

CHIVALRY WILL RULE AT POLLS

Baltimore Clerks to Ban "Rough Stuff" in Deference to Fair Voters.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 14.—According to Col. Max Ways, president of the board of election supervisors, than whom there is no more gallant friend of the women voters, there is no need for anyone in Baltimore to worry, as they are doing in crude New York, about smoking in the polling places. The ladies will not be bothered, believes Colonel Ways, and it is not necessary for the colonel to bother about the possibility of the ladies being bothered, believes Colonel Ways again. Noblesse oblige, and that, you know, will take care of that matter down here.

If I am weak, and you are strong. Why then, why then, to you the nobler needs belong.

Thus quotes Colonel Ways in illustration of the spirit in which his subordinates in some 350 odd polling places will behave, come election day. No danger at all of the ladies lacking any of the consideration due them, merely because they have come down off their pedestal as William L. Marbury, and George Arnold Frick used to say before the steamroller went

Boy Starts Fishing, Goes Berry Picking, and Gets Alligator to Tote Home

BALTIMORE, Sept. 14.—Gilbert Lowe, 13 years old yesterday, started to go fishing with his father in the Magothy.

About a mile from the headwaters of the river he spied a cluster of fox grapes and decided to postpone the fishing to go berry-picking.

Then he suddenly decided to postpone the berry-picking for near the berry bush he spied a four-foot alligator.

The reptile was placed in a gunny sack and borne in triumph to the Lowe home, where Gilbert added it to his "menagerie" of 16 pigeons, two turtles and two canary birds.

rolling over them, squashing their breath away.

If election day be rainy, "why then, why then," the cop on duty will meet the ladies at the polling places with a very polite bow, bow, them into the office, hold the umbrella protectingly over the hat, place the umbrella in an artistic stand while the vote is being cast, and have it ready and raised when the duty is performed, and the rains again are to be faced.

And the officials—each and every one of them—will rise and bow from the waist as the lady enters the office.

"That's the sort of fellows we have," Colonel Ways allowed, "and having that sort, why should we worry about the ladies being bothered by smoking in the polling places? They may have to pass laws and adopt rules in New York to insure politeness, but this is Baltimore. They may have to forbid smoking entirely in the election offices in some places in order to keep the offices in such shape that ladies may enter them without annoyance, but this is Baltimore."

"You know how it will be yourself. The boys generally smoke cigarettes—three puffs and out. Now, when only men are in the office the 'cigs' will appear and there will be a bit of puffing. But let a lady be seen making for the polling place. You know what will happen. 'Hist,' will say the cop. 'Zip' will go the lighted heads of the cigarettes. 'Bang' will go the ascending windows. And all is well. Enters the lady, with patriotism in her heart and nervousness in her fingers. Like Sunday-school in the gentle spring will be the atmosphere.

"Don't talk to me about what they will have to do in New York. This is Baltimore."

USING FEWER U. S. SHIPS
BECAUSE RATES ARE HIGH

ATHENS, Sept. 14.—American ships are becoming fewer in the waters of the eastern Mediterranean with the rapid reorganization of England's commercial fleet. The higher rates charged by American steamers have made it difficult for them to get business.

Many American ships are making the long trip from the Asiatic coast to Spain or France in ballast. A reduction of 50 per cent in callings of American tonnage at Greek ports has been recorded in the last six months.

ANNOUNCE CENSUS TOTAL NEXT MONTH

1920 Population of United States Expected to Show Gain Over Last Year.

The 1920 population of the United States will be announced late in October, according to a belief expressed yesterday by Census Bureau officials.

The population on July 1, 1919, was estimated at 106,871,294 and it is believed there has been some gain since then.

To date the population of fourteen States and the District of Columbia has been announced, leaving the returns of thirty-four States to come. Since the first 1920 census returns, on February 21, when the populations of this city and Cincinnati, Ohio, were given out simultaneously, the Census Bureau has announced the population of all cities of 100,000 and over, and all cities of 25,000 and over, with the exception of Huntington, W. Va. There are sixty-eight cities having a population of 100,000 and over. Of the 3,043 counties in the United States, the census returns of more than 1,800 of them already have been announced.

The States whose total population has been given out are Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Georgia, Indiana, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Oregon, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Utah, Vermont and Washington.

NEWS OF ROCKVILLE AND REST OF COUNTY

ROCKVILLE, Md., Sept. 14.—During an altercation Sunday night in "Monkey Run," a section of Rockville inhabited chiefly by negroes, Claude Williams, a young negro, was shot and seriously wounded by a woman.

The bullet, which was from a small caliber revolver, entered the man's chest near the heart. The woman claims Williams attacked her with a knife and that she shot in self-defense.

Miss Nellie M. Kilbreth and Frank C. Buxton, young Washingtonians, visited Rockville yesterday afternoon to get married, but were unable to obtain a license because the young woman was not quite eighteen years old and had failed to bring with her the written consent of her parents.

The young lady stated she would obtain the parental consent and return to Rockville later in the week for the ceremony.

Licenses have been issued by the clerk of the circuit court here for the marriage of the following: Miss Anna Louise Williams, of Boyds, Md., and Bradford H. Headley, of Washington; Miss Ruth Serpell, of Belting, W. Va., and George H. Coffman, of Elkins, W. Va.; Miss Helen E. Hen-

HERE is a tragic scene—a study in kid life. The young couple eloped at midnight. Father is pursuing them with a weapon in each pocket.

PRIEST DESCRIBES BLEEDING STATUES

Asserts He Has Seen Afflicted Persons Cured by Visit To Templemore.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The Rev. J. Dawson, a Roman Catholic priest of Beresford, S. D., who had been on a visit to Ireland and who returned here yesterday by the Cunard line, Caronia from Queenstown, said he saw early this month the bleeding statues of Templemore, where hundreds of miraculous cures are said to have been effected.

Father Byrne is the first traveler to reach America and vouch for the truth of the miracles at Templemore. He informed some of the customs officials that he had seen the statue of the Virgin Mary bleeding from the mouth and the statue of the Saviour from the eyes. He also confirmed the reports that thousands of credulous and curious persons had flocked to Templemore from all parts of Ireland to see for themselves.

The priest, moreover, is credited with having seen the lame and the blind cured of their affliction by their pilgrimage to the home of Thomas Divan, a shopkeeper, where the statues are being displayed. Father Byrne said he was in Templemore from September 1 to September 4.

On the Caronia were several other priests who had been to Templemore, but they were reluctant to talk of what they had seen at the home of Divan.

DUBLIN, Sept. 14.—Crowds of pilgrims have assembled at Cashel to witness the alleged manifestation of the bleeding statues. Dean Ryan writes to the newspapers saying that the priests doubt divine intervention in the case and warn the people against expecting miracles there.

The bleeding statues, first referred to in dispatches August 25, are at Templemore, ten miles north of Cashel. The advices said that miraculous cures were said to have been effected by sacred statues which were reported to have shed blood mysteriously. Lodgings at Templemore were quickly filled by pilgrims seeking cures, and surrounding towns were compelled to care for the overflow crowd.

JURY SENTENCES NEGRO
TO DEATH IN 8 MINUTES

Virginia Court Finds Prisoner Guilty of Criminal Assault—To Be Executed.

LYNCHBURG, Va., Sept. 14.—Robert Williams, alias Alabama Red, found guilty of criminal assault on Miss Annie Ross, August 8, was sentenced to be electrocuted by Judge

Frank P. Christian in corporation court yesterday.

Williams was found guilty by the jury after deliberating only eight minutes.

He was brought to Lynchburg from Roanoke, where he has been confined since an effort to lynch him last month. It was not generally known that he would be tried yesterday, and this fact was not advertised for fear of an attempt to take him away from the officers.

When his case was called considerable surprise was manifested among the few spectators.

The negro pleaded not guilty. He repudiated previous signed confessions in the hands of the police.

There was no cross-examination and the defense did not argue the case.

Williams will be electrocuted at the State penitentiary at Richmond, November 13.

END TO RATIONING SOON.

Discontinuance of meat and potato rationing in Germany will be ordered in the near future, cable dispatches to the Department of Commerce today declared. The government of Germany plans to create a meat reserve to avoid the danger of a future shortage in that country, it is stated.

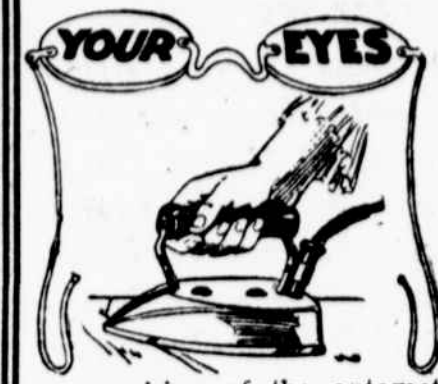

Careless Shampooing Spoils the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and preparatory shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use. One or two teaspoonfuls of Mulsified will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it scalp soft, and the hair fine and silk bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified coconut oil shampoo at any pharmacy. It's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulsified.
