WAR'S HERO OF HEROES IS DUE BACK IN U. S. TODAY

NEW YORK, May 12—Due here today is Commander Charles B. N. Morgan, 15th century, of the Eighth Annual or "All-America" Division, and is said to have captured 112 German single-handed and to have killed twenty-five men. But seemingly turned this as seems, his commander, Maj. Gen. Harry G. Dunn, also insists that he is true, every word.

This week Torr received the Commodore's Medal and the Distinguished Service Cross, which will be awarded to the officer of the transport division on Sunday. The honor was one of the Torr's many decorations, as having been awarded the Navy Cross and the Distinguished Service Medal. The honor is the twenty-seventh medal Torr was awarded.

To receive the honor, Michael Sadowski, of New York, himself was a hero in World War II, and who was decorated with the same medal as Torr.

The honor was also given to the crew of the ship who were decorated with the same medal as Torr.
