NEW GHEATRE. Mrs. MOたK/S's Nigbl
 The Child of Nature Hythention whin +ita$=$

The SAILOR's RETURN.
 TheSicilianililomance

Cataite Laidy ormano ,hrm wain

 mis

 HOMAS ${ }^{8}{ }^{8}$ DOBSON; At the Stonc Hourt, in iccooid hireet, inc, Pasict maling, Paniament, Nati, PR therey is a do not mury to the Publihe fet The miney to top paid in full on on dlit six8, zajy zivez Mr. Fixso; Is $A W$ in nhe "D Daily Advertifre" extraordinaty colle ef ons hitherto publint d, is the moof extiavgant. From th gencral compleation Cu fuppofe, if the paper did not declare he contrary, that thefc fons of Bach were really feated ol the banks of the seine-or from the in of hie patiotie feliow-citizens, to whiof wifdom and virtut he whole community is fo largely indebted? Could he relled ceracecl and di.folated dy ytect worid of is war and unt feel his heart expand with grat and not fed the flings of guilt, when he murnurs a tingle idicontent I Iay no thang about the jufice or propriety of the thing about the juffice or propiety of the toans, devoded to the honour of France and Holland. In this our citizens had aud Holland, In thie our citizens had right topieafe themflves. Let them raife their bateries, and tumble aht the frorig their batteries, and tumble aht the frong heolds of defpotinin in the duft-but I conn fifis 1 fecl miyfelf hurrt, in that they have her name, and in the have of fwallowed in have introdved her to the puwhich they riea, por lady, Amehave introduced her to the pubic. Ameriea, poor lady, brigs patherer, when without any offence to the etiquotte of French any to be fighting for. Befites, whin The does make hinc appearance, it it only to be infultred by the bafe infinuations of her Whn evil deftiny -hey wave you to your to the hand of thefe infidious villains you who aro now endeavouring to cajolle yous with flaterening founds, which like the a aingnats of Frange, have lowt of France, have long fince loft thecriariginal vilue every whire ; and which, from the unhailowed lipe of demorratic clum mean nothing but anarchy and difgrace.

But, tefore I take of my leave of thet gentiemen whio cendeavour to pafs off the extavagant hights of a civic feaft for the fobber opinions of America, let me recorr tif fiom the the May 4 th.

From a Newtert $\overline{P a}$ AVERTING our cyes from all Euro pean, Aharic, and African governuruents, and he ofices and titles of the rulers of thofe invume thofe innumcrable tribes of people, witn fifiate exullation and delight, we embrace our own government Our own govenucnt, and (he minn thens of God for good" to ourfelves-a the head of whom we behold our own fan Ange, continually fpeaks "good" to ail his chlildren. Poffining the purefl benevolence, a truiv difinteneted and patriotic fpirit; terribie in thie field of war, but gentle, meck and wife, in the Cabingt of peace- the Prelicent of thef United States appears, in the nid ff of the other other Officials, whictinier Leerinative or Fixeutive, as the fun anidat the circumof that excellent fpirit with which par he fflction for our Chief Magiftrate, and phefent tranquilility a cond happuation of of our "Long may hi: hive," and mould not pray, his days "eprotperots ? May of the Univerfe, more and more add to wifirem, and underftantions "" of grace, wity he mere and more uffui" the may he more and more uffeful to, and ac niable in the eyce of, this gieat and migh and ty people,
However boinarall in itfeff the title, Prefident of the Uiited Siates, confelled ed upon by the voice of thourfands and ten thoufand, enjoying the oqual rights of citizenhip, GEORGE WASHINGTON 2cepted this fuper-eminent office; not for his own, or his family's aggrandizement (for to for his own, or his family's aggrandizement for prior tothis he was futicienlly ennotice, and his fanily fufficienitly

Mr. TEN
in the Auras No, of yefierday " Alhf France
men

we a | 3 |
| ---: |
| tre |
| co |
| to | $\left\lvert\, \begin{gathered}\text { a } \\ \text { ai } \\ \text { is } \\ \text { sib } \\ \text { tak } \\ \text { pu } \\ \text { pu } \\ \text { fin }\end{gathered}\right.$ pubic fafety fhowid be empowered to grant furloghhy.

All the propoffions were referred to the e cunited committees.
The af the reunited committes, The affembly hrefered to Marce up at 4 o'clock. The reporter of the - .2. promittes decrees fuppleant. the admifiion of Chabor's firt tuppleant.
$A$ memb in A member declares that this fuppleant is a prieft of the feminary of Blois; ; he a cules him of having abuyfed Blois; the ace vetted in him as adminiftraion authority Teftec in him as adminiftra or.
Thuriot wonders that any oinef 1t would have been more in crier for the member to have iven the information he poffefied on the condued of the fupplene to the comminttee of enquiries.

A miember-M here is a too long trampled here is a facred pripeciple foot, but which we obfer ved lately, viz, that we obre ved lately, viz, that no coilititut-ed authority has a rizht to contraveie the will of the people. the eye of the law. All men are equal If the fuplean. of the fuppleant who is now the frifjear oh debate is guilty of any crime, llet thole who are squuainted with the facts co who are esquainted with che fritcts sommu nicate them to the committecs of the' vernment, who vernment, who will examin"t em and re port. But it would be violuting the fo vereignty of the people to rejeet the per-fuppieant, are in the hands of thec come mitte of lagillation, which is to report in The Convention adiourned theadnifion of the fippleani of Chabor till they re-cive the report of the $f$ an accina, withes to exculpate himfeif arinf him of being of Jos. Lebon. He nored that crice, and united tompitiess ondua. The Convention parfed to the the order of the day.
The fection of Port he following of pdrels.
". We Weut prefented be purfued. It is to their impunity we owe the lenethened exifence of the Jacobins, of the ancient mermacts of the revo tionary committees, and all the misfor

 "Let the leaders fall winder the fyord of the law, anid let their fubaltern agents be Violcnt murmurs) ) Let incm be chaing - two and two to lie employed in pullic works, and ignominiconfy expofet. ( $V_{i-}$ olent murmurs) Strike all thece guity if ou wing to fave the Republic." The Prefident anfuered that the Convention applauds thie civic fennimentis exprefided hy the citizans of the fection of Pont Neuf, hut that thef cannot app aidd metfures which wolt reagure shigh would tend to recrall the oeve-:

 The fection of Unity afks the repeal of dhe dectree winch excluctes fram the stational reprefentation the deputies wio were outlaw outlawed on the 3 sit of May, Peniers. $"$ It is no donbt lawfil for a fection of the people to come and for a fection of the people to come and tell you, thit you have deviated from the teus tinc the true epinciples which ought to be your guide. It is in yain that the depories in quiletion have been calumniated. They deteft, as we do, thiousa as well as faffiots. " the rights of citizens shave teen viohtated, thofe of the national repiefentation, of juffice and of humanity. I afk no indulgence fur our colleagurs that were deslared outaws: they need that were delared ourlaws: they need no indulgenes. Let them be puniflad with death if hes are guily. hint het them be reflored to their functions if they are pronounced innocent. You liad not the with of frion liad not the righ of fripping them of the powers with which they were-invefl ed by the people. For my part, 1 di - clare, that deprived of the powers confided to me by the people.
"If the voice of feveral orators had been litened to, when the report, ly which they have been deprived of their which they have been deprived of the authority, was under difeuflion, pi authority, was under difeulion, pria ciples would liave triumpled. Aceni ing to the deciee then adopted, wowid not the Convention have an equal right to fay to any reprefentative of the peot-ple: "Return home ; you hhall be tilded before ne tribunal ; but you cannit reprefent the French people here in Such a power would te abfudd ankisy. "A Anno "Among our colleagues who wei

