ON THEIR BOASTS

When Democrats Start Re-

Vision, Work Will Be

Tempered Somewhat.

The George taxation and assessment report of D. J. Kaufman as chairman of the special committee on entertainment of the delegates to the International Congress of Commerce undertakes to prove and Senate Democrats get down to the actual business of revising the tariff than will go at the task much less vigorously than they talked about it in the campaign.

"Not chef ever serves soup as hot as he cooks it," remarked a prominent of the chamber of Commerce undertakes to prove the faisity or truth of statements it contains.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce and Chamber of Commerce and Chamber of Commerce and Chamber of the Chamber of Commerce and Chamber of the Chamber of the Chamber of the Selection of the committee of the Chamber of Commerce, the Board of Trade, and because whatever action is taken will be more effective when the legislators are laided because whatever action is taken will be applied to tariff revision, as it is to some other phases of legislation and the committee of the c

The significance seen in the decision to have Ways and Means hearings is that no' such decision would have been reached had not the purpose been to let the cotton manufacturing industry and some others off with as mild a dose of tariff reduction as possible.

Scorn Tariff Board. resent Ways and Means Committee has set tariff revision bills in motion in two sessions within less than two years. House Democrats would have none of the information dug up by the tariff board. The Ways and Means Democrats gathered their own data and made their tariff bill on that basis.

Moreover, they went to the country in part on the issued caused by the fact the Fresident vetoed the bills that finally were accepted by a Democratic House and a Senate of which the Republican leaders had lost control. Under the circumstances Progressive party men about the Capitol are asking why the Ways and Means Committee wants to conduct hearings now. Has it not, they are asking, ample data to revise the tariff? If it does not have, why did it put forth bills in the extra session of the present Congress?

Want To Act Mildly.

answer the Republicans and Progressive party men are giving is that the Democrats on Ways and Means, at east part of them, want to get evidence the Democrats on ways and Means, at least part of them, want to get evidence that will afford them a ressonably good excuse not to revise with sharp-edged tools, but to do it in as mild fashion as circumstances will permit.

The situation is understood better when the methods of getting tariff testimeny in a Ways and Means Committee hearing are considered. The country, saw a lot of these methods prior to the new a lot of these methods prior to the bill. Interested manufacturers before the committee, and give come before the committee, and give ex parte statements of what will happen to them if schedules are lowered. The testimony thus given from an impartial standpoint is of little or no value. But if one is searching for excuses to keep schedules up, such a hearing is exactly the way to find the excuses.

Among the Republicans, especially the progressives, are a lot of earnest tariff revisionists. They are watching with a lot of interest the course of the Demograts on the tariff.

Publicity Is Desired.

D. J. Kaufman urged that the matter be given all the publicity possible Mr. Brown having said the investigation was being carried on quietly.

"Let the citizens know what is transpiring," said Mr. Kaufman. "Let your investigation make you appear to the citizens know what is transpiring," said Mr. Kaufman. "Let your investigation make you appear to the citizens as if you were coming to them with the idea, "We would like to have your opinion of the matter." This is a matter that concerns the citizens primarily and everybody, rather than a select number, should be invited to take part in these investigations."

Mr. Brown said his committee expected to advance considerably in the work during the coming week.

Mr. Worthington, in making his report as chairman of the membership committee, told the directors there were less than 500 members qualified at the present time to vote in the annual election of officers will be held on January 13, and the attention of the directors were automatically dropped from the board for failure to attend the meetings, and a rosolution was passed to fill the vaccancies at the terms expire in January, which vacancies will be filled at the regular election of officers on January 13.

A powerful element of the Democrats in both Senate and House unquestionably, is working for a tariff that will be reduced in mame only. If Mr. Wilson, as President, refuses to consent to a revision that is not real, that does not cout some of the schedules radically, it is impossible to see how clear that does not mariff can be avoided. That Wilson will insist on applying the knife vigorously to the schedules is the general impression in Washington.

HARTFORD, Conn., Dec. 5.—Informa-tion was received in this city today that tion was received in this city today that Russia and some other European powers, among which Germany is supposed to be included, have placed orders for several hundred thousand dollars' worth of firearms with two Hartford factories. Col. C. L. F. Robinson, president of the Col. Patent Firearms Company, left Hartford several weeks ago. It is reported that as a result of a conference with some of the War Department chiefs of the European countries he will return with contracts for automatic and army revolvers sufficient to keep the local plant running at its capacity for many months.
