightful shower Tuesday evening. When she had recovered from the excitement common to surprises, she found that her earthly substance had greatly increased, which served to remind her of a similar increase which had accrued to her spiritual possessions the many friends made during her brief stay among us. Light refreshments were served, a free-for-all colloquy was enjoyed and the jolly party retired leaving our pastor and family much happier because of this "unexpected" visitation. Miss Pope left for Eufaula, Ala., Wednesday.

Let every member of our congregation remember the Coal Rally tomorrow. The church needs your co-operation and help.

NOTES FROM HANDY'S CHAPEL. A. M. E. CHURCH, GRAND JUNCTION, COLO.

We are pleased to state that our pastor, the Rev. Samuel R. McGinnis, has been returned to us for another year. And thus we are confident that there will be much done for the uplift of our church this year. The pastor's whole soul is in his work and the people are of one mind to stand by him. He has shown his abilities as a pastor since his coming to us and has worked untiringly for the up-building of the church, and the gathering in of souls for the Master's kingdom, of which there has been a shown increase in the membership. A church conference was held on the first of October and each board of the church was organized and new officers selected for our new conference year, when they will be confirmed by the presiding elder Oct. 49th.

The Sabbath School is gaining strength under the kind and ever watchful care of Mrs. L. A. Morris. The Woman's Mite Missionary Society, with Mrs. W. F. Miller as president, has promised to give good account of itself this year.

Our choir has been blessed with the presence of Mrs. L. A. Morris and Mrs. Lyle, whose sweet voices have made our hearts rejoice.

Mr. Henry Clay has organized an adult Bible class and is striving to make it a success. The membership is on the increase and much interest is being shown at each meeting.

Our pastor has plans laid for an immense rally to procure money to pay off the indebtedness of and for making repairs to our church and it is hoped that everyone will take hold and assist in making this a great success. Handy's Chapel has for many years been calling for a man that would stand to his arms, and we believe that we have such a man now in the person of our present pastor, Rev. S. P. McGinnis. Our prayer is that this will be a year of success along all lines and that much work will be done for the Master's Kingdom.

BUSY LIFE OF C. H. BROOKS.

Author, Real Estate Broker and Leader in Many Good Movements. By N. BARNETT BODSON.

Philadelphia—Charles H. Brooks, Esq., who served as chairman of the local committee of arrangements for the entertainment of the National Negro Business league held here in August, is one of the best known and most highly respected citizens of this city. He is a business man of much experience and has been a worker in many good movements for racial uplift here. He is one of those rare characters whose influence pervades the very atmosphere in which he moves, and his friends lavish upon him their confidence and esteem.

Mr. Brooks not only occupies a conspicuous place in the business arena, but has gained distinction as an author, Christian worker and friend of education. His best known work is the "History of Odd Fellowship Among Colored Men in America," which appeared in 1894. This is the only work of the kind ever published by a member of our race. The data for the book were gathered by Mr. Brooks from England, Australia and here in America. The committee of management in England, the highest governing board in the world, pronounced the matter contained in the book absolutely correct. Copies are on file in the office of all the subcommittees.

By contract with the American subcommittee Mr. Brooks agreed not to reproduce copies of the book after the first edition was exhausted. The manual of the order for the board to which he belongs was also written by Mr. Brooks, who served as grand district secretary for twelve years. Mr. Brooks wrote the history of the Cherry Memorial Baptist church in this city, of which William A. Credit, L. L. D., is pastor, on the occasion of its hundredth anniversary in 1900.

He is president of the board of trustees of the above named church, secretary of the Cherry Building and Loan association, manager of the Reliable Mutual Aid association, expert accountant for the Downingtown (Pa.) Industrial school and solicitor for the foreign mission board of the national Baptist convention.

Mr. Brooks does a thriving real estate and legal business and has been successful in handling many difficult matters along the lines indicated. He has a group of capable assistants in his office, which accounts largely for his being able to handle so wide a variety of important matters with satisfaction to his numerous clients.

PROPRIETOR
"Poro" College
3100 Pine St. St. Louis, Mo.

THE "PORO" SYSTEM of Scalp and Hair treatment is based on the latest scientific and sanitary methods, effecting a healthy scalp thus promoting a growth of beautiful hair.

The "Poro" preparations used in connection with the treatment are made and sold exclusively by myself, having the exclusive right to that name; and I, alone, know the secret of the composition that bears that name. Our claim has always been that when the hair begins to grow as the result of the use of "PORO," it will continue to do so if only the scalp and hair be kept clean. This sanitary method of treatment is also having the desired effect in helping to prevent the spread of diseases, for it is a fact that hair in an unsanitary condition carries the germs of disease which often prove fatal to innocent persons coming in contact with them.
