Alton B. Parker is chairman of the committee on program and John Hays Hammond of that on organization for the National Civic Federation.

GEN. J. B. WEAVER LEAVES POLITICS

DES MOINES, Iowa, Dec. 31.—Greenbackism, Populism, Prohibition, and Bryanism no longer have charms for Gen. James B. Weaver, who today confirmed the report that he would eschew any connection with the politics for the more spiritual crusade in the interests of divine healing.

He said today that he would devote the remaining years of his life to carrying to all the people he could reach what miracles and wonders he claims to have learned in regard to the efficacy of prayer and faith in curing the sick.

MOY CHEE RECEIVES MIXED BURIAL RITES

Oriental Customs Engrafted Upon Christian Service for Converted Celestial—Paper Prayers Scattered on Road to Cemetery and Food Placed in Grave.

Ten thousand miles from the sod to which some day it must be consigned, the body of Moy Chee Tajita, plain Chinaman, rests today in Congressional Cemetery.

It was a curious mixture of Oriental and Occidental customs, this burial yesterday afternoon of Moy Chee. Eleven stolid residents of Washington's Chinatown, some with queues and some without, came to Lee's undertaking establishment and heard a Christian minister in a Christian burial service. On the opposite side of the chapel sat a few members of the Calvary Baptist Church. Moy Chee was a Christian, and a church-goer, one of them said. All bowed the head as the minister prayed to someone other than Confucius.

"It's sad to die so far from home," said the minister. And some of the Orientals nodded their heads while others blinked their eyes noncommittally. Then the Celestials drew fairly near the bier and glanced just for a second at the body of Moy Chee. The Chinaman does not like to look upon his dead.

Up to that time the ceremony had not been of the far East. Some of the little group of watchers wondered if the Celestials were content to let the soul of Moy Chee go upon its journey without a prayer to Chinese gods.

The carriages drew up and the silent yellow men clambered in. One took his seat with the driver on the hearse. The procession began to move down the avenue through Chinatown. The Chinaman on the hearse held something in the air; he shook it nervously, and a tiny bit of paper fell upon the snow. Despite Moy Chee's Christian faith, the Oriental dropped out. The Celestials were scattering confetti-like prayers to the gods. Some say they were of sufficient length to engage the attention of the evil spirits along the way until Moy's body could be safely stowed away in the grave. Some one, too, was seen to put two large baskets in the first carriage. They contained the dozens of good things that appeal to a Chinaman's appetite. These, too, despite Moy Chee's new religion, were put in the grave with him. The spirit must have something upon which to feed while it is preparing to enter the heaven to which all good Chinamen are supposed to go. A few words in Chinese were mumbled at the grave and the dirt began to fall upon all that was mortal of Moy Chee.

Some day the body must be taken to China. The gods require this, if they would be kind throughout eternity. The Rev. Dr. Samuel H. Greene had charge of the funeral services at the chapel. Moy was a good Chinaman, he said, who had been sick a long time and had suffered much in patience.

WESTERN MEMBERS MAP OUT PROGRAM

Representatives From Public Land States Appoint Subcommittee on Conservation Legislation.

The members of Congress from public land States who are in Washington are at work today framing legislation on public land matters, according to a program mapped out by a meeting of all the Representatives from those States.

A subcommittee, consisting of one member from each public land State, was appointed to draft several bills which will be gone over by the Public Lands Committee and urged upon the floor of the House. This practically means that the whole troublesome subject of conservation will be gone over by the subcommittee and an attempt made to write bills the all can support.

Is Constipation Curable? Try this Free

I believe that thousands of people suffer needlessly from constipation simply through ignorance of what kind of a remedy to take. You cannot cure a chronic trouble by one flushing of the colon, as is the case when salts and purgative waters are used. And it is a well-known fact that cathartic pills, after the first relief, bind the bowels all the more. These things seldom do more than temporary good.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

a remedy that I have sold through druggists for a quarter of a century comes much nearer to the ideal method of cure. It is a liquid, mild, pleasant-tasting and non-gripping. A baby can use it with safety, yet it is effective in the strongest person. It gives relief promptly, and by continuing its use briefly the stomach muscles are trained to again do their work naturally, and then you can dispense with medicines. To prove these claims I will gladly send a free sample bottle to any sufferer from chronic constipation, liver trouble, sick headache, heartburn, sour stomach, and similar digestive complaints. You have only to send me your name and address. After using the sample, if you then feel sure it is the remedy you have so long sought, buy it of your druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a bottle. Thousands of heads of families always keep it in the house, as it can be used by all.

DR. CALDWELL PERSONALLY WILL BE PLEASSED TO GIVE YOU ANY MEDICAL ADVICE YOU MAY DESIRE FOR YOURSELF OR FAMILY PERTAINING TO THE STOMACH, LIVER OR BOWELS. ABSOLUTELY FREE OF CHARGE. EXPLAIN YOUR CASE IN A LETTER AND HE WILL REPLY TO YOU IN DETAIL. FOR THE FREE SAMPLE SIMPLY SEND YOUR NAME AND ADDRESS ON A POSTAL CARD OR OTHERWISE. FOR EITHER REQUEST THE DOCTOR'S ADDRESS IS DR. W. B. CALDWELL, R. 528 CALDWELL BLDG., MONTICELLO, ILL.

I received a sample bottle of your Syrup Pepsin and was so pleased with it I sent to the drug store and got a $1 bottle and a 50 cent bottle, and my little girl four years old is in better health than she has been in her life. I have no more trouble with her bowels and stomach, and I thank you for your Syrup Pepsin. I can not praise Syrup Pepsin too highly. My mother also is using it.—Mrs. Carrie Culler, 325 N. Notre Dame street, South Bend, Ind.

We thank you for the sample bottle of Syrup Pepsin. If we could not get more than that, we would certainly keep it for the good it has done us. Our house never without it and never will be as long as we can raise a dollar. It's the balm of life in our home.—Henry Hankla, Junction City, Ky.

I received the sample bottle and am using the second 50 cent bottle procured at one of my local druggists. Results were the most satisfactory. Am advertising Syrup Pepsin to everyone that is interested.—O. F. WISHNER, Sycamore, Ill.

I was for years a constant sufferer from chronic indigestion and constipation and had almost given up hope of ever being cured. But Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has made a well man of me and I write to acknowledge my gratitude to Dr. Caldwell and to the Pepsin Syrup Co.—F. M. HARRINGTON, Pres. Harrington Mtg. Co., Peoria, Ill.
