HARRIMAN’S FEVER IS REPORTED HIGHER SINCE HIS RELAPSE

Physicians Said to Be Taking Extreme Measures to Reduce Temperature.

DOCTOR AND FRIENDS ADMIT HE’S WORSE

Former Governor Oddell Makes Harried Visit to Financier, Expresses Alarm.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—Edward Benjamin R. Oddell, a close friend of Harriman, hurried down from his home at Newburgh to Avenue today, the Erie train being stopped at the Harriman private station at the foot of Tower Hill by Mr. Harriman. On the train Oddell remarked: “Harriman is a very sick man. It is reported that Mr. Oddell was summoned to the Harriman home last night and came on a special train today.”

Reports from the Harriman house shortly before noon were that Harriman had a high fever, following his attack of indigestion, and that he lay nearly constantly on his bed in an effort to reduce his temperature.

DOCTOR MAKES STATEMENT

All the gages observed over the condition of Edward H. Harriman in his Harriman house on Tower Hill were unchanged today, following the doctor’s statement given last night by Dr. Light, the Harriman private physician, who said: “Harriman has suffered a relapse. He had a slight attack of indigestion on Friday, but it has not returned continuously and is only a slight one, but we are taking no risks.”

Harriman’s Wife Tells

That his Excellency will be Halted in His Return from the United States until the Ford was repaired. This morning, however, it was reported that Harriman’s wife was en route to New York. It was also reported that Harriman’s wife had been called to New York for medical reasons. Harriman was under treatment, though whether for the same disease or another was not disclosed.

Weather Report.

The temperature on the East Coast was expected to reach 70 degrees today. In the South, temperatures were expected to soar to 90 degrees. In the West, the temperature was expected to drop to 60 degrees. In the North, temperatures were expected to reach 80 degrees.
