

ANOTHER STEP TAKEN TO SIMPLIFY RAIL FINANCES

The railroad administration has taken another step toward simplification of financial transactions between individual rail lines. Settlement of inter-road accounts by exchange of vouchers, statements, and bills of lading has been ordered discontinued. Instead of that method of disposing of obligations, each line is instructed to transmit one statement of fees due at the end of each month. These statements will be studied in the Washington offices.

O'LEARY DENIES HE WAS PARTY TO TREASON PLOT

NEW YORK, June 16.—Declaring his innocence of the charge of assisting his brother Jeremiah to escape, and denying that he even knows him, J. O'Leary, charged with high treason, Attorney John J. O'Leary will be the first witness called in his own defense when his trial is resumed in the United States court.

YESTERDAY MORNING
I WENT out
TO SEE the GREAT GOLF match—
CHICK EVANS and
OUR OWN Freddie McLeod
HAD A wonderful
"MIDIRON DUEL"
WITH HAGEN and Banier.
I WAS all excited
AND GOT up early
AND POLISHED up my Ford
—SO WHEN I drove in
AT COLUMBIA
THEY WERE all glad
THEY ASKED us to come.
IT SURE was some match,
AND ALL the funds
WENT TO the Red Cross.
AND RUTHIE (my wife)
WENT WITH me,
AND IT was great fun.
AND NOW I've reached
THE END of my column
AND HAVEN'T said
A WORD of advertising
FOR THE firm of

SAMMY GIVES UP LIFE THAT HIS FOUR PALS MIGHT LIVE

By GUY CARPENTER.
Staff Correspondent of the L. N. S.
How an American soldier deliberately killed himself that his four pals might live, is the startling story told by an American ordnance officer lately returned from the front. His story is corroborated by an artillery officer, who recently arrived here from France.

The hero, whose name may never be known, is now buried in a small cemetery in France. No towering monument tells of his Spartan-like sacrifice, but his story is known to every grenadier of the American forces and will live always in American history as one of the bravest acts of the war. Here is the story as told by the American officer.

Dangerous Practice.
"It has been found that the most effective hand grenade is that with the bent safety pin. But the American soldiers, anxious always to speed up, have a habit of straightening the pins. We have done our utmost to halt the practice, and have told them the time without number that they must stand responsible if they straighten the pins before going into action. For a straight pin will easily fall from the grenade, and that means that within five seconds the deadly engine will explode.

"An American grenadier, had been on duty at an outpost. It appears that he had straightened the pins in his grenades. When relieved from duty he returned to his dugout, where three of his pals were sleeping and one lay awake in a bunk. The dugout was twenty feet underground.

"As he entered the dugout and closed the heavy door, he took off his coat and threw it up on his bunk which was the third or top one from the floor. One of his coat pockets sagged open and a bomb fell to the floor. As it fell, the straightened safety pin slipped out.

"As he saw the pin go spinning across the room, he realized that within five seconds an explosion would probably kill every man in the dugout. It must have flashed across his mind that his pals sleeping in the bunks were not to blame for the accident. He had been warned against straightening grenade pins. The fault was his and his alone.

GOLD PRODUCTION MUST BE KEPT UP, SAYS SEC. M'ADOO

Gold is one of the most needed war essentials, and production must be kept up to the highest possible maximum. Secretary McAdoo told the House yesterday in a letter read at the request of Delegate Sulzner of Alabama. The letter follows:

"I beg leave to acknowledge receipt of your letter of June 1, in relation to the present conditions surrounding the production of gold in Alaska. I fully appreciate that with rising cost of raw material and labor, and with a fixed value for their output, the gold miners of the world are facing difficult conditions. I should be sorry, however, if for this reason there were any relaxation in the effort to produce gold.

Gold Necessary.
"At no time has this country so much required the largest possible production of gold as at the present. Next to food and ammunition, gold is one of the most needed war essentials. In order to plan the enormous amount of Government bonds required to finance our war expenditures, a large credit structure will inevitably be erected on our gold reserves. And it is necessary that these reserves, which are the foundation of the structure, shall be maintained on the broadest possible basis.

"The United States and its associates in the war are heavy purchasers of raw materials and other commodities for the war in many neutral countries, and our war requirements make it impossible for us to pay our bills in these neutral countries as we have been paying them in times of peace, viz., through the shipment of manufactured goods and commodities which those countries are eager to buy from us. This means that a certain amount of debt to those countries must be paid for in credit or in gold.

Must Be Maintained.
"This brief statement will, I hope, make clear to your constituents the great necessity that exists for the maintenance of gold production at the maximum point. The man or the community that maintains or increases the production of gold in the face of difficulty and discouragement is performing a patriotic service no less than the more obvious, but not less useful, services that are more in the public eye."

$7,500 WORTH OF SUGAR DAMAGED BY FIRE
Hundreds of pounds of sugar, valued at $7,500, were damaged by a fire which broke out in a storehouse in the rear of the store of the C. I. Kenny Company, 745 Seventh street northwest, yesterday afternoon. What caused the blaze has not been determined, but the firemen advanced the theory that it was due to spontaneous combustion.

DR. NASH'S HOARDED FOOD TO BE PUT ON PUBLIC SALE

The hearing on the petition for a label asking for the condemnation of the food products found at the residence of Dr. Francis S. Nash, medical director of the navy, who was fined $1,000 by Justice Stafford for food hoarding, will probably take place before Justice Stafford tomorrow.

After granting the petition, a date will be set for the public sale of the goods, the proceeds to go to the Government.

Truscott Gailley, counsel for Dr. Nash, will interpose no objection to the granting of the label, and thus will facilitate the final disposition of the case, which attracted widespread attention by reason of the high official and social standing of Dr. and Mrs. Nash.

The seriousness of the offense and the very outcome of the present struggle were called to the attention of the court by Clarence R. Wilson, food administrator for the District, who said:

"If 100,000 people in the United States had followed the example of Dr. Nash and hoarded food in the same proportion, the very outcome of this war would be placed in the gravest jeopardy."

10,000 VOICES TO SING "HALLELUJAH CHORUS" ON 4TH

Ten thousand voices will blend in singing the "Hallelujah Chorus" at the close of the gigantic Fourth of July pageant to be staged in Washington next month under the auspices of the Board of Education, the Community Centers and the National Council of the Drama League.

More than twenty nationalities will join in the celebration, and the general theme of the day's program will be "Democracy Triumphant."

Is International Celebration.
The original idea was to put on celebrations of a similar nature in all leading cities of the country, but the National Council of the Drama League elected to concentrate its efforts in one great pageant in the National Capital that will be international in scope.

Several hundred performers, representing various nationalities, will be brought to Washington from Chicago, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and other cosmopolitan centers. The wish of those in charge is to make the great allied pageant an agency for Americanization, a medium for teaching unity and an occasion for exalting democracy.

Washingtonians and visitors to the city will be able to take "a trip around the world in an afternoon." Each nation will put on a program which will depict its national spirit, exalt its national hero and furnish a panoramic view of the nation portrayed.

Bohemia to Picture Struggles.
The ancient struggles of Bohemia for freedom will be depicted by the Czech-Slovak as their part of the pageant. Ziska, the blind leader of the Bohemians after John Hus was burned at the stake, will be the national hero featured.

There will be in the Bohemian section of the pageant, twenty-five Sokols, who are members of the Slavic Gymnastic Society, which makes up the Bohemian national army. In 1910 this society had more than 100,000 members, but it was dissolved by Austria and its funds confiscated. There are 30,000 of these Sokols now fighting with the allied armies on the western front.

The Bohemian dances will be put on by children brought to Washington from New York and the Czech-Slovak Band, of New York, will furnish the music.

Will Center at Monument.
The Washington Monument will be the hub about which the pageant will radiate. One section will be assigned to a position in front of the Red Cross building, another in front of the Pan-American Union building, another near the Agricultural Department building, another in the Ellipse, while others will be stationed on nearby locations.

A score of bands will play music common to the nation represented, and there will be dances and songs such as Washington has never seen of before.

Fully 50,000 persons are expected to take part in what the committee in charge assert will surpass any patriotic spectacle ever produced in this country.

The celebration will conclude with the grand march through the Mall to the Capitol.

The flags and banners of the various nations will not fly separately. They will be grouped about the Stars and Stripes, and will blend as one great picture of "Democracy Triumphant," with the American flag as the centerpiece.

AUTO STOLEN AND FOUND IN FOUR HOURS
An automobile, valued at $1,000, belonging to Major Thomas E. Neill, U. S. A., was stolen yesterday from Sixth and B streets southwest, and recovered four hours later at Marietta, Md., where it had been sold to a farmer for $100.

Detectives Springman and Hughes, accompanied by Major Neill, will bring the automobile back to Washington today. The farmer said he bought the automobile from two white youths, who claimed they were tired of the machine and wanted to get rid of it. He readily seized the offer to purchase it at $100.

Swift & Company's sales of fresh beef in Washington, D. C., for the week ending Saturday, June 8, 1918, averaged 22.9 cents per pound.

A $4,000 RUNABOUT FOR $2,500
A 6-cylinder, high powered, luxurious car, seating either two or four. Five Rudge-Whitworth wire wheels, Silvertown cord tires (practically new), custom body (English runabout type), costly equipment. Used one season on fine roads, under care of expert mechanic. One of the handsomest, smartest runabouts in the East. In perfect condition. Owner going abroad. Address, Box 91, TIMES OFFICE.
