REVOLUTION IN RUSSIA.

Czar Appoints Count Witte Minister-Premier With Full Power.

Whiteman and Boothman Sentenced. Five Mine Officials Killed—President Roosevelt at Sea—Jerome Nominated by Republicans—Increased Franchise Valuations.

While the Russian capital is outwardly calm, developments in the strikes all indicate that a crisis is imminent. Although the streets are filled with troops and reinforcements are now pouring in from Finland, the government seems utterly powerless to cope with the situation and many calm observers seem seriously to believe that the present regime is tottering to its fall.

Differences have developed between Count Witte and General Trepoff and while the pretensions moments pass the emperor, surrounded by the imperial family, remains shut up at Peterhof seemingly still hesitating as to what course to pursue.

The government and the Liberals are at a loss to know whose is the contriving brain behind the great strike. The directing hand is invisible, though its workings are plainly evident. It is thought the strike may have been directed from Switzerland or Germany and executed here through the Social Democratic organization, in which representatives of the workmen and the students are equally active.

Whiteman and Boothman Sentenced. Alonzo J. Whiteman, leader of what the Pinkerton detectives have designated the Knox-Whiteman gang of forgers, got practically the limit from Justice Kenefick at Buffalo. The limit for the offense for which Whiteman was convicted, grand larceny in the first degree, is 10 years at hard labor. He got eight years and five months.

Whiteman's accomplice, Joseph Boothman, was then sentenced for five years and eight months. The crime of which both Whiteman and Boothman were convicted was the swindling of the Fidelity Trust company by depositing a raised draft and drawing against this fictitious account. The indictment charged them both with the specific theft of $750. As a matter of fact, they got about $5,000, and were making a move to get the balance of the deposit, $4,000, when the forgery was detected.

Three Railroad Rate Bills. The official call for the meeting of the full senate committee on interstate commerce on Nov. 21 was issued at Washington by Chairman Elkins, and the fact came out that Senator Foraker's bill will not necessarily embody the committee's views on rate legislation.

Postoffice Moves in a Minute. At noon on Saturday the windows where public business had been transacted at the temporary postoffice in Michigan avenue at Chicago were shut, and simultaneously the same departments were opened at the new Federal building. At one moment the intricate mail business was going on at one place, the next instant it was in operation blocks away, without confusion or interruption. For weeks the removal of the physical effects of the postoffice has been going on.

Hoch Doubts Texas Justice. Governor Hoch of Kansas has declined to honor a requisition from the governor of Texas for the return of Charles Evans, a negro, charged with shooting a white man, saying: "I believe that it is a good thing for Texas that Evans be not returned there. All the testimony in the case tends to show that if the negro were returned to Texas some serious harm would come to him."

Flammer Withdraws From Contest. Charles A. Flammer has announced his resignation as Republican candidate for district attorney of New York county and has appealed to the members of the party to support the candidacy of William Travers Jerome.

Increase in Franchise Valuations. The total valuation of special franchises in New York state by the board of tax commissioners is $356,829,555, as compared with $302,688,757 a year ago. New York city accounts for $302,193,550 of this total, an increase over the 1904 valuations of $50,672,100.

ARMED MURDER IN BANK VULT.

At Chicago, Ill., William Leduc, a farmer, enraged over domestic affairs, on Saturday shot dead Mayor Charles Nickel, his brother-in-law, in the Bank of Chicago; shot dead Hugh Jones, a brick mason; wounded two pedestrians, and dragging Jones' body into the bank vault, partly closed the door and defied officers and citizens, with whom he exchanged scores of shots.

An armed crowd gathered in the bank to capture the slayer, but Leduc would allow no one to come within range of his weapon. Leduc told officers that Jones was dead. Ammonia and chloroform were used plentifully in an attempt to overcome Leduc, but the party open door admitted enough air to offset the effect of the drugs.

Late at night Leduc surrendered to the sheriff and the dead body of Jones was removed to the morgue. Reargument For Patrick Denied. The court of appeals of New York state has denied the motion for a reargument of the appeal of Albert T. Patrick from conviction of murder in the first degree and sentence of death for the killing in 1900 of William M. Rice, an aged millionaire of New York city. The motion now denied was made Oct. 2 by former United States Senator David B. Hill.

It is impossible to forecast the future of this case, which is recognized as perhaps the most remarkable in the criminal history of this state. Whether the United States supreme court will accept jurisdiction by recognizing the presence in the case of any federal question, or having accepted it, how its judgment will affect the final disposition of the convicted man, are questions upon which learned lawyers express widely divergent opinions.

Five Mine Officials Killed. Five minor officials of the Pittsburgh and Westmoreland Coal company gave up their lives Sunday when they entered the Hazel Kirk mine No. 1 of the east of Pittsburgh, to ascertain if a portion of the mine was still burning as a result of an explosion two weeks ago.

Development in Toroso Mystery. That the dismembered body that was found in a dress suit case at Winthrop, Mass., on September 21 is that of the girl's family and friends, and of the Boston police department. Miss Geary, who was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Geary, was a chorus girl of "The Shepard King" company and was known on the stage as Ethel Durrell. She was 21 year of age.

House Where Roosevelt Was Born. In the house in which President Roosevelt was born at 28 East 20th street, New York, the 47th anniversary of the president's birth was celebrated Friday night at a banquet attended by a hundred members of the Roosevelt Home club with invited guests.

Reign of Terror in Caucasus. Grozny, Russia, Oct. 31.—A reign of terror prevails in Northern Caucasus. It is charged that the authorities are pursuing the policy of turning one class of the population against another and are abetting the brigands who Sunday night robbed and sacked a train, killing 12 persons and wounding 10. When the train arrived the crowds dragged out and killed three brigands and then drove the commander of the Cossacks out of town.

Thoughts Will Establish Order. Ithaca, Oct. 31.—Dr. Andrew D. White, former ambassador to Russia, when asked for his opinion regarding the manifesto of Emperor Nicholas and the appointment of Count Witte as minister-president, said: "I can only say that, judging from what I saw of Count Witte in Russia and what I have observed regarding him since then, we have great reason to hope he will establish order and the beginning of constitutional liberty."

Wanted to See Sparks Fly. Franklin, Pa., Oct. 31.—Eugene Roach, aged 15, son of Sylvester Roach, climbed an electric pole to show his younger brother how the sparks flew when he touched his penknife to the wire.

Electric Engine Killed a Laborer. Schenectady, Oct. 31.—While on a speed test, running at the rate of 65 miles an hour, electric engine No. 6,000 ran down Rafaelo De Lorenzo, a track employee, near Hardin's Crossing, knocking him 50 feet in the air and killing him instantly. De Lorenzo was employed in driving stakes and was on his knees leaning over the rail when the electric engine ran him down.

Mother of 20 at 41. Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 31.—Mrs. Clara Krauss of Coal City yesterday became the mother of her 20th child. Mrs. Krauss is 41 years old and has been married 25 years. There are no twins in her family.

STRUCK A LOOSE RAIL.

Passenger Train Ditched Within Limits of Kansas City.

Thirteen People Killed and 30 Injured. Mail Car Jumped the Track and Struck Stone Wall and Other Car Ploughed Through the Wreckage and Piled In a Heap.

The wreck occurred at Rock Creek on a curve, where jagged rock walls on each side of the track form a bluff at most 100 feet high. The locomotive was going so rapidly that it passed the loose rail in safety. The mail car immediately behind jumped the track and struck the side of the bluff and the four cars following ploughed through the wreckage and shot against the high stone wall. The sides of the coaches were crushed against the rough stone, killing and wounding passengers and trainmen.

The smoking car, a chair car and a tourist sleeping car and two express cars left the rails. Three tourist sleeping cars, two standard Pullmans and the dining car remained on the track. The smoking car split the baggage car ahead of it, just below the floor line and the baggage car landed on top of the crushed smoking car.

None in the passenger cars which remained on the track was hurt. The injured were given emergency treatment and later were brought to hospitals here. It is reported that all the injured will recover. Most of them were immigrants riding in the chair car and the smoking car.

The dead: Roy Stafford, Cleveland, Lee D. Montgomery, Linneus, Mo.; John Seymour, Richmond, Mo.; John McGregor, Fort Madison, Ia.; Michael Schneider, Chicago; J. P. Whittemore, Carrollton, Mo.; J. F. Capps, baggage man, Chicago; Carl Emiloren, immigrant from Naples; Romero Pecci, immigrant from Naples; Adrian Pecci, immigrant from Northern, colored water; Luther Richardson, colored water; William Harrison, colored, porter.

The injured include: Ralph Reinhardt, 30 Sherman street, Buffalo, N. Y., leg broken; George Klies, Buffalo, arm broken; William Noverski, Montreal, Canada, cuts on head.

NEXT TUESDAY'S ELECTIONS. Will Be Held in Seven States and Seven of the Larger Cities. New York, Oct. 31.—Elections will be held Tuesday, Nov. 7, in seven states and seven of the larger cities in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Virginia and Ohio a governor and other state officers are to be chosen, and in Pennsylvania, Maryland and Nebraska minor state officers, judges or regents of the state university.

In New York, Buffalo, Indianapolis, Louisville, Salt Lake and San Francisco a mayor and other city officers and in Chicago sanitary trustees and judges are to be voted for.

The Democrats and Populists have fused in Nebraska, the Republicans and Democrats against the Union Labor party in San Francisco, and the Republicans and other parties against the Democrats in Louisville.

In Pennsylvania there has been a miscellaneous indorsement of the Republican and Democratic candidates. The prohibitionists have a ticket in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Ohio, Nebraska, New York, Indianapolis and Chicago; the Socialists in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Nebraska, Virginia, New York and Indianapolis; the Municipal Ownership party in New York, and the American party in Salt Lake.

There are six candidates for mayor in New York and four in Indianapolis.

Reign of Terror in Caucasus. Grozny, Russia, Oct. 31.—A reign of terror prevails in Northern Caucasus. It is charged that the authorities are pursuing the policy of turning one class of the population against another and are abetting the brigands who Sunday night robbed and sacked a train, killing 12 persons and wounding 10. When the train arrived the crowds dragged out and killed three brigands and then drove the commander of the Cossacks out of town.

NEW YORK STATE.

Has a Population of 8,066,672, an Increase in Five Years of 797,778.

Albany, Oct. 31.—There are now 8,066,672 people in New York state. These figures were announced by the state enumeration bureau, which has been at work since June 1 under the law and the appropriation made by the last legislature.

In 1900 the population was 7,268,894 and in 1890, 6,063,174, including Indians and other persons on Indian reservations. The population of the state has increased therefore during the past five years 797,778 or 11 per cent, as against an increase during the preceding decade of 1,265,720, or 21.1 per cent.

The population of the state in 1905 and 1900 respectively is distributed by counties as follows:

Morris Nathan on Verge of Collapse. Pittsburgh, Oct. 31.—Morris Nathan, secretary to the manager of "The Shepherd King" company, who is held by the police here in connection with the Winthrop, Mass., suit case mystery, is on the verge of a collapse. He has admitted to the police that he had been intimate with Miss Geary, the chorus girl who was murdered, and said that they had been engaged to be married. Nathan stated that he was not aware of the girl's condition. He said he overheard a conversation between Miss Geary and two other chorus girls, in which one of the girls advised Miss Geary to go to a house in Tremont street, Boston, for treatment. Nathan said he was not responsible for her going there.

Cleveland Sets Morton Tree. Nebraska City, Neb., Oct. 31.—Yesterday afternoon Grover Cleveland planted a white ash tree beside the monument which was Saturday unveiled to the memory of J. Sterling Morton. The tree was one which Mr. Morton, in the last year of his life, planted in a remote part of his park. Mr. Cleveland personally uprooted the tree, dug the hole near the monument and set the tree in place. Taking a spade he threw a few shovels of earth into the hole and then handed the spade to Joy Morton, who did the same. Paul Morton followed, then Mark Morton, and in succession all the grandchildren, nephews, nieces and immediate relatives took part in the ceremony.

Thinks Witte Will Establish Order. Ithaca, Oct. 31.—Dr. Andrew D. White, former ambassador to Russia, when asked for his opinion regarding the manifesto of Emperor Nicholas and the appointment of Count Witte as minister-president, said: "I can only say that, judging from what I saw of Count Witte in Russia and what I have observed regarding him since then, we have great reason to hope he will establish order and the beginning of constitutional liberty."

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Summary of the Week's News of the World.

Cream of the News Cut From Long Dispatches and Pulled in Proper Shape for the Hurried Reader Who is Too Busy to Read the Longer Reports and Desires to Keep Posted.

Notes for $600,000 are said to be missing from the Enterprise National bank of Allegheny, Pa., now in a receiver's hands. Serious riots occurred in Santiago de Chile, many persons being killed and hundreds wounded in street charges by the police.

Two thousand dollars was awarded the crew of the Pacific mail liner Siberia by E. H. Harriman for bringing the vessel into port from Yokohama in record-breaking time. Baron Speck von Sternberg, who is returning to his post of German ambassador at Washington, characterizes the Anglo-Japanese treaty as a Monroe doctrine for the Far East.

Seven robbers blew open a bank safe at Ridgeville, Ind., took $6,000 and escaped after a running fight with the townspeople. Mr. Russell, United States minister to Venezuela, has been commissioned to arrange the Franco-Venezuelan diplomatic incident.

Attorney General Moody directed the United States district attorney in Pittsburgh to investigate the failure of the Enterprise National bank of Allegheny, Pa. William Clapsaddle, a farmer residing at South Hill, Herkimer county, N. Y., fell from an apple tree, breaking his neck and dying instantly. He was 75 years old.

It was proved that the Mutual Life maintains a publicity bureau for the purpose of providing favorable reports of the present inquiry to certain newspapers at a dollar a line. Trustees of the Mutual Life insurance company decided to make a thorough investigation into the affairs of the concern.

William Farley, father of W. W. Farley, chairman of the Broome county Democratic committee, died at Binghamton as the result of a kick from a horse. An immense subterranean channel which promises to surpass in size and beauty the "Mammoth Cave," has been discovered near Glasgow Junction, Barren county, Ky.

Railway strikes now practically cover all of European Russia; the czar at Peterhof is cut off from the capital, while St. Petersburg, Moscow and Warsaw are each isolated. Albert Cone, a traveling salesman, was almost instantly killed at Batavia by being thrown from his buggy in a runaway accident on Main street.

It was decided by the Republican convention to place Jerome's name on the ticket instead of that of Flammer for district attorney of New York county. A dispatch from Havana relates a sensational story of a plot against the independence of Cuba, in which the American minister was alleged to be involved.

As penalty for running over and killing a girl with his automobile, Elliott F. Shepard was sentenced by a Paris court to three months' imprisonment, $120 fine and $4,000 damages to the parents of the girl. The lighthouse tender Magnolia, on which the president left New Orleans, collided with the fruit steamer Esparta and both vessels were damaged. The president and party reached the cruiser West Virginia and are on way to Washington.

The Spanish cruiser Cardinal Cisneros sank Saturday morning off Muros on the Galician coast, after running on a rock. Former President Grover Cleveland spoke against the money evil at the unveiling of the J. Sterling Morton monument at Nebraska City, Neb. Datto Ali, leader of the Mindanao moros, and 11 of his followers have been killed by a detachment from the 22nd infantry and the Fourth cavalry. W. H. Andrews, delegate to congress from New Mexico, has been sued for $52,000 in connection with the failure of the Enterprise National bank of Allegheny, Pa.

The cry of revolution has been raised openly in Russia, trouble is spreading in the provinces, and martial law has been proclaimed in many places. The great railway strike paralyzes the country. Prominent citizens in both parties in New York formed an organization to bring about laws to prevent fraud at elections. An Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe train was derailed near Sheffield, Mo., and 13 persons were killed and 25 injured yesterday. The body of Henry J. Block, cashier of the Citizens' bank of Buffalo, was found at Yorkville, near Utica, with a bullet hole in his head. He is believed to have committed suicide. George W. Brandis, first lieutenant in the First United States infantry, now stationed at Fort Porter, Buffalo, committed suicide by shooting himself through the heart in his bedroom in the officers' quarters.

BANK SCANDAL SPREADING.

Cashier Clark of Enterprise National Short $300,000 in Accounts.

Pittsburg, Oct. 30.—Development in the affairs of the Enterprise National bank of Allegheny City were sensational. Receiver John B. Cunningham entered suit against W. H. Andrews, territorial delegate from New Mexico, for $52,000, charging him with fraudulently conspiring with F. R. Nichols, his private secretary, and Lee Clark, the dead cashier of the bank, unlawfully to procure funds by the proceeds of negotiable paper. It is intimated that other suits involving prominent persons are to be entered in the case.

It was reported that a shortage of $200,000 had been discovered in the accounts of Cashier Clark. This amount is supposed to have been loaned out without security, no records being made of the transactions. It was further discovered, it is said, that loans were made without proper security to other prominent persons in this section and that the evidence gathered by the examiners is so complete that it is almost sufficient ground for the prosecution of the persons involved.

Every day brings additional evidence of missing collateral pledged for loans in the Enterprise National bank and in many instances it is believed these securities have been rehypothecated. When several persons called to pay their loans, Receiver Cunningham found that the collateral which should have been attached to the notes was missing and the borrowers refused to pay the notes unless the collateral was returned.

More of Express Messenger Cunliffe's Body Found by the Detectives. Pittsburgh, Oct. 30.—Superintendent H. J. Biderman of a detective agency went to the home of Edward Cunliffe the Adams Express robber, Saturday, and in the lining of a baby carriage found a package containing $5,000 of the $101,000 stolen on Oct. 9.

On the night Cunliffe was brought here from Bridgeport, Conn., where he was captured, he made a written confession to the authorities that he had given his wife $5,000. Mrs. Cunliffe, who in the meantime had moved to her father's home at Hartford, Conn., denied that she had the money. She was repeatedly questioned, however, and told the detectives at Hartford where the money could be found.

The authorities say that there now remains about $6,000 not accounted for. Killed Girl Wife and Himself. Philadelphia, Oct. 30.—Within five minutes after he had sent a bullet through the brain of his girl wife, Albert Hennerle jumped on a street car and to escape the vengeance of a furious mob, blew out his brains. Hennerle had left his wife, Alice, the daughter of a detective, lying upon the pavement on Marshall street below Columbia avenue, where she had fallen when he had fired a bullet into her temple. One or two of the crowd running after the car shouted after the conductor, calling him to stop the car. The conductor pulled the bell and as he did so Hennerle raised the revolver to his forehead and pulled the trigger.

Proposed New Trade Agreement. Berlin, Oct. 30.—A conference took place Monday regarding the proposed new trade agreement with the United States. It was attended by 90 representatives of important commercial interests, including delegates from 25 chambers of commerce, 30 economic societies, the Hamburg-American Co and the General Electric company. Representatives of the foreign office, the interior department and the Prussian ministry of commerce also were present and asked suggestions as to the lines that Germany's requests to the United States should take.

Escaped With Torn Trousers. Sharon, Pa., Oct. 30.—John Hatchford, former police lieutenant of South Sharon, had a miraculous escape from death at the Carnegie works Saturday. He was working about the machinery when his coat became fastened in the shafting. He was picked up bodily and whirled around like a top a dozen times and then thrown violently to the floor. Fellow workmen rushed to him expecting to find him dead, but he got on his feet and asked for another pair of trousers, for the ones he had on had been torn to ribbons.

Rogers Trapped in Boiler. East Liverpool, O., Oct. 30.—While inspecting a boiler at the Walker plant of the American Sewer Pipe company, G. T. J. Rogers of Pittsburgh employed by the Maryland Casualty company, was terribly scalded and had a narrow escape from being cooked alive because steam was accidentally turned on. Harry Zimmerman Shot to Death. Altoona, Pa., Oct. 30.—The body of Harry Zimmerman, aged 18, who lived near Altoona, was found in a field near his home. He had gone hunting and, falling to return, a search was made. He had been killed by a load from his own shotgun, supposedly discharged by accident.

Elevator Fell Into Cellar. Cincinnati, Oct. 30.—An elevator carrying seven employees of the Globe Tailoring company fell seven stories to the sub-basement Saturday, causing probably fatal injuries to four of its passengers.
