HONSDALE LOCAL SPATTERINGS.

Miscellaneous Maple City Notes of an interesting nature. HONSDALE, Jan. 11.—Mrs. Theresa Diehl has just received from the hands of Assistant Superintendent R. J. Stewart of the Prudential Insurance company, $1,000 from the company on account of the death of her son Frank C. Stewart, of Towanda, formerly of Honsdale, is visiting his son, James L. Oakes.

DARING OPERATIONS OF BURGLARS.

It is thought that an organization of thieves is at work. PLAINS, Pa., Jan. 11.—This place is believed to be the rendezvous of a nest of burglars. The numerous depredations that have been committed in this vicinity lend color to the theory that an organized band has selected it as their headquarters.

Two Lives Saved. Mrs. Phoebe Thomas of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life.

THE NEWS OF NEARBY TOWNS

(Out of town correspondents of THE TRIBUNE should send in full news letters, not for publication, but to guard against deception.)

COLONEL NORTON'S REWARD.

This Effort to Circumvent Robbers. Special to the Scranton Tribune. STROUDSBURG, Pa., Jan. 11.—It is the duty of the authorities here to rid the county of the gang of daring robbers that is working old Monroe for all there is in it. Nearly every day a bold piece of work is reported, and the audacity of the deed is evidence that the robbers have no fears of being molested. A reward of $500 has been offered by Colonel E. E. Norton for the arrest and conviction of the vandals who, with dynamite, broke open his handsome family vault, which was built at the cost of nearly $30,000. But this will not be sufficient to bring the eniprils to justice, if the authorities themselves do not take a decided stand and at no matter what cost to the county run down the thieves. It is hardly to be expected that one policeman can do the work properly. The police force should be increased and in this way, not in any other, show the plunderers that they cannot expect to carry on their work in this community any longer.

INTERESTING STROUDSBURG NOTES.

Several Little Items That Will Mirror the Day's Progress. Special to the Scranton Tribune. STROUDSBURG, Jan. 11.—Miss Bessie Ackerman who has been ill at her home, is reported to be much better. The Knights of Pythias will have a supper on Feb. 2. This occasion is likely to be a most enjoyable affair as all their suppers are. Ex-Postmaster William D. Walton, whose term expired some months ago, has been retained by Postmaster E. I. Inger to write a few weeks ago. This former postmaster, who is a brother of County Chairman Walton, the Republican leader here, is as hopeful as ever and expects to be called into service again in a few short years.

PIONEER CITY BREVITIES.

Crisp Paragraphs Which Tell the News of One Day. Special to the Scranton Tribune. CARBONDALE, Pa., Jan. 11.—Miss Merritt, Donora, who has been visiting friends in Binghamton during the past three weeks, returned to her home on Salem avenue Wednesday afternoon. Miss Anna Witcox will return to her home in Nineveh, N. Y., after a two months' stay in this city as the guest of her sister, Mrs. A. S. Lewalsy, of High street. Tomorrow Mr. and Mrs. George S. Kimball will leave for Boston, from where they will take their departure on Feb. 1 for their tour through the city across the ocean. The trip will take about three months' time. Mrs. S. Bolton and daughter Lella attended a party in Scranton this evening given by Miss Annie Reynolds in honor of their cousin, Captain George Reynolds, of New York. The Delaware and Hudson paid their gravity and shop hands in this city today and tomorrow will pay their steam road employees.

LIVELY BOROUGH POLITICS.

Citizens of Taylor Will Have a Choice of Three Tickets. Special to the Scranton Tribune. TAYLOR, Pa., Jan. 11.—The political bee is humming in the ears of the politicians of the borough. The February election will be interesting no doubt, as it is predicted that three tickets will be in the field, the Republican, Citizen and Democratic. The town is Republican by a large majority. For burgess there are only two names presented, David J. Harris, the present incumbent, and George Mantell. For tax collector there are five candidates, Joseph Davis, John D. A. Herbert, Alvin Handershot, James Mapleson and John E. Reese. The present councilmen will seek for a reelection. Morris Davis is the only one mentioned for high constable. No caucuses have yet been called and it is not known on which ticket those named will seek for a nomination.

RELIEF QUICKLY SUPPLIED.

Charitable Business Men Contribute to John Prector's Aid. Special to the Scranton Tribune. TAYLOR, Jan. 11.—The special in yesterday's TRIBUNE regarding the poor circumstances of the stricken family of John Prector met with much approval and this afternoon Mrs. W. H. Gordon and Mrs. J. E. Nash circulated among the business men soliciting donations. Every place visited responded willingly with donations of flour, meats, sugar, etc. The response given is deserving of mention as showing the charity of the business men of this borough, who have always been liberal in helping those deserving of aid.

DUNMORE POLITICALLY ALIVE.

Merchant P. J. Horan is Very Favorably Mentioned for Burgess. Special to the Scranton Tribune. DUNMORE, Pa., Jan. 11.—Among the ones who are mentioned as possible candidates for the nomination of burgess is P. J. Horan, the popular merchant. Mr. Horan has been a resident of this place for a good many years and has shown by his integrity and conserva-them to be a man well fitted for that responsible office. The People's and Republican party are glancing askance at him, as is also the Democratic party. Whenever party receives the consent to his nomination will undoubtedly receive full endorsement from the opposing faction. No definite information can be gleaned regarding the People's party nominees for council, but the probabilities are that Mr. Taylor will be re-nominated with Jacob Bronson to keep him company, which would make a strong team. Mr. Taylor during his term of office, has shown a fearless front and voted honestly on all questions, whether party or not. Although Mr. Bronson has never held any office in the borough, he has shown himself to be of good, reliable timber, and is recognized as a man of honest convictions.

FINE MUSICAL PROGRAMME.
Proceeds Go to the Simpson Chapel Building Fund. Special to the Scranton Tribune. CARBONDALE, Pa., Jan. 11.—A musical evening will be held tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. E. D. Lathrop, on Lincoln avenue. A fine programme has been arranged, and each guest present will have a special program of his own to be performed for the purpose of erecting an addition to the Eudeavor chapel, of Simpson. The programme to be given will be as follows: Quartette of Violins—Pray and Rondo, Harris; Thomas, F. J. Johnson, Lyman Smith, D. L. Grace. Duet, Schott, Miss Vannan, Mrs. Burr Piano Duet, Selected. Miss Herring and Professor Thomas Reading, from Rip Van Winkle, W. Aitken Tenor Solo—Creole Lover's Song, Dudley Buck W. D. Evans. Flute Solo, H. Durances Jr Solo—Ora Pavesi, Piccolomini Miss Vannan. Recitation—A Home Stretch, Miss Laura Harper Quartette, Evans, Thomas, Hall, Lathrop

BOYS' BRANCH ANNIVERSARY.
It Will Be Very Pleasantly Celebrated Next Monday Evening. Special to the Scranton Tribune. CARBONDALE, Pa., Jan. 11.—The Boys' branch of the Young Men's Christian association will give an anniversary supper to the boys and girls of this city next Wednesday evening from 4 to 8 o'clock. The event will be in celebration of the fifth birthday of the organization.

DUNMORE IN MINIATURE.

Bird's Eye Survey of the Activities of This Live Borough. Special to the Scranton Tribune. DUNMORE, Pa., Jan. 11.—It has been decided to continue the Gillam meetings next week for a few days. They have been productive of much good. This afternoon and evening the meetings were largely attended. Services will be held Friday at 3:30 and 7:30. In the evening a special people's service that promises to be very interesting. Notices regarding the meetings for next week will be made Sunday. Canvassers for THE TRIBUNE'S Encyclopedia Britannica are at work through this section and no one should miss the opportunity of examining this unrivalled work. Persons desiring to have notices, either personal or social, inserted in THE TRIBUNE, can do so by leaving same with Harry Spencer at Price's cash store.

MINOR TAYLOR HAPPENINGS.

News Chronicle of Twenty-Four Hours Briefly Given. Special to the Scranton Tribune. TAYLOR, Jan. 11.—The funeral of Thomas M. Hewells, of Randolph, took place Wednesday afternoon and was largely attended. Internment was made in Marer cemetery at Lackawanna. Mrs. Thomas X. Davis, of Barberton, who was dangerously ill, is improving. The commissioners appointed by court to divide a special people's service will meet Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Price Library hall to take testimony. Every citizen should be present and give his views on what he thinks will be the best lines of division.

DIRECTORS CLOSE THE SCHOOL.

Poor Attendance Leads to a Temporary Cessation of Work. Special to the Scranton Tribune. TAYLOR, Pa., Jan. 11.—Lackawanna township's school board has closed the high school room in the Central school. There have been many complaints to the directors regarding the principal of the school, Martin Joyce, and after investigation the directors decided to close the room for a short time owing to poor attendance. Mr. Joyce is now over the treatment and will go to court.

POOR BOARD STARTED THEM.

Members of Stranded Shackford Opera Company Reach Scranton. Special to the Scranton Tribune. CARBONDALE, Pa., Jan. 11.—The poor board of this city today purchased five tickets to Scranton for the remaining members of the stranded Shackford Opera company, who applied to the board for aid on Wednesday. Upon the members' arrival at Scranton they expect to receive assistance from friends.

BOILING WATER OVER HER.

Fatal Accident to a Little Girl Playing Near a Stove. Special to the Scranton Tribune. HONSDALE, Jan. 11.—Little May Everling, daughter of Peter Everling, living in Texas township, east of Traceyville, met an awful death at 5 o'clock last night. In some manner she pulled a pail of hot water from the stove upon her body, and was rightfully scalded.

BRIGHTER INDUSTRIAL OUTLOOK.

Three Honsdale Factories Resume and Another One Soon Will. Special to the Scranton Tribune. HONSDALE, Jan. 11.—Durland, Thompson & Co., Clark & Co., and John H. Wooden, have resumed operations in their respective factories. The Honsdale Shoe company will re-open next week.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

AN ANTI-GAMBLING CRUSADE.

Wilkes-Barre's Many Card Experts to Be Entreated to Reform. Special to the Scranton Tribune. WILKES-BARRE, Jan. 11.—This sudden city is to have an anti-gambling crusade. John P. Quinn, the celebrated rivalist, has been secured to hold a series of meetings. The first will be held next Sunday, and the crusade will continue three days under Mr. Quinn's supervision, and as much longer as it may be deemed expedient by local reformers to prosecute the work. Wilkes-Barre, some how or other, has won the reputation of being the gambling center of the coal fields. It is the endeavor of the Quinn movement to lead the large number of local "sports" into paths of righteousness.

COTTAGE PRAYER MEETINGS.

Two Will Be Held Tonight at Different Places. Special to the Scranton Tribune. CARBONDALE, Pa., Jan. 11.—Tomorrow evening will be held a cottage prayer meeting at the home of Joseph Wallace on Belmont street under the auspices of the Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church. There will also be a cottage prayer meeting at a home on Archbold street under the auspices of the Baptist Christian Endeavor society.

HOOD'S CURES

Scrofula for Seven Years—Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.
"A week devoted to writing would not be sufficient to tell of the good Hood's Sarsaparilla has done me. Seven years ago a running sore appeared on my ankle, which grew worse until it entirely covered my foot and the bones came out of my toes. Then the sores appeared on my other foot, right arm and hand. Hoies were eaten in my lower limbs, my arm was one great sore from the shoulder down, and the bones came out of two of my fingers. Wards cannot tell my sufferings. I could not sleep and had no appetite. About three years after the first appearance of the disease my husband read of what Hood's Sarsaparilla had done for others, and urged me to try it. I was confined to the bed at the time, had given up all hope. However, I commenced taking the medicine, and before I had finished the bottle I felt sleep, and not only eat, but enjoy my food. Now I am well."

SORES ARE ALL HEALED UP

with the exception of one spot on my limb. I thank God for having directed my husband's attention to Hood's Sarsaparilla, otherwise I should have been in my grave. I can now move about with the aid of crutches, and will always need their assistance, but anyone who had seen my condition when I commenced to take Hood's Sarsaparilla would marvel that I am now able to move at all." MISS MARY SPEAKMAN, 2725 Latona Street, Philadelphia.
