$8,000 ASKED TO FEED YELLOWSTONE PARK ELK

Six thousand elk in the Yellowstone National Park are going to die of hunger this winter unless Congress makes an appropriation of $8,000 to feed them. Secretary of the Interior Lane wrote Speaker Gillett yesterday.
The department is asking for an emergency appropriation to be immediately available for the care of the elk.

Secretary Lane reports that the worst winter since 1887 is being experienced in Yellowstone Park.

MINERS BACK RED CROSS.

Peace time efforts of the Red Cross

HAPPENINGS IN SOCIETY

Mrs. McAdoo At White House—De Cartiers Feted

MRS. WILLIAM GIBBS McADOO and her daughter, Miss Ellen Wilson McAdoo, are again guests at the White House. They arrived in Washington last evening, accompanied by Mr. McAdoo, who was on his way South. With Benedict Crowell, Assistant Secretary of War; Delancy Nicol, of New York, and others, Mrs. McAdoo will be the guest of Bernard Baruch at his shooting box in South Carolina. Mrs. McAdoo and her daughter will remain here until his return to New York.
Mrs. Wilson, accompanied by her mother and sister, Mrs. William H.
Bolling and Miss Bertha Bolling, occupied a box at the Shubert-Garrick Theater yesterday afternoon.

Miss Margaret Wilson attended the concert at the National Theater yesterday afternoon as the guest of Mrs.
Edward T. Brown, who occupied a box. Mrs. Brown had with her besides Miss Wilson, her aunt and daughter, Miss Mary Mitchell and Miss Marjorie Brown, and Mme.
Brouillet.

Mrs. Dimock Hostess.
The Belgian Ambassador and Baroness de Cartier de Marchienne will be the honor guests at the dinner, which Mrs. Henry F. Dimock is giving tonight. Others in the company will be the Minister of the Serbia, Croats and Slovenes and Mrs. Gillet, the Minister of Salvador and Mme. Sol, and Mrs. Arthur Dodge, of New York, who arrived today to stay ten days with the hostess. There will be thirty-two guests in all.

Mrs. Robert R. Glen gave an informal luncheon at Wardman Park Hotel today for her son, Capt. R. R.
Glen, and his fiancée, Miss Jane Story, whose marriage tomorrow will be one of the most important events of the winter season.

Last evening Miss Margaret Harding, who is one of Miss Story's bridesmaids, entertained the bridal party and other guests at a dinner dance at the Purple Iris Tea House. Captain Glen and Miss Story have declined all invitations for tonight, but Miss Mildred Bromwell, who is also a bridesmaid, will entertain a small company at dinner for Miss Millicent Rogers, who arrived from New York today to take part in the wedding. Some of the men of the wedding party will be among the guests.

Major J. C. O. Marriot, of the British military attaché's staff, has been added to the list of Captain Glen's ushers.

The Belgian Ambassador and Baroness de Cartier entertained a company at dinner last night at the embassy in honor of Cardinal Gibbons and had with him the Chief Justice and Mrs.
White, the Under Secretary of State and Mrs. Polk, the Chilean Ambassador and Mme. Mathieu, the Polish Minister and Princess Lubomirski.
Senator and Mrs. Joseph S. Freling-huysen, Senator James D. Phelan, Senator and Mrs. Warren G. Harding, Mr. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Meyer, Mrs. Marshall Field, Miss Lee, Miss Josephine Patten, and the Rev. Father Stickney.

Senora de Bonillas, wife of the Ambassador from Mexico, will be at home this afternoon after 4 o'clock, at the embassy home, 1413 I street. She will be assisted by Senora Huerta, wife of the second secretary of the embassy staff.

Mme. Bakhtmeteff Receives.
Mme. Boris Bakhtmeteff, wife of the ambassador from Russia, will receive this afternoon at 3109 Highland place.

The Misses de Gana, nieces of the Chilean Ambassador and Mme. Mat-thieu, with whom they are spending the winter, entertained a company of about fifty young people at a dance at the embassy last evening in honor of the Misses Claro, daughters of a member of the Chilean delegation to the financial conference to open here at the end of this week. A seated supper was served at midnight.

The Argentine ambassador, Dr.
Thomas A. LeBreton, will return tomorrow evening from New York, where he has been for the last few days. He has been staying at the Ritz-Carlton.

Mme. LeBreton will be at home this afternoon, her niece, Miss Manuela Lloveras, receiving with her.

The Secretary of War and Mrs. Baker were the guests of Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh, who gave a dinner party last evening, taking her guests later to see "Mamma's Affairs" at the Shubert-Garrick Theater.

The Minister of Ecuador and Mme.
Elizalde will give a reception at the legation tomorrow in honor of the delegation from Ecuador to the Pan-American financial conference.

Mme. Groutch, wife of the Minister of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes, will be at home this afternoon and will have receiving with her her guests, Mrs. George B. Matthews and Lady Campbell.

Major Reginald Owen, of General Allenby's staff, and Mrs. Owen are guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
William Jennings Bryan, at Villa Sereno, Miami. They have purchased a house at Coconut Grove, near by, and will pass their winters there. Yesterday Mrs. Owen gave a tea in aid

MRS. ALICE BARNEY.
Who for some years has been affiliated with every movement for the artistic or civic betterment of Washington. At her reception today the professional and society folk who are working for the success of the actors' fund benefit, to be held on January 27, will come together.

of St. Stephen's Church, speaking on General Allenby's campaign in the Holy Land and his entry into Jerusalem. She was attached to the British Nurses' Volunteer Aid.

Mrs. Charles Patterson will be hostess at a dinner for Miss Lindsay Wood tomorrow evening. Afterward the guests will attend the cotillion to be given at Mrs. Charles S. Brom-well's residence by a group of the bachelors of the Diplomatic Corps.

To Enjoy Winter Sports.
Mr. and Mrs. Harold Walker will go to Lake Placid, N. Y., next week for the winter sports. Mrs. Walker returned to town yesterday after a brief visit in New York.

Mrs. Walker's sister, Baroness von Schoen, who is her guest, will start next week for Mexico City to join her husband. She has recently been visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Finken-staedt, in Cleveland.

Among those who will give dinners tonight before the third junior League "small and earlier" at Rauscher's are Dr. and Mrs. Howard Hume, Miss Ruth Hitchcock and Miss Beatrice Pollock. Mrs. Charles S.
Bromwell, Miss Carolyn Nash and Miss Eleanor Johnston will receive the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Westcott will entertain at luncheon at the Montgomery Country Club on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bell Sweeney will be hosts at dinner on Monday evening.

Patronesses for Actors' Benefit.

Mme. Riano, wife of the Spanish ambassador; Mme. Ekengren, wife of the minister of Sweden; Mme. de Cospedez, wife of the minister of Cuba; Mme. Saastamoinen, wife of the minister of Finland; Mme. Urueta, wife of the minister of Colombia; Mrs. Mcdell McCormick, Mrs. Allerton Cushman, Mrs. Richard Townsend, Miss Barnie Hegeman, and Miss Amyris Gillett are some of the additional patronesses for Actors' Memorial Day, January 27. Most of the patronesses expect to attend the tea this afternoon when Mrs. Alice Barney will give at her residence, 1626 Rhode Island avenue, at 5 o'clock. One of the interesting features of the afternoon will be the auctioning of boxes and seats for the special matinee to be given at the local theaters on Actors' Memorial Day. Robert Edson and Robert Keane will be the auctioneers.

Owing to the limited space in Mrs.
Barney's residence only friends of the hostess, of members of the various committee, and of the members of the various theatrical companies now playing in Washington have been invited to attend.

Mrs. James C. Pilling, who has just returned after several weeks in Bermuda, has with her her daughter, Mrs. Carroll Dunham, of Cedarhurst, L. I., for whom she entertained informally at luncheon yesterday at Rauscher's.

Capt. Bruce Bainsfather will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Randall H.
Hagner next week when he comes to lecture for the benefit of the Working Boys' Home at Polk's on January 21.

The boxholders for the entertainment are Mrs. John Hays Hammond, Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins, Mrs. Alvin
T. Fuller, Mrs. Charles Boughton Wood, Mrs. Walter R. Tuckerman, and Mrs. Randall H. Hagner.

Cathcart-Swanson Nuptials.
The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Swanson, daughter of John M. Swanson, to Thomas Edward Cathcart, of Detroit, formerly of Philadelphia, took place yesterday afternoon in the home of the bride's father on Lamont street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Henry Allen Tupper in the presence of relatives and intimate friends only. Their only attendants were William Elliott Cathcart, of Philadelphia, brother of the bridegroom, who was the best man. The bride wore her traveling suit of dark blue, with a hat of black satin, and dark furs. The bride and bridegroom left immediately afterward for their wedding trip, to end in their new home in Detroit. The out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Cathcart, parents of the bride; groom: Mr. and Mrs. William Elliott

Cathcart, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jermian, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Warren, of Germantown, Pa., and Fletcher Carter, of White Plains.

Count and Countess Ostrowski and Captain Burharat, of Poland, have arrived at the New Willard.

Those who have been asked to assist at the weekly tea at the Congressional Club today are Mrs. Willard, of Salisbury, Mrs. S. Wallace Dempsey, Mrs. Thomas B. Dunn, Mrs.
Charles R. Davis, Mrs. James H. Scott, Mrs. Lenore Sherwood, Mrs. H. W.

Seymour, Mrs. Thomas L. Rubey, Mrs.
Fred Du Bois, and Mrs. Fred Dennett.

Mrs. James C. DeVeaux, wife of the resident commissioner of the Philippines, will give an illustrated talk on her own country.

Sir George Paish has returned to Washington, and is staying at the New Willard.

The Seventh Exhibition of Contemporary American Oil Paintings and a special exhibition of sculptures, by Paul Manship, will be shown at
