EDWARD STOCK.

country with his parents when little less than a year old. His boyhood days were spent on a farm in Ontario county in New York state.

During the progress of the civil war he enlisted in the Second regiment of Harris' New York Light Cavalry, in Custer's brigade, which was commanded by that distinguished soldier, the late General Sheridan.

He may well be proud of his magnificent record as a soldier. He came to Scranton in 1862, and worked at the Washburn mines afterwards known as the 'Cork and Bottle' for several years.

He is also a leading member in many of the fraternal societies of the city. His friends will present his name at the next Republican convention for the office of register of wills.

THE PUGILISTIC ENCOUNTER. Caused Nearly as Much Excitement as a Presidential Election.

Everywhere last evening the conversation was upon the prize fight between Fitzsimmons and Corbett. Great crowds of men and boys gathered early in the evening to hear and discuss the men who had met and fought at Carson City. In the stores, business was suspended for the nonce so that each bit of news which might have some new bearing could be digested.

Not since the night of November 3, 1896, when the presidential election returns were coming in has the West Side had so much excitement crowded into one evening, and it was St. Patrick's day, too, so that many who were out for a good time were in the mood to help push along a good thing.

WHAT SHALL I BUY? That's the question that's puzzling hundreds of our young men today, Spring Clothing. A word to you who have been patronizing the cheap merchant tailor. He may be sincere in telling you how cheap he is selling you your clothes. But did you ever stop to think of the disadvantages he labors under? Buying cloth in small quantities from jobbers who must have a profit. Paying, as he must, several profits on trimmings, etc. No wonder he can't compete with our ready-made clothing, made by manufacturers who own their own mills for making the cloth. Cut by the best cutters, to whom they pay wages that no small concern could stand for a minute. Designed by experts who really make the style and shapes your merchant tailor tries to imitate. They fit right, too, because the first-class ready made clothing of today is cut on proper lines. It isn't the tape measure that makes the fit; remember that, let us try to fit you. We'll succeed if you're not positively deformed. Special suits for slim and stout people, spring clothing is here and on show. OUR $15.00 SUIT Here's a suit to set you thinking, you who want good clothes. Not the cheapest in the store. High grade goods such as your tailor sells you at a bargain (??) for $25.00. All the popular shades of brown in checks and plaids. Best of trimmings. Suits that look right, set right and wear right. Stop in and have a look at 'em today. OUR $16.00 OVERCOAT. The English Box. This is the proper thing for well dressed men this spring. Benjamin Box coats, short and natty. In wood colors, silk lined. This we quote for style, not as an example of our cheapest coat. Equal to anything your tailor shows you for $25.00. Yet these are only $16. SAMTER BROTHERS. We'd be glad to have you come and 'only look'

PECKVILLE.

The Warapha council, Degree of Pochantons, will hold their regular meeting in the Ledyard hall on Friday evening, March 19, at 7:30 sharp. A full attendance is desired, as business of importance is to be transacted. Mrs. Agnes Hartman, chief of records.

The Young People's society of the Methodist Episcopal church, which numbers fifty members, gave a reception to the members of the official board of the church and their wives last evening in the church parlors. At the time that this beautiful new edifice was about to be constructed two years ago these young people pledged themselves to pay for the carpeting of the church and furnish the chandeliers and several other articles which amounted to $620.95, of which the last dollar was paid the first of this month. They decided that they would celebrate their achievement in the manner above stated. This society has labored hard and zealous to carry out what they have accomplished and it is hoped that the official board and congregation will appreciate their good work. The following programme was prepared for the occasion: Violin solo, Dr. E. E. Peet; accompanist, Miss Etta Budd; recitation, Miss Louise Craig; guitar solo, Miss Isabella Ganzemuller; vocal solo, Miss Lou Mace; cornet solo, J. C. Patterson; accompanist, Miss Lou Mace; recitation, Miss Jennie Stearns; violin solo, Dr. E. E. Peck, Mr. R. C. Lintner, president of the society, gave the following statement of all contributions taken in and what was laid out and then invited all present to be seated to the tables which were elaborately spread with all the dainties of the season, including ice cream and fruit.

OBITUARY. Mrs. Anne Dever, relict of the late Thomas Dever, died at the home of her son-in-law, Hon. W. W. Woodley, 62 North Main avenue, early yesterday morning. Death was due to failure to rally from a severe attack of la grippe, which was aggravated by the fact being over 67 years of age. Although sick but six days, she retained her senses to the last. Mrs. Dever had the distinction of being the first child born in the new city of Carbondale, having first seen the light of day Sept. 1, 1828. Her father, Thomas Millen, was employed by the old Lehigh and Susquehanna Trading Post company as a carpenter, and probably built the first grist mill sent over to Honorable Mrs. Dever was married in Carbondale in 1845, afterward residing in Wyoming, and a short time, and then going back to Carbondale. She took up her residence in Scranton in November, 1866, living here continuously ever since. Her daughter, Hannah, married Mr. Powderly in 1852, and Mrs. Dever made her home with them. She is survived by a brother, John Mullen, two sisters, Mrs. W. W. Woodley Collins; her daughters, Mrs. T. V. Powderly and Margaret, unmarried, and three sons, James and Albert Dever, of this city, and Charles Dever, of Carbondale. The funeral will be held Friday morning, at 9:30 in St. Patrick's church. Rev. J. H. Whelan officiating. Interment will be made in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

Mrs. Adolph Gilder, the oldest person in Luzerne county, died at noon Tuesday at Kingston, at the advanced age of 97 years. She had been in remarkably good health for one so old during the entire winter, and it was not until the past week that her health began to fail. About a week ago she took a cold which developed into pneumonia, and carried her away. During the day it was thought she had not long to live, and when the end came she was surrounded by the members of her family. Mrs. Gilder was born in Plymouth in 1800. Her maiden name was Abigail Barber, and her father was one of the early settlers of Plymouth. In the year 1838, she was married to Morris Gilder, formerly of Philadelphia, but then of Kingston. In Kingston she began her married life and since then it has been her home. Her children, which there were nine, were born there, married there, and nearly all of the living ones now reside there. In 1852 her husband, Morris Gilder, died and since then she has lived with her children. Mrs. Gilder was an attendant of the Methodist church.

Mrs. George Buckland died at her home, at Waymart, March 11, aged 87 years. Her maiden name was Betsy Tennant. She was born in New London, Conn., and was a sister of the late John A. Tennant, of Clinton, and the daughter of Charles Tennant, one of the pioneer settlers of Wayne county. In the early days of the gravity she and her husband kept the boarding house at Keen's station, the place now being the residence of Lewis Lewis. Deceased was survived by one daughter, Mrs. Angie Hudson, of Waymart, and three sons, Dwight and Ward, of Waymart, and Henry, of Texas. Two of her brothers, Lyman and John A. Tennant, died within the past year, the only survivor of the family being a sister, Mrs. Jane Carpenter, who lives in Illinois.

The funeral of George W. Mortimer, the oldest member of the Improved Order of Red Men in the coal region, took place at 10:30 yesterday afternoon at the home, and was largely attended. Mortimer was a charter member of Seneca Tribe, No. 4, the oldest in that part of the state. He was 74 years of age, and had been a Red Man for forty-one years. He came to Peckville in 1832, when deer and other wild game abounded in what is now the heart of the town.

Mrs. Richard Evans, of 43 Beck street, Bellevue, died yesterday morning at her home. The deceased was well known and had many estimable qualities which endeared her to all her friends. Death was due to a complication of diseases. Her husband and three children, Mary, Ellen, Sarah Jane and David John survive her. The funeral will occur on Saturday from the house and interment will be made in Washburn Street cemetery.

A dispatch from Bloomsburg says: Death has claimed four well-known residents of Columbia county, who arrived here reached the three score and ten mark. Henry Edwards, of East First street, aged 78 years; Robert Purcell, of North Main street, aged 75 years; a Mr. Williams, of Orangeville, aged 70 years; and Ezra S. Lyons, of Pine Summit, aged 70 years.

Mrs. Ann Bouton, an octogenarian, died at the home of John F. Blake, in Manchester, a few days ago. She was a widow of the late Rev. W. S. Bouton, a Methodist minister, who lived in this city while pastor of Grace church, at Newburgh, N. Y., a sister of Dr. Isaiah Scudder and aunt of Mrs. C. F. Rockwell, of this place. Her funeral was held on Tuesday.

Mary, the 11-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lawler, of Jessup, died on Tuesday morning at 2 o'clock. Interment will be in the Olyphant Catholic cemetery.

Mrs. John J. McDivitt died at the home of her father, Mr. Turner, in Lebanon, on Friday morning last. The funeral was held on Sunday. She was about 25 years of age and had been married about two years.

John W. Bellamy died of consumption at his home, in Dybbury, on Friday morning last, aged 44 years, 8 months. The funeral was held on Sunday.
