SELECT POETRY. find him !" said the stranger. "Health is Wealth."

A clear bright eye
That can pierce the sky
With the strength of an eagles's vision And a steady brain That can bear the stran And shock of the world's collision; A well-knit frame,

With a ruddy flame Aglow, and the pulses leaping With the measured time Of a dulcet rhyme. Their beautiful record keeping; A rounded cheek,

Where the roses speak
Of a soil that is righ for thriving, That the lungs expand Exultant, without the striving ;

A breath like morn. With the crimson dawn Is fresh in its dewy sweetness; A manuer bright, And a spirit light, With joy at its full completeness;

O, give me these.
Nature's harmonies.
And keep all your golden treasures;
For what is wealth To the boon of health And its sweet attendant pleasures!

Love Up an Apple Tree.

There was a seat in the apple tree, A most delightful and cosy nook;
And one afternoon about half-past three,
Kitty sat there reading a book.
Her fair head bare with no hat to mar, And her dress just showed one dainty
