RECENT DEATHS.

MINNIE K. RECK.

Death, like an untimely frost, has entered another of Tiouesta's happy homes and has fallen "Upon the sweetest flower the joy and pride of a father's heart, the tenderest object of a mother's love, has passed the bounds in the early morning, and has fallen asleep with God watching over till the day dawns. An angle whisper came and the seal of silence has been put on the lips of one who was wont to one of her years. But "Life is not measured by the time we live," and the beautiful traits of the sweet young life that has gone from us, have added a richer strain to the song of many lives and the name of Compound! Minnie K. Reck will still live in the hearts of multitudes who are left behind. Miss Reck, who was a daughter of J. D. W. Reck and Alma Neal Reck, was born at Tionesta, July 3, 1879, and, with the exception of a few years' residence in McKean county, has known no other home. Her life has been a singularly bright and happy one. With unusual gifts and cheerful disposition, from her childhood, she has been very much beloved. She was fortunate in baving excellent opportunities for improvement and at fifteen graduated with honors from the Bradford public school. In 1897, when scarcely eighteen, she was one of two who formed the first class to graduate from the Tionesta High School. The course at that time embraced the curriculum of the college preparatory, and Miss Reck and her classmate passed the highest of any who have since graduated, they having received credit of over 97 per cent, from State Superintendent Schaeffer. In 1899 she also graduated with honors from the Art Department of the Fredonia State Normal School, and, as her body lay on a silken couch in her home, it was surrounded by fine pieces of her handiwork. She excelled as a musician and enobled her fine talents by a pure life and noblecharacter.

Beautiful and accomplished and a young woman of remarkable judgment, her companionship was pleasant and inspiriting. But her life was soon made perfect. A fatal disease secretly fastened its hold upon her young life, and it has only been within the last four weeks that her parents even dreamed of the unpleas-John Sweet and Wash. The that love could prompt and skill could accomplish were done, but her life seemed to lie in an uneven balance until Friday when a marked change appeared, Two weeks from Monday comes the and, at 2:00 o'clock Saturday morning, 4th, then a lot of big heads, and sore ones, the spirit embarked in the unseen ship and she was heard exclaim, "Home!

Home at last!" The tuneral services were held Tues day afternoon, June 21, in the Presbypastor, Rev. R. W. Illingwortn, assisted by Rev. O. H. Nickle of the Methodist Episcopal church. Everything was beantiful, without ostentation-the flowers, prayers, music and address. Four young ladies, special friends of Miss Reck, acted as honorary pall bearers and were Misses Christine Agnew, Kathleen Joyce, Marie Smearbaugh and Emma Lawrence. The Dale, and L. Fulton. The floral offerings were especially beautiful, among which were handsome pieces from Tionesta High School Alumni, of which Miss Reck was a member, and the Y. P. S. C. E. Heavenly Father to claim our earthly kind parest whose death we deeply mourn, yet our loss is his eternal gain, Too much cannot be said of his love and kindness while here on this drear earth, to those about his home, and the interest he always took in the future comfort of wife and children, and which was particularly shown during the last year of his life. Therefore we are bereft of a very sffecionate, dear and kind parent. For months prior to his death he very often spoke of his short stay on earth and his desire of heaven. He did not desire temporary relief which would only protong his life and suffering, but expressed himwill to take him, and he looked only to the beautiful smiles at his last moments. It pictures to us the loveliness of peace and happiness, and proved to us the joy they are to enjoy. Almost his last words were, "Going up higher, and the time seemed so long."
