

DONNELLY'S FATE.

What the Married Priest Will Have to Endure.

He Will Hereafter Sleep in His Own Coffin.

And Each Morning Must Dig in His Own Grave.

He Will Be Lost to the World in Mount Melleray Asylum, Ireland—The Routine of Life He Must Hereafter Lead.

Father Donnelly, the priest who violated his vows and married a young lady and who had resided in this city for some time under the assumed name of E. B. Daniel, will not be heard from in this country—in fact, he is now on his way to an asylum whence he will never enter the world again.

It was learned yesterday that since he made his submission to the bishop he has been directed to go to the well-known retreat for suspended priests at Mount Melleray, in the county of Waterford, Ireland. From the time that he enters that asylum he is out of all communication with the outside world. Father Donnelly has voluntarily signified his willingness to accept the fate accorded to suspended priests. When a priest's conduct is such as to give scandal in any way the power to administer the sacraments and perform his other priestly functions is taken from him by the bishop of his diocese until such time as by virtue of his conduct it is again restored. It is very rare that one hears of a suspended priest being installed again in an office of trust. They retire to finish their days in trying to atone by penance, fasting and prayer for their sins.

Father Donnelly's lot will be a terrible one in the way of fasting and penance. He must wear the coarsest hair cloth garment next the flesh, and continually flagellate himself with whips and cords. His fare will be of the coarsest and plainest food, and life will be a constant torture of the flesh and humiliation of the spirit. One of the duties that he will have to perform will be to go out every morning to the graveyard attached to the asylum and dig one shovel full of earth out of his own grave. At night he sleeps in a cell in a rough pine box that some day will be used for his coffin.

The bishop, be it understood, cannot take away Father Donnelly's spiritual power, but he can and has taken away his temporal power. Only in the absence of a priest vested with the above powers, and in the presence of death, can a suspended priest be called on to administer extreme unction to the dying.

A suspended priest is very different from an excommunicated one. A suspended priest has the privilege of assisting at mass, of receiving the sacraments of the church with the rest of the faithful, while an excommunicated priest has not even the right to enter the church while mass is being celebrated. The great council of Lateran ordered that an excommunicated person, layman as well as cleric, "shall be debarred from divine service, entrance to the church during life and debarred from Christian burial at his death." Father Donnelly, being now a suspended priest, guilty of one of the greatest offenses against the church, will not be allowed to mingle in the world again. He will die in seclusion in the asylum at Mount Melleray, Ireland.

REDLANDS.

Scipio Craig Back—News Notes and Personal.

Special Correspondence to the HERALD.

REDLANDS, Feb. 28. Scipio Craig, the editor of the Citograph, has arrived from San Francisco, where he has been in session with the different Press association committees, in the interest of the National Editorial association, which will be here in May.

NOTES.

J. A. Doyle is a victim of the grip. J. D. N. Osborne of San Bernardino was up last night. Mr. and Mrs. Neil Litchfield of San Francisco are in the city. Captain Woodworth, of Galveston, Tex., is visiting Redlands and is a guest of A. H. Pratt, the genial Storm house manager.

C. H. Hobart, who has been appointed as commercial agent for the Santa Fé at this place, is soon to have an uptown office. The entertainment given by the Epworth league Friday night at the Methodist church was a grand success. The programme consisted of musical and literary exercises.

Yesterday afternoon as Mrs Geo. H. Crafts was driving from Redlands through old San Bernardino her horse became frightened at the approach of the motor, and after turning around several times upset the buggy and hurled Mrs. Crafts to the road. She sustained several bruises and a broken wrist.

UNIVERSITY.

Personal News and Social Notes—Other Happenings.

Special Correspondence to the HERALD.

UNIVERSITY, Feb. 28, 1892. The engagement of Miss Ruth Widney Hall of this place to Mr. Paul of Pittsburg, Pa., is announced.

The Ladies' Aid society of University M. E. church gave a dime social at the home of Mrs. Cool, on Wesley avenue, last Friday night. The main features of the evening, besides the genial social intercourse, were the singing of the male quartette and the feat of a young student who showed himself to be quite an adept at mind reading.

A Foresters' band of twenty pieces has been organized, composed of Foresters from Morris Vineyard and University courts.

A University orchestra has been organized. Rev. Dr. Hardy will lecture on Japan in University chapel, next Friday evening. This is a continuation of the library lecture course.

UNIVERSITIES VICTORIOUS. Young Bentley Strikes Out Fifteen Men.

The University baseball nine beat the Boyle Heights team at the Sixth street grounds Saturday afternoon on a good game. The Boyle Heights boys fought hard against fate, but the Universities came off victorious by a score of 6 to 2. The feature of the game was Bentley's twirling, he fanning out fifteen of his opponents. The fielding of the Boyle Heights was good. The game was a steady one throughout, there being no exciting crises in the game. The following was the personnel of the clubs yesterday:

The score by innings was: Universities, 0 0 2 3 0 0 1 —3 Boyle Heights, 0 0 1 1 0 0 0 —2

The Universities again play the Boyle Heights next Saturday afternoon, at the First street grounds.

LONG BEACH.

News Notes From a Progressive Seaside City.

Special Correspondence to the HERALD.

LONG BEACH, Feb. 28. Mr. R. D. Curtis, father of W. G. Curtis, assistant general manager of the Southern Pacific, Conductor Frank Curtis and Ticket Agent George Curtis of Long Beach, died suddenly last Monday night at 8:15. Mr. Curtis had been absent at Anaheim some time, where he contracted la grippe. He came home apparently better, and his death was in the nature of a surprise. He was buried at Wilmington Wednesday afternoon, a large number of mourners following his remains to the grave.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Gibson and child and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coombs and child of Great Falls, Montana, visited our city Thursday and put up at the Fetterman house. The Long Beach W. C. T. U. held a large and interesting meeting Wednesday, the 24th inst. Mrs. Frances E. Baright of Los Angeles is the president of the union here. Papers were read advocating scientific instruction of the pupils in the public schools on the evil effects of alcohol. Our local union is influential and is doing good work.

The following gentlemen are believers in the great value of realty in and around Long Beach, and are proving their faith by setting their places out with olives: Dr. A. G. Cook set out two-year-old trees on his place on Atlantic avenue; G. W. Bond, the contractor and builder, has 100 on his place; the Trent brothers are setting out olive orchard; Attorney H. H. Dillon has one of the finest orchards of different varieties of fruit in Southern California; C. H. Dunn, of the firm of W. W. Montague & Co. of San Francisco, is having an orchard of olives set out under the care of Harry Munges; Judge M. S. Wilson and Mr. John Thompson, D.D., will also plant the above fruit on their places in our suburbs.

The Terminal will load 110 cars at the Alamitos warehouse with grain, to be shipped by the Alamitos Land company from the Terminal wharf to San Francisco. There are three or four men here seeking notoriety by making a feeble kick against the proposed pleasure wharf. There is a tradition extant about the original kicker in heaven hurriedly leaving for a celebrated hot sulphur spring resort. The combination is simple.

Will Postmaster Van Dusen please investigate and let us know the true inwardness of the funny business that has stopped this place from getting its usual two mails per day? Why not have the Terminal deliver our mails so we would have straight dealings.

Our municipal election will be held the 4th of August. There are four trustees, a city clerk, a treasurer and city marshal to be elected.

Mr. A. C. Carter of Carteria was a visitor here last Tuesday.

The earthquake down here Tuesday night made the few remaining sinners who have not as yet moved away, skirrnish around p. d. q. and dig up old catechisms and resolve henceforth to lead virtuous lives and vote the Democratic ticket.

There is a notable absence of usual winter crop of sea lions. The probable reason is that fishing smacks and other vessels are so thick in the bay that the seals are afraid to make the trip from the island here.

Mr. J. S. Mills, ticket agent for the Terminal at the Crown of the Valley, took a run down here to the queen of seaside resorts last Sunday.

The following gentlemen from Los Angeles came down on the Terminal last Sunday: A. R. Greening, Dick McKnight, Billy Edwards, Warren Hopperstead, Harry Cashman, O. J. Calvin and Andrew Francisco.

Dr. D. A. Cashman visited our city the early part of the week. The doctor is thinking about investing in property and locating here.

General Manager T. B. Burnet of the Terminal and Mr. Leighton of St. Louis were down last Sunday.

Mr. E. E. Crandall of Los Angeles came down the early part of the week. He will set out five acres in apple trees. Mr. and Mrs. John Schwartz of Elkhardt, Wis., were visitors to our city this week.

Mr. Woods of Massachusetts was a visitor to our city last Monday. Mr. Lester Scott of Los Angeles, who lately purchased property on the Alamitos, was here Monday last.

Mrs. Hattie Gifford of this place went to Santa Ana last Saturday on an extended visit to relatives.

The Terminal is reaching out for business and getting it. Tuesday engine No. 6 brought down to the warehouse on the Alamitos fifteen freight cars to be loaded with grain. Billy Jacobs was in charge and our old Long Beach friend, George McPherson, was fireman. General Passenger Agent Wm. Wincup and Roadmaster Jessup came with the train.

Fred Olmstead, Henry Morrison, Will Camp, Ted Neil, Andy Black and Tom O'Neil of Los Angeles were guests at the Fetterman house this week.

Mr. Walter Bailey of Los Angeles came down last Monday. Mr. Bailey will sow thirty-six acres of his 40-acre tract in the Willows with alfalfa. Our farm lots, consisting of five acres and upwards, are being improved and fruit trees, deciduous and citrus, set out. Long Beach in a few years will be surrounded with lovely villa homes.

The enterprising officials of the Terminal are putting in a side track to the large grain warehouse just outside the city limits on the Alamitos. A large number of Pasadenians came down on the Terminal last Monday, amongst whom were the following: Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Blair, Mrs. McGee, Mrs. J. W. Banbury, Miss Maria Fuller, and Miss Emma Towne of Peoria, Ill. They lunched at the Fetterman house.

There will be a contest for the Democrat medal under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. Miss Elziva Signor of Los Angeles is the instructor of the eight contestants.

The surveyors are at work on Terminal island, platting town and building lots.

REDONDO.

LOS ANGELES WHO ATTENDED THE HOTEL HOP.

A Gay Occasion—Notables Who Are New at the Big Hostelry—A Long List of Recent Arrivals.

Special Correspondence to the HERALD.

REDONDO, Feb. 28.

As usual a large number of people visited the beach yesterday. The hop given at the Redondo hotel Saturday evening proved highly enjoyable to all present. At no time has the music sounded sweeter or any evening passed pleasanter than the one mentioned. The gay throng of beauty and gallantry, together with the exquisitely draped ball room, presented a scene than which none could be more worthy of admiration. In the course of the evening delicious refreshments were served in the café. Manager Prussia knows well how to win the hearts of the young people, and to him thanks are due for another delightful evening. Among the many guests present the following Los Angeles people were noted: Miss Melzer, Mr. and Mrs. W. Parris, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Howell, Mrs. M. Lewis, H. M. Russell, Mrs. A. M. Sanford, Mrs. Telfair Creighton, Mrs. M. B. St. George, W. W. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Freeman, G. J. Uthoff, Dr. F. B. Cunningham, H. Spence, Geo. Spence, Dr. Randolph Brunson and many others.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Dennis of Chicago have arrived at the Redondo hotel to remain for several months. Mr. and Mrs. Dennis spent last winter at the Redondo.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor of Newport, Ky., were guests of Gen. and Mrs. McCook yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Hynes spent the day pleasantly at the beach. H. L. Norton of Cleveland is registered at the big hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Ford and family of Great Falls, Mont., Mrs. S. C. Ashby, Miss H. Ashby of Helena, Mont., and Miss Hallie Dickey of Franklin, Ky., are guests at the Redondo hotel.

Yesterday's arrivals at the Redondo hotel are: S. F. Bell, Terre Haute, Ind.; Miss Clara Batelle, Youngstown, O.; Dr. and Mrs. Chas. Bailey, Pittsfield, Mass.; Mrs. L. V. Dyer, Milwaukee, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bird, Chicago; Mrs. H. Syster, San Francisco; Mrs. George Hancock, E. W. Wise, H. A. Maynard, Miss M. Maynard, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Blinn, Mr. and Mrs. M. Welsh, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Stowers, Scranton, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. S. Messenger, Niles, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Washburn, Boston; Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Bannon, San Gabriel; Mrs. George H. Robinson, Geo. W. Robinson, Miss J. Robinson, Newark, O.; Jas. T. Greenlee, Kansas City; Miss Lillie Goodhue, Parkland, Tex.; and Mrs. Gorham Boardman, New York; R. S. Fargo, Batavia, New York.

Miss Flora McMillany, of Madison Square, must have a hard time getting along in swell society with so few clothes—but they say she always managed to keep pretty well supplied with Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

BUENA PARK.

Meeting of the Y. P. S. C. E.—The Country Club.

Special Correspondence to the HERALD.

BUENA PARK, Feb. 28.

The Y. P. S. C. E. gave a social Friday evening, celebrating Longfellow's birthday. The exercises were interesting and enjoyable; they were taken part in by members of the society, assisted by Miss Carrie Field of Los Angeles, Miss Clara McPherson of Tustin and Miss Clark of Orange. A prize of a book of Longfellow's poems was awarded to the person who gave the greatest number of titles to the quotations distributed to all who would try for the prize. Miss Clark was the winner. Jennie Archibald, a miss of 12 years, was only one behind her.

The Country club met with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Whitaker Wednesday evening. The music was greatly enjoyed by all. Among the guests were Mr. John Hastings of Manitoba, Messrs. Smith, Piffy, McCullough, Geo. Whitaker, Misses Maybelle Young, McCullough, Archibald, Jeanette Bryden, Maggie Bryden.

Miss Carrie Field of Los Angeles and Miss Lotta Spurgeon of Santa Ana are visiting at Mrs. D. J. Young's. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Whitaker have returned from San Bernardino.

Cannot Spare the Time. Nelson H. Baker, district attorney of Westchester county, N. Y., writes: "I have received many letters in reference to my testimonial, lately published, commending Alcock's porous plaster."

"I cannot spare the time to answer them in writing, therefore would again say, through the press, that I have found Alcock's porous plaster invaluable as chest protectors and shields against coughs and colds. Furthermore, I have found Alcock's plaster unequalled for pains in the side, back and chest."
