

Fine Monument to Hay Proposed by Cleveland

City May Start Fund, or Contribute Entire Amount—Willingness of Widow to Consent Is in Question.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 8.—If the family of the late Secretary John Hay will consent, Cleveland admirers of the dead statesman may start a fund for a memorial to him, or may even contribute the entire necessary amount themselves.

The memorial, if built, may take the form of a statue or monument, on the Hay lot in Lakewood cemetery, or it may be a new building at Western Reserve University, named after Secretary

Hay. The suggestion has not extended to details.

Talk about the proposed monument is much in embryo and no plans have been made. At the proper time the family will be approached regarding the project. There is some doubt in the minds of the interested whether Mrs. Hay will give her consent.

It is expected that H. R. Hatch, who is a leader in the enterprise, He said today: "It is yet too early to talk about it."

JOHN HENRY ALTSCHU DROWNED IN ST. LOUIS

Word Reaches Washington of Young Lawyer's Sad End—Away Three Years.

Word was received here last night of the death of John Henry Altschu, formerly of this city, who was drowned near St. Louis yesterday.

Mr. Altschu was a graduate of Columbia University, where he received the degree in laws, and since that time he had been practicing his profession in St. Louis, being connected with the firm of Seiden & Blair.

He was the son of L. P. Altschu, who resides at 207 G street northwest, and a brother-in-law of Otis D. Sweat, the registrar of George Washington University.

The father who is employed in the War Department, will leave here today and will bring the body home for the funeral, which will be held here. The deceased was a member of Theta Delta Chi fraternity.

VIRGINIA MERCHANT ROBBED IN NEW YORK

Cab Driver One of Three Colored Assaults—Was Told Police Would Not Help.

NEW YORK, July 8.—R. B. Booker, a merchant of Hampton Roads, Va., was severely beaten and robbed in a cab by three colored men, one of the driver of the cab he had hired, early this morning. A wallet containing $20 and some papers were stolen.

Booker had taken the cab to drive to the Imperial Hotel, and when in West Thirty-second street, between Sixth and Seventh avenues, two colored men jumped into the cab. They tried to throttle him, but he beat them off and jumped out of the cab, where the attack was renewed.

The driver ran the cab up to him so that the wheel passed over his foot. Overcome with pain, Booker's defense relaxed and the assailants bore him to the ground.

The colored men quickly searched his pockets, and after taking the wallet and papers, disappeared. Booker hobbled to the hotel, but made no complaint to the police, having been told that the police would not help him.

'YOU RUINED MY HOME,' SAID RIDINGS' SLAYER

Tragedy at Dickson, Tenn., Will Cost Life of City's Foremost Physician.

DICKSON, Tenn., July 8.—J. E. Fowler, a mechanic and musician, shot and fatally wounded Dr. R. W. Ridings, foremost surgeon of this city, today. Five shots were fired, all taking effect. The tragedy occurred on Main street, in the heart of the city, where Fowler approached his victim just as he was leaving his office and said:

"You have ruined my home. You did like a dog."

With these remarks the shooting began. Dr. Ridings fell to the ground, crying:

"I have been killed for nothing; I am an innocent man."

Fowler immediately gave himself up, and was taken to some unknown place for safety, the authorities fearing mob violence. Fowler is believed to be insane.

ALL DRILLS SUSPENDED OWING TO INTENSE HEAT

MUNICH, July 8.—The terrific heat of the last days has put an end to all military drills and maneuvers.

Scores have dropped sunstruck in the ranks. When, yesterday, two young recruits died after going through a series of military evolutions in a temperature of 110 degrees, the clamor of the press became so strong that the prince regent issued an order suspending all military drills until the heat subsides.

SHOT BY TWO BURGLARS HE HUNTED GUN IN HAND

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., July 8.—H. O. Godbar, a prominent railroad man, was shot and mortally wounded by two burglars in a rear room at his home here at 3 o'clock this morning.

Godbar had a shotgun in his hand and was searching for the burglars, having heard them enter his home. The robbers sprang upon him, relieved him of his gun and then fired the contents of both barrels into his body.

Bloodhounds were put on the trail and one robber, Sam Anderson, has been captured.

VESPER CREW HOMEBOUND.

LONDON, July 8.—The Vesper crew left Southampton for home today. They express their confidence in being able to lift the grand challenge cup next time.

TO COMMEMORATE HEBREW SOLDIERS

Movement in New York for Raising Funds.

THEY WORE THE GRAY IN '61

Proposed to Have Co-operation of Members of Faith Throughout Southern States.

NEW YORK, July 8.—A movement is on foot among the wealthy Hebrews in this city who have lived in the South to start a fund for the erection of a monument to the Hebrew soldiers who fought in the Confederate army.

It is claimed that there were not less than 15,000 Hebrews who wore the gray, proving their gallantry on many a bloody field. It is recalled that the first surgeon general of the Confederate army was of this faith.

He was Gen. David DeLeon.

It is proposed to have a co-operation of members of the faith from all sections of the South in this movement, and no doubt is felt that funds will be quickly raised for a magnificent memorial to be erected in some place in the South.

Richmond, Atlanta, and New Orleans have been mentioned as suitable places for such a monument, but affairs have not progressed sufficiently to warrant a serious discussion of the movement.

COUNT MINICH'S HEIRS WANT A DIVISION

The Fortune, a G't From Frederick the Great, Consists of 260,000,000 Marks.

BERLIN, July 7.—The Russian heirs of Count Minich, who died during the time of Frederick the Great, by whom he had been presented with a large amount of real estate, have petitioned the Prussian government for a division of the property among them.

The property is valued at 260,000,000 marks, and since the death of the count had been administered by the crown, because the Russian heirs of the count could not obtain recognition in Prussia.

Now the Russian government has undertaken to help the heirs to obtain their rights and has furnished them with all the documents necessary to prove their descendancy.

It is said that if the case is decided in favor of the Russian heirs the Russian government will obtain a large slice of the property as taxation in successions and legacies, and that this is the real reason why the government has now taken up the cudgel for the heirs for the first time.

HONORS IN TENNIS TO AMERICAN WOMAN

In Beautiful Match May Sutton, of California, Won English Championship at London.

(Special Copyright Cable.)

LONDON, July 8.—The greatest match ever played in lawn tennis came off today.

For the first time in history the ladies' championship was taken abroad, when Miss May Sutton, of Pasadena, Cal., beat Miss Douglas very easily.

Thus has the ladies' tennis championship of the world been transferred to America.

In the other single match H. L. Doherty proved too good a general for the Australian, Crookes, beating him three sets to love, with scores of 6-2, 6-2, 6-4.

What won Miss Sutton her match and her steadiness on the lines and her speed in the court. When Miss Douglas lobbed the ball over the net, the American girl to return with a backhand stroke, Miss Sutton ran around the ball and made it drive, and it was in this style of playing that she beat her opponent.

SALES OF IRON ARE ON A LARGE SCALE

J. C. Maben Looks for Continued Improvement in This Trade.

NEW YORK, July 8.—J. C. Maben, president of the Sloss-Sheffield Steel and Iron Company, here arrived from Birmingham. As he forecast several weeks ago, Mr. Maben says, the inquiries for iron, beginning with the present month, are for considerably larger quantities than was the case in May and June.

The sales, he says, are also on a larger scale than they were during those two months.

Mr. Maben looks for continued improvement in the iron trade, but he would not be surprised if it was somewhat dull in the immediate future.

AMERICAN ENGINEER KILLED IN A ROW IN MEXICO

MEXICO CITY, July 8.—An American mining engineer named Johnson was stabbed to death in a fight which had started between Manager Rahn, also an American, with a Mexican laborer.

Rahn was cut, but not seriously. The murderer is under arrest.

Horse Steps Into Open Sewer Trap.

As Herbert Frost was driving a horse through an alley between H and I and Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets northwest yesterday afternoon the animal stepped on the top of an open sewer trap and its front legs plunged into the sewer.

Another was slightly injured. After vigorous rubbing by the driver the horse was able to move slowly away from the scene of the mishap.

Lawson Has Stormy Weather in Kansas

Rain Nearly Drowns Orator's Voice—Talked for Four Hours—Chautauqua Labors Compel Him to Take a Rest.

OTTAWA, Kan., July 8.—A heavy rain storm that fell with terrific force upon the roofs of the Ottawa Chautauqua assembly tabernacle this afternoon, drowned out the voice of Thomas W. Lawson, and compelled the speaker to stop.

Fulfilling the promise made this morning that he would "tell the whole story to the West if it takes until Sunday," Mr. Lawson declared that he would continue to speak tonight. He had already spoken two hours.

Mr. Lawson paused when the storm first came up, and the audience sang "America." It developed later, however, that it would be impossible to continue the speech for some time.

An audience of 10,000 people greeted Mr. Lawson with wild cheers and the Chautauqua salute of waving handkerchiefs, when he appeared on the platform at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Lawson had difficulty in making himself heard at first, but his remarks were repeatedly applauded.

When he resumed at 5 o'clock tonight, he could scarcely speak above a whisper, so hoarse was he from the strain upon his voice.

The great Park building was again filled with an audience of several thousand. Mr. Lawson finally managed to make himself heard, and continued speaking until nearly 10 o'clock. He announced that he would spend Sunday here, and rest from the strain of the trip and speech-making. He would, he said, attend the religious services of the Chautauqua assembly tomorrow.

Mr. Lawson arrived in Ottawa at 11 o'clock this morning, and was entertained by one of the citizens of Ottawa at a dinner party.

District Attorney Jerome left for New York at 10:30 o'clock this morning.

ROOSEVELT CHILDREN ENJOYED FIREWORKS

Display Postponed From Fourth of July Was Held Last Night.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., July 8.—The Roosevelt children had a great time tonight when their fireworks display, which was postponed from the Fourth of July because of Secretary Hay's death, was held.

The President was very busy today trying to catch up with the arrangements of business, which has accumulated because of his Cleveland and Asbury Park trips.

He had a very pleasant visit with Baron Kaneko, who left this morning. It is said the whole Eastern situation was gone over between the two.

Baron Rosen is expected here next week to present his credentials as the Russian Ambassador.

THIS ILLEGAL JUDGE HAS MIXED THINGS UP

Validity of 200 Divorces in Question. Status of Disunioned Couples Who Have Married Again.

DENVER, Col., July 8.—The decision of the State supreme court that Denver has never legally elected County Judge Henry V. Johnson, may result in some interesting legal tangles.

During the past six months Judge Johnson divorced 200 people, many of whom have gone to Cheyenne, Wyo., Colorado's Gretna Green, and again married, thereby avoiding the State's re-marriage law. Must children resulting from these unions be legitimated?

Numerous wills have been admitted to probate by Judge Johnson, many claims allowed against estates. Are these acts invalidated?

Take the case of James Smith, for instance. When the judge declared his bonds of matrimony severed by his payment of $10,000 alimony to Mrs. Smith, naturally he looked on that part of his life as a closed incident. He proceeded to lay his heart and hand and pocketbook, minus the aforesaid $10,000, to the feet of Miss Alice Brown.

If he does not he will be sued as a trifle.

Some Colorado couples are in the same predicament has not yet been ascertained, but two scores is a low estimate.

GERMANY IS ALARMED BY LARGE EMIGRATION

(Special Copyright Cable.)

BERLIN, July 8.—The authorities are thoroughly alarmed at the fact revealed by recent statistics that emigration from Germany to the United States and South American countries has more than doubled since last year.

Between January 1 and July 1, this year, 201,875 German subjects have left for America from Hamburg and Bremen alone. Counting those who have left via France, Belgium, and England, the number is close to the 500,000 mark.

RIDDLED WITH BULLETS TO AVENGE HIS CRIME

SHELBYVILLE, Ky., July 8.—Riding in a train from Taylorville to here, lodged in a better protected cell, Lon Beard, a colored man, was attacked by a crowd of men who boarded the train to avenge the negro's crime and riddled him with bullets.

Beard was arrested for an attack on Mrs. Chester Crawford, of Normandy.

DRANK FROM POOL; FAMILY OF SEVEN DEAD

BUDAPEST, Hungary, July 8.—The report of the death of an entire family consisting of seven persons through drinking poisoned water, comes from Nagy Leta, a small town of Hungary.

The victims were peasants, and they drank from a pool of water which had formed on a roadside. Their death followed within a few hours.

Oil Stove Explodes.

Slight damage was occasioned in Charles Little's residence, 40 Washington street, Anacostia, by fire yesterday afternoon. The blaze was caused by the explosion of a coal oil stove. Members of No. 15 engine company responded to a local alarm and put out the blaze with a hand extinguisher. The damage will not exceed $10.
