

ROOSEVELT ROUSES GREAT ENTHUSIASM

Politicians Speculate on Effect It Will Have On Election Result.

Theodore Roosevelt keeps stirring up the crowds in the up-State country in New York State. What the politicians all want to know is how much effect this is going to have on the result of the elections November 8.

The colonel is getting large and enthusiastic audiences. He keeps jabbing and poking away at Dix, the Democratic candidate, for being affiliated with the Wall Paper trust. Dix and his friends keep on denying, but the colonel won't accept their denials at par and goes on making his charges and re-making them.

In his trip yesterday the colonel went north from central New York to the St. Lawrence river, through a country that abounds in Republicans. He had big meetings and the interest was keen, the enthusiasm great. If the series of meetings yesterday can be taken as any indication, the colonel is stirring up votes for Stinson. He talks confidently of winning the election.

Meantime, in New York city, the Dix talk goes on incessantly. The Democrats insist a landslide is coming, and that Stinson will be hopelessly snowed under. The betting continues 2 to 1 in favor of Dix, but there is little real betting. Many expect the betting to become about even by election day.

Judge Alton B. Parker heard Colonel Roosevelt at Richmond yesterday. The judge happened to arrive in town just in time to get into the crowd that gathered about the rear end of the colonel's train. Judge Parker did not interrupt, nor did he go to meet Colonel Roosevelt. In his speech Colonel Roosevelt struck at Dix in the usual fashion.

In some of his speeches the colonel attacks Dix on the ground that in the Standard Wall Paper Company's factory the men were paid thirteen hours a day.

In other speeches, Colonel Roosevelt portrays Dix as "the willing tool of Murphy" in this campaign.

Colonel Roosevelt asserts that he has learned from the secretary of state that the new Standard Wall Paper Company was without any change of name was incorporated in 1902 with a capital of $1,250,000.

"The incorporators," said he, "were the same men as those who were in the old company." It took over half of the assets of the old company and assumed all their obligations since, including the stock of the trust, the Continental Company.

In other words, there really was no new company at all in the sense of there being any new management. It was simply the reorganization of the company in its obligations to the trust or in its connection with the trust.

Colonel Roosevelt asserts that Stinson lost money by becoming special counsel for the Government.

Judge Parker in a speech at Oswego practically charged Colonel Roosevelt with lying in the present campaign. He accused him of disregarding facts in his accusations about the relations of the Democratic campaign to Wall Street, in his charges against Dix and against Judge Baldwin, of Connecticut. He commended to the colonel's attention the commandment: "Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor."

Having caused a sensation in Ohio by assailing Roosevelt's new nationalism, Senator Foraker has now caused another sensation by assailing Roosevelt. He has, in fact, been called off by the Republican State committee. It is one of the most frank and open occurrences in the history of Ohio politics. It adds greatly to the confusion of the Republicans in the campaign and tends to help Harmon.

It hurts the chances of Senator Dick, who wants to return to the Senate. Foraker refused to be bridled by the State committee, and goes back to his tents angry and bitter and his old followers are in much the same mood.

The State committee, in a message to Foraker, urged that he drop "from future speeches" all matters not involved in the contention between the Republican and Democratic parties in this campaign.

Foraker replied by requesting that his engagements be canceled. What makes the situation the more remarkable is that James R. Garfield is continuing on the stage, praising Taft faintly, forgetting Harding and urging the people to prevent re-election of Senator Dick.

And everybody is wondering what Colonel Roosevelt will have to say when he comes along to make the three speeches for which he is billed in Ohio.

Foss Fighting Hard.
Reports from Massachusetts are that Eugene N. Foss, who has been nominated for governor on the Democratic ticket, is making the hardest kind of a fight. He is said to be making a surprising showing of strength.

The Republicans have become genuinely concerned over the election of Draper, their nominee for governor. Foss keeps hammering away on the cost of living question, and seems to be making votes by it, despite his handicap of being extremely late in entering the campaign.

The Roosevelt speech in Boston in behalf of Lodge is generally credited with injuring Draper. Some assertions are that the Roosevelt speech will cost Draper 15,000 votes.

Further information has come to light with respect to the proposed appointment of W. H. Lewis, a negro, of Boston, to be assistant Attorney General, and also the appointment of Charles Cotterill, of Toledo, a negro politician, to be collector of customs in Honolulu. The appointments are clearly going to be made, and are made public at this time with a view to preventing the defection of colored voters from the Republican party.

In Massachusetts there is a strong anti-Lodge movement among the negroes, and there are signs of many of them voting the Democratic ticket. This explains the Lewis appointment, and similarly in Ohio many of the negroes are becoming independent politically and are likely to vote for Harmon.

The Important Problem

confronting anyone in need of a laxative is not a question of a single action only, but of permanently beneficial effects, which will follow proper efforts to live in a healthful way, with the assistance of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, whenever it is required, as it cleanses the system gently yet promptly, without irritation and will therefore always have the preference of all who wish the best of family laxatives.

The combination has the approval of physicians because it is known to be truly beneficial, and because it has given satisfaction to the millions of well-informed families who have used it for many years past.

To get its beneficial effects, always buy the genuine manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.
