Greatest Circus On Golden Jubilee Tour

Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Combined Celebrating Ringling Brothers' 50th Anniversary With Mighty Spectacle, Hundreds of New Features, Including Royal Padang Giraffe—Neck Women From Burma.

The Greatest Show on Earth, Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Combined Circus—this season celebrating the Golden Jubilee of the Ringling Brothers who fifty years ago began their triumphal march to world circus supremacy—is definitely scheduled to exhibit in Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 12.

Outstanding among the almost countless new features of the Golden Jubilee gala performances is the most magnificent opening spectacle ever produced by this colossal among amusement enterprises. It is an authentic and dazzling reproduction of The Durbar, the world famous coronation ceremonial at Delhi, India. The Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Pageantry, opulent and staggering in its immensity, employs over 2,000 people and animals, including fifty elephants in gem-studded coronation robes and lavish headdresses. East Indian Marimbo and British Imperial foot guard bands, scores of festival tongas, bearing rajahs and ranees, will be in the van of the pagant. A golden temple, designed by Gandhi Moodi of Dem, ornate ceremonial cars and gorgeous royal howdahs add immeasurably to the splendor of The Durbar.

Vying with the resplendent impressiveness of The Durbar is the most unusual and weird importation that even The Greatest Show on Earth ever brought out of the Orient—the Royal Padang giraffe-neck women from Burma. These strange oriental women, with their incredibly long necks encircled with brass and copper rings, carrying sixty pounds of copper ornaments on their arms and legs, are unbelievably aloof from all mankind. They are like no other racial group in all the teeming East. The rings soldered upon their necks, are constantly superimposed from infancy, until maturity, until these sloe-eyed oriental beauties resemble nothing so much as the giraffe. Never was so sensational a feature

Limit On Food Prices Planned

Washington—Limitation of the wholesale and retail prices of food will be considered when the master code of the food and grocery industry comes up for hearing October 9.

Although farmers' purchasing power declined three points in September compared with August, prices paid by farmers for the articles they purchased increased four points in the same period. The Department of Agriculture said the decline in farm prices was general. By paying an additional 20 per cent for representative foods, consumers have made possible a 50 per cent increase in payments to farmers, Dr. Fred C. Howe, consumers' counsel of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, reported.

The increases in retail and farm prices occurred between February and August 29.

BRONZE AGE CLOAK FOUND

Stockholm—A cloak, made in the Bronze Age, has been uncovered in the peat bogs of Sweden. Experts determined the age of the garment by examining pollen grains in the yarn. The plants are known to have grown for indefinite periods.
