

DOG'S LOVE CAUSES GIRL TO DIE BY FIRE

Prevents New Jersey Woman From Extinguishing Flaming Clothing.

ORANGE, N. J., April 29.—Devotion of her savage bulldog probably prevented saving the life of Miss M.
Louise Foster, West Orange, who died at St. Mary's Hospital here yesterday.

Miss Foster succumbed to burns received yesterday afternoon when her clothing was ignited by a rubbish fire when portiers she was hanging on a line were blown into the fire and back against her.

Neighbor women, who heard Miss Foster's screams, ran to the door of the kitchen in which Miss Foster's sister, Mary, was trying to extinguish the flames, but were prevented from entering by the savage bulldog.

Matthew McLaughlin heard the screams and the dog's barking and thought the dog had gone mad but he ran past the animal into the kitchen. As he began to assist in smothering the flames the dog attacked him, and McLaughlin seized the brute by the neck, threw it into a bed room, and shut the door.

His sister, Miss Irene McLaughlin, called an ambulance and Miss Foster was taken to the hospital here. It was said that the delay in extinguishing the flames probably resulted in her death.

Miss Foster was born in New York city. She had lived in the Oranges about six years. As she was dying she requested that her brother, Robert Foster, with whom she and her sister lived, should not be told of her injuries, as he had heart trouble, she said, and the shock might hurt him.
Miss Mary Foster's hands and clothing were badly scorched.

16 MEXICANS ACQUITTED OF VILLA RAID MURDER

DEMING, N. M., April 29.—Sixteen Mexicans were acquitted here yesterday of charges of murder in connection with the raid on Columbus, N.
M., in 1916, by Villa's troops. The verdict was reached on the first ballot after the jury had deliberated for thirty-five minutes.

There still are five indictments against Mexican prisoners charging murder in connection with the raid, but these will be dismissed, District Attorney Forest Fielder stated following the verdict.
