YORK, Pa., Nov. 3.—One hundred men and women are out of work and no prospect of being re-employed as the result of the closing of the Eagle silk-throwing plant at Gettysburg. General business depression and the slump in the foreign silk market is said to be the cause of the shut-down. Twin plants at Mechanicsburg and in other places, it is said, will also be closed.

MAN KILLED TRYING TO PROTECT WOMAN

Policeman Who Was Beating Her Held for Action of Grand Jury.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—Following dramatic scenes at the inquest, in which the widow of a murdered man twice fainted and had to be carried out, Policeman Joseph R. Norris was held for the grand jury for killing Chester Bevin, a stock salesman, who had alighted from his automobile to assist a girl whom the policeman was beating. Norris was off duty and in citizen's clothing. He and Miss Anne Dixon, with some others, "had been making the rounds of the cafes," drinking freely, it is said. They wound up at the place operated by Al Tearney, president of the Three-I Baseball League, and a quarrel starting inside the place was renewed outside. Bevin was passing in his car and heard the woman screaming and pleading for help. He ran to her rescue and Norris shot him twice in the abdomen with an automatic pistol. Mrs. Bevin and two friends of the family were in the Bevin car and witnessed the murder. Helen Hutzler, a department store model, and George W. Davis, of Little Rock, were in the party with Norris and Miss Dixon.

DEAD MEN'S CLUB PLANNED BY LEGION

Ex-Service Men Officially Reported Killed in France to Form Organization.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 3.—Agitation continues for the formation of a "Dead Men's Club," to be composed of ex-service men, who were reported dead by the War Department and who have risen from the "dead" into the walks of every-day life. The following letter of inquiry was received recently at legion national headquarters in this city, from George D. Dickson, of New York.

"I beg to state the following facts, which I think will prove to you that I am eligible to be a member, and for further proof, I think that my own death certificate from Washington would end any doubt. I have two telegrams from Washington to my mother confirming my death. A cablegram states that I was wounded September 29, 1918, which was the case, but then they followed it up with another one, saying that I had died from my wounds October 9, which I can assure you is not true. The insurance papers were forwarded to my mother for signature, but she failed to sign, believing me alive. Two telegrams from Washington then came confirming my death." Dickson is holding a very "alive" job with a Manhattan printing company.

Then he hot-footed back to Herrota Hospital, where his wife was recuperating in another enterprise that prevented her going to the polls. "It's a boy," announced the physician in charge, "and he surely is an ace." "Mighty sorry could not cast four first ballot for the winners," said Yunkers to his wife. "Oh, it's all right," she responded. "We'll call him 'Warren Harding'."

Miss Pankhurst has since been sentenced to six months' imprisonment on charges of having published seditious literature designed to affect the navy in the newspaper, The Workers' Dreadnought, one of the articles in which was entitled "Discontent on the Lower Deck."
