

WILL ADVOCATE EQUAL STANDARDS

Council of Women Adopts Mrs. Shaw's Plans.

MRS. SWIFT IS RE-ELECTED

Again President of Organization—Mrs. Bailey New Corresponding Secretary.

The National Council of Women of the United States today re-elected all its officers save one, by almost unanimous votes, on the motion of the Rev. Anna Shaw, decided to form a standing committee to work for the political and moral equal standards for women.

This afternoon the committee on resolutions will pass on various proposed resolutions, which will be laid before the council tomorrow morning.

The election today was made by informal written ballots containing the individual delegates' choice for the respective offices. The votes were as follows:

President—Mrs. Mary Wood Swift, of San Francisco, 34; Mrs. May Wright Sewall, 2.

Vice president—Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett, of Alexandria, Va., 23; the Rev. Anna Shaw, 7; Mrs. Mary A. Davis, 3; Mrs. Frances E. Burns, 2.

Corresponding secretary—Mrs. Belinda Bailey, of San Francisco, 27; Mrs. Josie Nelson, 5; Mrs. Flo Jamison Miller, 1.

Recording secretary—Mrs. Frances E. Burns, of St. Louis, Mich., 28; Mrs. Josie Nelson, 1; Mrs. Pauline Steinmann, 1; Mrs. Lydia Monroe, 1.

Treasurer—Mrs. Lillian Hollister, 27; Mrs. Josie Nelson, 2.

As soon as the informal ballot in each case was announced by the tellers the council, on motions put by delegates, moved that the unanimous vote be cast for those candidates who had received the greater number of ballots, which was done.

Declines Re-election.

Mrs. Flo Jamison Miller, who has been the corresponding secretary for the past three years, was practically assured of re-election, but refused it on the ground that she was not certain she would be with the council at its next meeting. President Swift, after expressing regret, suggested that it would be better if she could have a corresponding secretary near her. She then recommended Mrs. Bailey for the position, and that lady was immediately elected by a large majority. This puts both the presidency and the corresponding secretaryship in San Francisco.

Mrs. Swift, in accepting the presidency for another term, said: "I want delegates and officers to pledge me one thing. This is that they will make every endeavor to bring into the council new organizations."

For Equal Moral Standards.

At the conclusion of the voting for officers, the Rev. Anna Shaw moved that a standing committee be appointed to work for the political equality and civil rights of women, the committee to correspond to the similar committee appointed by the International Committee of Women in Berlin.

Mrs. Foster seconded the motion with the remark that she thought it marked an epoch in the affairs of the council.

"I was obliged to see such action taken by the council in Berlin," said Miss Susan B. Anthony. Mrs. May Wright Sewall said the new committee should devote itself to abolishing the "white slave traffic," as one of the paths toward securing equal moral standing.

Mrs. Foster, while agreeing that the committee should work against the "white slave traffic," said that phrase should not be included in the name of the committee. This suggestion was adopted. The committee will be formally named later.

The remainder of the session was devoted to passing on minor amendments to the constitution.

Although the committee on resolutions refuses to disclose the wording of the measure, which it will lay before the council tomorrow morning, it is understood that there will be one protesting against polygamy, one urging an international peace arbitration pact, and one on the subject of the "white slave traffic."

A member of the committee told a Times reporter today that the report saying the committee would have a resolution condemning President Roosevelt's race suicide views was false.

The session this afternoon will be given up to the reports from affiliated organizations, and this evening addresses will be made by Mrs. J. Ellen Foster on "Domestic Relations," Willoughby Cummings, editor of the International Bulletin, on "Our International Relations," and Mrs. May Wright Sewall, on "The Spirit of Internationalism."

Pleas for Suffrage.

At the session last night the Rev. Anna Shaw and Miss Susan B. Anthony spoke on the question of allowing women the suffrage right, both claiming that the time is near for women to declare their political equality with men and to secure the voting right.

"We want to be let in with the men," was the characteristic way Miss Anthony expressed the situation.

J. A. McElway, speaking of the need for national legislation on child labor conditions, said:

"I am not in favor of national legislation on this subject, despite the fact that I represent a national committee. We should have to wait for an amendment to the National Constitution, and we cannot afford to wait that long. Then, too, the announcement of any such program would divert the minds of men from the crying evil itself to the discussion of a far-off and perhaps unattainable method of reaching it. The evil belongs to that class that will go unrebuked, law or no law, unless there is a local sentiment behind the enforcement of the law."

In the afternoon reports were heard from the local councils in various States. Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett, of Alexandria, Va., spoke of the work done by the Florence Crittenton Mission in the salvation of young girls.

VISITING WASHINGTON.

Harry Roberts, of New York City, the general manager of the Goodyear Raincoat Company's several stores through the country, is in Washington to complete arrangements for the disposition of the stock of their local branch at 1228 F street, as half of their store has been sub-rented to another large manufacturing concern.

HARD DAY'S CANVASS PRODUCES ONLY $175

Gloom Prevails at the Headquarters of the Young Men's Christian Association Committees.

With only $175 secured yesterday after a hard day's canvass, there is an unmistakable gloom prevailing over headquarters of the committees seeking to raise the $5,000 by May 1 necessary to complete the building and furnishing fund of the Young Men's Christian Association. "Money talks," Secretary Shaw recently told the Y. M. C. A. workers, and there is undoubtedly a prevailing silence. In the seventeen days remaining there is to be raised $50,700, and not including the conditional subscription of Messrs. Woodward & Lothrop of $25,000, there has only been secured to date $4,204.

Realizing the situation a meeting of the board of directors was held at the Ebbitt House this afternoon at 1 o'clock. After the luncheon plans for the campaign were reviewed. It was reported that a movement is under way to organize the committee of one hundred into groups of ten each, and already four groups have been formed. Little money has been secured from the committee, except the $1,000 contributed by Col. William C. Greene, of New York.

Few contributions have been sent in by the Young Men's Club of $10,000. One of the self-sacrificing instances, however, in the campaign, was that of a group of young men, leaders of the "gym" classes, who have laid aside each month a sum of money to defray expenses of a vacation trip. Without solicitation this has been turned over to the fund.

Mrs. Macfarland yesterday received a check for $100 from a person who is journeying in the city for only a few days. The Gurley Memorial Presbyterian Church has taken a room to furnish, as have also Mr. and Mrs. Frederick L. Moore. Tonight at 9 o'clock stereopticon views of the plans of Y. M. C. A. pictures will be shown at Foundry Methodist Church.

ARMY CHAPLAIN SEVERE KIDNEY AND BLADDER TROUBLE

Thousands of People Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It is Catarrh.

Mr. David L. Jaycox, Chaplain Clarinda, I. O. G. T., and Chaplain G. A. R., 865 Broadway, Oakland, Cal., writes: "I am an old war veteran. I contracted severe bladder and kidney trouble. I spent hundreds of dollars and consulted a host of doctors, but neither did me any good. 'Peruna has proven the best medicine I ever used. My pains are gone, and I believe myself to be cured. I feel well and would not be without a bottle in time of need for ten times its cost.'"

Hundreds of war veterans have kidney and bladder trouble. Impure drinking water, sleeping on the ground, and all manner of exposures to wet and cold weather produced catarrh of the kidneys and bladder.
