MISSING FOUR WEEKS BLACK HAND BOMB WRECKS TENEMENT

Reign of Terror in New York Two Men Held By Mexican Fed-Continues Despite Drastic Action By Courts.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.-Despite the fact that Angelo Sylvestro was convic-ted in four minutes last night of planting a bomb to blow up a tenement building housing twenty-five familles. Black Handers continued their reign of terror. Early today a bomb wrecked the store of Joseph Stella and the four-story tenement at 204 East Eightieth street.

Sylvestro will be sentenced today.

Monday a bill will be introduced in the Legislature making such crimes punish-able by forty years' imprisonment. Seven years is the present limit. Sylves-tro was a member of the Farrara gang.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.-Mrs. Alex Moore, better known as Lillian Russell, expressed here today.

The men were taken from Tia Juana Wednesday by a squad of federals, and have not been seen since. Mexican of-KILLED AMERICANS ficials assert they are en route to Ensenada for trial on charge of smuggling, but the fact that their guards carried no supplies for a long march raised grave doubts in the minds of officials

The alarm was increased by the re erals May Have Been Slain ceipt from Harwood of a letter he slipped to a Mexican three miles out of Tia Juana.

It said that the Americans, "to avoid increasing the suspicions of the federal authorities, who were told that we were rebels," confessed that they were smuggiers. Harwod is a newspaper reporter from
